Theta Rhos Sponsor Dora Bradley As Queen Candidate

At the Monday night meeting of the Theta Rho Girls it was voted to sponsor Miss Dora Bradley as queen candidate for the coming Cottage Grove Rodeo. Plans were made to spend Saturday and Sunday at the coast.

The girls will leave here at 7 a.m. Saturday and return Sunday evening.

Twelve girls and two Rebekahs were present for the meeting. The next regular meeting will be June 18, and installation of the new officers will be July 2.

Bloodloom is not a weave but a rug woven in continuous lengths 9, 12, 15 or 18 feet wide.

Couple Married at Home Ceremony; At Home at Dorena After July 1

Miss Reta L. Hornbrook and Dean M. Chapman exchanged wedding vows Saturday, May 26, at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frances E. Hornbrook, Eugene. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis S. Chapman of Dorena. Judge Chester Anderson united the couple in marriage.

The bride wore a white organza street-length dress fashioned with cap sleeves, high neck line with small collar. The bodice was tucked down the front, and her skirt was full with a figured border. She carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with an orchid, and had white carnations in her hair. As a keepsake, she carried an old handkerchief which belonged to her great-grandmother.

Best man and matron of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Chapman, parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. Chapman wore a green dress and white iris corsage.

Baskets of white peonies and pink snapdragons decorated the rooms.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ralph Hill of Creswell, cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Ronald W. Hornbrook, sister-in-law of the bride, poured punch, and Miss Alma N. Chapman, sister of the bridegroom, served ice cream.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C. and the Oregon coast, and will be at home after July 1 in their new home at Dorena.

Rhododendrons Decorate Church at Walker for Early June Wedding

Rhododendrons decorated the Walker Union church Saturday, June 2, at eight o'clock for the wedding of Miss Carol Angel to Ulyess Woody. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Angel of Cottage Grove, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Woody of North Carolina. Russell Myers performed the ceremony.

Mr. Wiley gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress was white embroidered rayon and her veil was dotted with pearls held by flowers were white carnations and pink rosebuds. For "something old," she wore her grandmother's birthstone ring.

Mrs. Glen Dockery of Disston was matron of honor. She wore a black and white checked suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Glen Dockery was best man, and ushers were Miss Jean Coleman and Miss Sylvia Thiede. Preceding the ceremony Miss Lee Perini sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Reta Perini, who also played the wedding music.

The reception followed in the church parlor. Cake, ice cream and punch were served by Mrs. C. L. Nance, Mrs. W. West, Mrs. Phillip McKenzie, and Miss Jean Coleman.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will be at home at Disston where Mr. Woody is engaged as a logger.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Fetes Young Couple

A pre-nuptial shower was given May 31 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nance honoring Carol Angel and Ulyess Woody, who were married June 2. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the couple and the remainder of the evening was spent playing games. Cake and coffee were served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. Phil McKinsey, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson, Mr. and Mrs.

District Officers Introduced at N of W

Mildred Teich, guardian neighbor, presided at the regular meeting of Neighbors of Woodcraft Tuesday night at which time the recently appointed district attendant, Kay Bartels, introduced the grand representative of District 12, Adelia Hatch. In turn, Mrs. Hatch introduced Mrs. Bartels and presented her with a corsage.

During the evening, Ruth Moss was initiated, and a memorial service was held for Minnie Hiner, chairman of the grand board of managers, and Irene Downey, district manager of District 26 in California, both being past grand officers. Adelia Hatch read the eulogy for both and Fanny Leabo sang a hymn. A wreath was placed on the campfire for each one and each member placed a red carnation in the basket of white flowers and greenery, symbolizing the lodge colors.

A potluck dinner was served preceding the meeting with Julia Bartels chairman. A nice sum was realized for the district Circle expenses. The district Circle meeting will be held in Springfield August 9 and 10.

The next social meeting will be at the home of Kay Bartels, June 19, at 8 p.m. Adelia Hatch will be assistant hostess. A picnic is announced for Monday evening July 2, the place to be announced later.

Initiation for seven candidates was announced for the July business meeting which will be the 16th.
