

Can't Sleep?
take SLEEP
THE NON-HABIT FORMING SEDATIVE

Do you toss and turn all night, praying for sleep? Sleep it right now, enjoy restful, blissful sleep! If your wakefulness is due to nervous tension, take the new Sleep-Eze, the non-habit forming sedative. Not a barbiturate, it is available without a doctor's prescription. TAKE SLEEP-EZE TONIGHT. Money back if not completely satisfied. Caution: Take only as directed. *Contains no narcotics or habit-forming ingredients. On sale at better drug stores everywhere.

Cottage Grove Pharmacy 9-13tc

The Smart Shop

Rainbow Girls

WE NOW HAVE FORMAL DRESSES
TO ACCOMMODATE YOU FOR YOUR INITIATIONS

Check Our Bargain
Counter

It's SWEATER TIME

Girls' Slip Over Sweaters

100% Wool — Sizes 7-14

$2.29

Cardigans to match $3.49

Twin Sweater Sets

Beautiful Color Combinations
Sizes 3-6

$4.98

ARLIENE'S

14 South Sixth

Phone 90

Creswell Chapter Is Honored By CG Chapter, OES

Creswell chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was entertained Friday night by the local chapter in the Masonic temple. Associate worthy matron, Aileen Rickard, and associate worthy patron, Edgar Rickard, presided in the absence of worthy matron, Ruth Thompson, and worthy patron, Wolff Allen.

The Creswell worthy matron and worthy patron were escorted to the East, introduced and presented with gifts. The local officers presented an addendum honoring the visiting worthy matron. Each officer wore a colored bonnet corresponding with the star point she represented and presented the honor guest with fruits and vegetables, also of matching colors. Humorous poems with the presentations added merriment to the addendum. Several visitors and members gave interesting talks.

A communication was read from the grand worthy matron stating the meeting dates will be changed as requested by the local chapter from former second and fourth Friday nights to the first and third Thursday nights. The next meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 19.

Members are reminded to bring canned fruits and jellies for the Masonic-O.E.S. Home at Forest Grove. For those who cannot bring their contributions to the hall, there is a committee who will call and pick them up. This telephone committee will try to contact each member.

Refreshments were served with chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler, in charge, and assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akerblade and Mrs. S. L. Mackin.

MEETINGS START WITH LUNCHEON

A luncheon at the home of Mrs. Stewart Carlson Tuesday started off all activities for the Justamere club. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Carlson were Mrs. Brighton Leonard and Mrs. Orlo Bagley. During the business meeting committees were appointed for Christmas, birthdays and picnics.

Mrs. Lloyd Griggs will entertain the club members at the next meeting, October 31.

SENTINEL SOCIETY

PHONE 555 OR 556

President Backs Chest Drive

President Truman registers his support of the Community Chest as he receives his tickets to its benefit show "Red Feather Cavalcade." Tickets are delivered by Mrs. Charles Brannan (center), wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, and Mrs. John R. Steelman, wife of the Assistant to the President.

Explain Election Measures to BPW; Observe Nat'l Business Women Week

National Business Women's Week was observed by the local Business and Professional Women's club Monday night with a dinner meeting and speaking at the Rainbow Cafe. Joan Gallo, legislative chairman, assisted by Della Gallo, was in charge of the program, and Hilda Walther had the musical numbers.

Speakers on the program were William Tugman, editor of the Eugene Register-Guard, who explained the nine state and two county measures on the November ballot, using sample ballots in his explanation. Mayor Frank Doleman explained the measure coming up for the sewerage and disposal plant for our town. Mrs. Gallo told in detail the national Business and Professional Women's legislative program for the year 1950-51. The theme for National Business Women's Week is "Measure up for Full Partnership."

Two musical numbers, "My Happiness" and "Banjo Polka" were presented by the Goodridge Music group, the Happy Ramblers. Edna Piller, president of the club, presided at the business meeting which followed, at which time it was announced that the club members had been asked to solicit the business houses for the Community Chest drive. The members voted to contact the business houses on the north side of Main street as well as those on the side streets north of Main. Lottie Lee

Lamb was appointed chairman of the soliciting committee.

The northwest district conference was announced for Oct. 29, and will be held in Portland, and the southwest district conference will be November 5 at Goos Bay. Anyone wishing to attend the southwest district conference should contact Edna Piller before Oct. 24.

Announcement was made of a rummage sale to be held Dec. 9, and Lottie Lee Lamb was appointed chairman of this committee, and will be assisted by Joan Gallo and Dorothy Schaffner.

A guest of the evening was Mrs. Donald McVeigh.

The fall season was in evidence in the table decorations with a centerpiece of miniature mums in fall colors. Completing the table decorations were grape vines interspersed with various colored bunches of grapes.

November 6 will be the next meeting and will be held in the city library.

CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William Chestnut with Mrs. George Hohman as assistant hostess.

At the election of officers Mrs. Marion Asbury was elected president; Mrs. George Hohman, vice president and Mrs. Chestnut was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

The class voted to give $20 to the church building fund and $5 for Bibles to send to Japan. Thirteen members were present and two visitors, the Rev. Hugh Peniston and Mr. Demarest from the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Demarest gave a pep talk on the building fund which is underway.

