

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Ike Dailey of Reedsport spent Monday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dugan.

Mrs. Nell Sarff returned home Sunday night from a week's stay at Albany. While there she had her farm house re-sided and insulated. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Graham, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bricher and 10 children moved last week to their 66-acre ranch at Vida on the McKenzie river. In the moving procession with the Brichers and children were their four horses and one dog. Mr. Bricher and Mary will commute to Cottage Grove until Christmas. Mary is a sophomore in the local high school, and will have a part in the high school Christmas play and will sing at the Githens Motors Christmas party.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Madsen received word of the death of their friend, Mrs. Mae Updyke of Roseburg. She passed away Friday, December 1, at her home in Roseburg. Services were held Monday at two o'clock in Roseburg. Mrs. Updyke had visited here and had many friends around here.

Phil Harris and Bob Carlie spent the week end duck hunting in the Klamath Falls region. The hunters reported too much snow in the Klamath area. They returned empty handed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beagle of Marcola and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beagle of Vancouver, Wash., were week end guests of their father, A. H. Beagle.

Roger Webster, son of June Castleberry of Cottage Grove, pledged Sigma Nu fraternity during rush week held recently on the University of Oregon campus.

Services Friday For Mary Smith, 60-Year Resident

Funeral services will be held Friday, Dec. 8, at 2:30 p.m. for Mrs. Mary C. Smith, age 60 years, at the Little White Church on the Hill, at Walker. Interment will be in the Walker cemetery. England-Verch Mortuary of Eugene will be in charge.

Mrs. Smith passed away suddenly Tuesday, Dec. 5, at the Hixson Nursing Home in Eugene. She was born in Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 21, 1850, and married in Denison, Iowa, to Francis Smith, March 11, 1880. They came to Oregon and settled in the Walker community in 1930, where she had resided since until four months ago. They established the first post office at Walker 60 years ago, and were pioneer merchants there. She was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Horn of Cottage Grove and Mrs. J. R. Walden of Eugene; two sons, Arthur Smith of Mt. Shasta, Calif., and Glen Smith of San Francisco; two foster daughters, Mrs. Day T. Bayly of Eugene and Mrs. Howard Connor of Cottage Grove; eight grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren, besides an endless number of friends.

Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. Mike VanderKiey, Mrs. Alvin Dugan and Mrs. Robert Boyce Jr., spent a couple days last week in Portland. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Mills.

Mrs. Bert Hatch, Mrs. Horace Hatch, Mrs. R. F. Smith and Mrs. James Racknor motored to Roseburg last week and attended the district convention of Rebekahs held there.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will sponsor a Merchant's lunch and bazaar at the church Saturday, Dec. 9. The lunch will be served in the dining room from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ness represented the local Methodist church at a young adult planning session and workshop held in Salem last Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Henry Myers of Lorane route spent the week end with Mrs. Lillie James.

Miss Virginia Dailey, student at the University of Oregon, visited home folks over the week end. She was accompanied to Cottage Grove by two other University students, Larry Wolfard and Albert Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brisbane and family of Portland, former residents are renewing acquaintances and visiting at the home of a brother, L. E. Brisbane and family.

Mrs. C. L. Titus of Cottage Grove received a serious injury one day last week when she slipped and fell in a local store. She is hospitalized in a Eugene hospital where her condition is reported good.

Mrs. Neil Brown has been hospitalized in a Eugene hospital for the past 10 days, where she is recovering from surgery.

MRS. NELLIE MORROW, A FORMER RESIDENT, DIES IN SEATTLE

Mrs. Nellie Morrow, a native of Cottage Grove, died at her home in Seattle last Thursday according to word reaching here. Mrs. Morrow, who was born here was the daughter of Ulysses Martin, who in his later years was well known at Seattle in the building trade. Mrs. Morrow was a former music teacher and had lived in Seattle for the past 45 years. Funeral services were held in Seattle Friday.

D. D. Gillespie, Cooperative Mgr., Dies at Bend

D. D. Gillespie of Eugene, manager of Lane County Cooperative Stores in Eugene and Cottage Grove, passed away suddenly in a hotel at Bend early Wednesday morning, Dec. 6, as the result of a heart attack.

Walter Taylor, manager of the elevator, accompanied Gillespie to Bend, and the two planned to attend the dedication of the Madras elevator on Wednesday.

Mr. Taylor found him dead on their hotel room floor early Wednesday morning.

The death of Mr. Gillespie made it necessary to call a special meeting of the board of Lane County Cooperative for Thurs., Dec. 7, at 10:30 a.m., at the store in Eugene. The board members are: Harold Foster, Lorane, secretary; Hugh Trunnell, Cottage Grove, chairman; John Keibelbeck, Cottage Grove, member of board; Clyde Wright, Creswell and Walter Platt, Springfield, members.
