Drain Brothers Wed at Double Ceremony October 6; Mother Officiates at Her Daughter's Church Wedding

—Courtesy Drain Enterprise

A candlelight double wedding ceremony united two Drain couples Friday night, Oct. 6, at eight o'clock at the Assembly of God church in Drain. The Rev. Hermine B. Hill, pastor of the Assembly of God church at Drain, officiated at the ceremony that united her daughter, Donnarae Hill to Robert Clarence Davis and Corene Odette Pardee to Calvin Raymond Davis. The bridegrooms are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Davis of Drain and Miss Pardee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pardee of Goldendale, Wash. An archway decorated with pink and silver and sword fern formed the setting for the exchange of the wedding vows. The couples chose their attendants and candlelight.

Mr. Hill gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was of white slipper satin with long sleeves and bodice of overlaid lace cut with a sweetheart neckline. Her full skirt ended in a long train. With it she wore a lace crown of inlaid pearls. Both gown and veil were imported from Paris. She carried a bouquet of pink, white and yellow carnations. Mrs. Ethelene Weston, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink taffeta gown trimmed with rosebuds. Miss Thelma Keeney was bridesmaid and wore a broadened orchid taffeta. Diana Shoemaker, dressed in pink and white taffeta, was flower girl and Robert Carl Sowell was ring bearer. The candlelighter was Sandra Hill of Cottage Grove, cousin of the bride. Clarence Gossage was best man and Andrew Nelson and Sam Allridge were ushers. Mrs. Harry Russell played the wedding music. Miss Corene Odette Pardee was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin lace trimmed dress with high neck and long sleeves. Her long train was also edged with lace. Her fingertip lace-edged veil was held by a crown of inlaid pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink, white and yellow carnations. Her maid of honor was Miss

TRADITIONAL THANKSGIVING

Flowers

The Final Touch of Gracious Hospitality

There's something "extra special" about flowers at Thanksgiving time. They're as traditional as turkey, as heartening as music, as stimulating as laughter. They're so important to add the final touch to your home, to your table on this day of congenial reunion.

To the folks back home, send Flowers-by-Wire that they, too, may know you are grateful for their blessings.

Bridal Shower for Virginia Hudson

A large group of members of the Baptist church were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. C. Martin honoring Miss Virginia Hudson, who will be married Thursday evening to Walter Graham. Assisting Mrs. Martin as hostesses were Mrs. Frank White and Miss Lena Zendron. A large memory book had been prepared for the honoree and was completed during the afternoon with each guest pasting in an appropriate picture, giving a bit of advice to the bride-to-be and entering a Bible verse.

Daffodil cake and pink ice cream were served the guests. A miniature wedding bell was suspended from each nut cup, in keeping with the event.

The honoree was showered with many lovely gifts from the guests: Mesdames Charles Parrett of Eugene, Nannie Smith, William Gambill, George Martin, Peter Nydam, H. A. Spriggs, Ted Johnson, Verna Couch, Erwin Hansen, Curtis Hansen, Helen Tank, Robert Hudson, John Hudson, Laura Robertson, John McCall, Nannie Nabakowski,

"Book Tea" Proves Valuable to Library

Members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic church presented the city library with 92 new books valued at $227 Monday night at their "Book Tea" held in the library. Parish members served refreshments and accordion selections were played by Barbara Cook. Recordings of religious music also furnished entertainment during the evening.

The "Book Tea" was well attended, and guests were taken through the new library building by the librarian, Mrs. D. R. Eakin. Mrs. S. L. Mackin, president of the library board and Mrs. Orlo Bagley, board member.

The new books were placed on a special shelf by themselves for the present where they might be inspected by the public. Later they will be on the proper shelves.

Mrs. Lloyd Plueard contributed some silver teaspoons to the club room, and it is planned to add more silverware from time to time by the group.