The hostesses served refreshments at the tea hour. The November meeting will be with Mrs. Masters with Mrs. Eva Hatch assisting. This meeting will be Nov. 21.

SERVICE CIRCLE STARTS MEETINGS FOR FALL

The Service Circle of the Methodist church started fall meetings Thursday evening in the church parlor. Speakers during the evening were Dr. John Soltman, who spoke on the building fund crusade; the Rev. Clark Enz, who answered questions concerning the Service Circle and the Women's Society; and Mrs. Mark Morgan, president of the Woman's Society who explained the relationship between the two groups.

Mrs. Fred Vohs tendered her resignation as chairman and Mrs. Rodney Safley was appointed co-chairman to serve with the chairman, when elected.

A pink and blue shower was held for Mrs. Francis Ryel, who was the recipient of many dainty gifts.

Guests of the Circle were Mrs. Harold Monroe, Mrs. Puderbaugh and Mrs. Ashbridge, the latter two recently moving here from Springfield.

Hostesses for the evening, who served refreshments were Mrs. Art Weinlauf and Mrs. Fred Vohs.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR MRS. JEAN KELLOGG

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuhn entertained with a surprise turkey dinner Sunday honoring Mrs. Jean Kellogg on her birthday anniversary. The Kuhn home was beautifully decorated with dahlias and mums.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. John Ljubich and daughter Susie, all of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kellogg and children Dennis and Janice of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Kenneth Kellogg is a sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kellogg.

WOM HOLS INITIATION

Women of the Moose will hold formal initiation Thursday evening. All members are required to wear formal.

After the ceremony, refreshments will be served by Mrs. Theo Dahlberg, Mrs. Maude Funk, Mrs. Delma Forrester, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, and Mrs. Agnes Gates.

BIRTHDAY AND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

The first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen and the twentieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Allen were celebrated Sunday when their parents and members of their immediate families gathered at their home for a covered dish dinner. A bowl of white chrysanthemums centered the dinner table.

Those helping the couple to observe the double occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allen and Joyce and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Allen, children Judy, Jimmy and Stephen, all of Silk Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Gale Lebow, Susan and Sandra of Disston; Weston Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hanks, Bill, Rosemary and Abe Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oberfell, LeRoy, Jean and Sandra, all of Cottage Grove.

90TH BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Many friends called on Henry F. Wells on October 12 at his home, 641 South Third street, to congratulate him on his 90th birthday anniversary and leave gifts and flowers.

Mr. Wells moved to Cottage Grove three years ago from Yoncalla. He has three children, Lester of Eugene, Bertha Marshall of Spokane and Wesley of Drain.

Out-of-town guests calling on Mr. Wells were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mertz and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wise from Yoncalla and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges of Roseburg.

COUPLE FLIGHTS TROTH AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Miss Teddy Heyl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Roberts of Creswell, became the bride of Tracy Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold Monday, Oct. 9, at ten o'clock in the morning at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic church. The Rev. Paul Zeller officiated.

Maid of honor was Aurora Heyl of Creswell and best man was Joe Getty. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. Arnold is employed at the local fire department.

LADIES TO MEET 13TH

The Ladies FOE No. 2091 will meet in the IOOF hall the night of November 13, with attention being called to the date which will be the second Monday of the month.

May Tennis won the pillow cases at the last meeting and the Appreciation gift went to Wreatha Hobbs. Two new members were initiated at this meeting. A costume parade and Stanley party were entertainment for the evening. Best costume prizes were won by Ada Pitcher and Gladys Anderson with bobbles going to Jerry Bert and Beryl Shattuck.

Anyone wishing to report news of the group, call Vickie Nowak, 187R.

DEXTER LADY IS SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Four Cottage Grove ladies went to Dexter Tuesday, taking their dinner and birthday cake, and surprised Mrs. Harry Henderson on her birthday anniversary. Those in the party were Mrs. Thana Miller, sister of Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Claude Abene and son, Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter and Mrs. Clifton Adams.

Town Suit

Duvetyn outfit in black or beige.

By VERA WINSTON

DEPT handling of fabrics and fine tailoring marks many of the suits destined for a busy career in town this fall. Black or beige velvet duvetyn is used for this striking suit. It has a black velvet collar above the double-breasted jacket that is sharply curved at the hem, and has melon pockets to point up the slightly padded hips. This is a good suit for street wear, but ready for almost any occasion with the right accessories and complements.

Kids' Day Queen

OUTSTANDING service to the community of Hamilton, Ohio, brings Joan Crawford, 13, the title of Queen of 1950 National Kids' Day. Selection was made by a panel of judges representing some 3,150 Kiwanis clubs. Joan's prize is a free trip to Hollywood. (Central Press)

DAVID BLINKENSTAFF RECEIVES OBLIGATION IN VOITURE NO. 80

Voiture No. 80 of Lane county held its promenade at the local IOOF hall Oct. 12, at which time David Blinkenstaff was obligated by Charles Whipp, grand chemist. Five more Legions including Marvin Addy, a member of Post No. 32, were passed on for membership by the investigating committee.

