Larry Joll of Eugene, grandson of Jesse Grubbs, who lost his eye recently, just returned home from the hospital only to find himself victim of the measles.

A letter this week from Florence Keibelbeck Knippen, now of Rt. 3, Delphos, Ohio, reveals that they have had the coldest winter for many years for that section. It was 13 below zero there.

However, they did get a little break in the weather, from the 17th to the 21st of January, when the thermometer soared to 60, much to the delight of a native Oregonian. Incidentally, she finds time to read the affairs of the many communities around Cottage Grove, found in the pages of the Sentinel.