A large group was in attendance, and a banquet was served preceding the meeting by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The annual venison feed of Voiture No. 80 will be held at the American Legion hall in Springfield on Oct. 21.

HOUSE BILL NO. 306 TO BE EXPLAINED AT P-TA

The P-TA will meet Monday, Oct. 23. The musical program will be at 7:30 and business meeting at 8 p.m.

There will be a speaker from the Oregon Education Assn., who will speak on House Bill 306, "The Children's Bill." Also facts will be presented to show how this bill will affect this vicinity.

The eighth grade mothers will be hostesses for the evening.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS SET BOOK TEA NOV. 13

The Catholic Daughters of America have announced the postponement of the scheduled book tea for next Sunday at the parish house to November 13 at 8 p.m. in the library clubroom.

Officers are asked to be present at 7:45 for the opening and closing of the meeting preceding the tea.

MRS. MORRIS, MRS. POWELL ENTERTAIN SOCIALLY

Members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft were entertained at a Halloween party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ivan Morris, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Powell. All members came dressed in costume, and prizes for the best were awarded to Pearl Bressler for the women and Bill Bartels for the men.

The evening was spent in playing games and supper was served the group at a late hour. Fall flowers and Halloween decoration were in keeping with the season.

Flowers

At home or away.

DON'T MAKE IT
AN OCCASION—
MAKE IT A HABIT

Say it with Flowers from
Sunnyside GREENHOUSES
1704 W. MAIN • Ph. 182
At 182 mean Flowers to you

"Synthetic Detergents" Was Topic At Mt. View Extension Club, Oct. 13

The Mount View Extension club held its regular meeting at the Dorena Grange hall, Oct. 13. The meeting on "Synthetic Detergents" was very interestingly presented by the Home Demonstration agent Miss Constance Blaine. It was explained what a detergent is, how to test it for alkaline, acid and neutral contents.

As the Hebron club has disbanded and some of the members are attending this unit they donated five dollars to the club to help with the expenses. Membership in the unit at present is as follows: Mesdames U. F. Armstrong, Glen Banton, L. K. Brumfield, R. G. Carpenter, Lawrence Chapman, Lyman Chezem, A. B. Cochran, J. S. Crepeau, Walter Downes, Archie Downie, Glen Gillispie, George Gunn, Roy Hands, J. A. Heath, Claude Hensley, Archie Hill, W. R. Larsen, George Layne, William Perini, R. E. Poynter, C. W. Rice, Leo Rickard, R. M. Seaver, William Schillings, E. H. Stanley, Lloyd Swanson, C. M. Thornburg, Milton Turay, Edwin Voss, John Woolcott, Alvin Englund, A. S. Hinds, S. E. Pittman.

Ben McCormack, Lee Giles, E. G. Hocking, Lehman Johnson and P. F. Prescott.

The next meeting will be on November 10. The lesson will be on "Gifts from Cloth" and the leaders are Mrs. Archie Downie and Mrs. John Woolcott. Be sure to bring the following articles: a lead pencil with an eraser on it, needle for sewing cotton material, scissors for cutting paper and cloth and a thimble.

The better dress workshop, for those interested in taking it, will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Hands on Oct. 24. You will not need your sewing machine the first day but as many as possible should arrange to have one available for the second meeting.

Mesdames Glen Gillispie, E. G. Hocking and Edwin Voss will be hostesses for the November meeting.

CIRCLE 3 TO MEET

Circle #3 of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church will meet at 2 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 25, at the home of Mrs. Roy Short, 210 S. Fifth St.

EVERY DAY COSMETICS

- 50c TRUSHAY LOTION 47c
- 55c PONDS CREAMS 49c
- 60c DRENE SHAMPOO 57c
- 25c HUMAN HAIR NETS . . . 19c
- 60c KREML HAIR TONIC . . . 49c
- MAX FACTOR PANCAKE . . . 1⁵⁰

EVERY DAY REMEDIES

- 25c ANACIN TABLETS 19c
- 60c REM FOR COUGHS 57c
- 1.00 MILES NERVINE 98c
- 60c MURINE FOR EYES . . . 54c
- 1.00 IRONIZED YEAST 74c
- 25c EX LAX LAXATIVE 23c

COMPOUNDING PRESCRIPTIONS IS OUR BUSINESS

That's why you can bring your next prescription to us with confidence.

LIMITED TIME OFFER
50c PROPHYLACTIC TOOTH BRUSHES
2 Proton-Regular $1.00 Value 75c

Sweetest Day REMINDER

WHITMAN'S CHOCOLATES
Give her the sweetest gift of all
Priced From 1⁵⁰

COTTAGE GROVE PHARMACY

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS

"Pleasing You — Pleasing Us"

632 MAIN

PHONE 244

KNICKERBOCKER'S COTTAGE GROVE

"The Largest Toy Selection in the Valley"

Take advantage of our Christmas Lay-Away Plan with

- Halloween Masks - Candy
- Pumpkins - Paper Plates - Napkins
- Streamers - Candles - Hats
- Very Large Selection - - BUY EARLY