Picnics, Boating, Camping and Rodeo Furnish Entertainment for the Fourth

Picnics, boating, camping, rodeos and family gatherings were among the most popular entertainment on the Fourth of July. Some picnicked at Cottage Grove lake, others camped on the McKenzie, and another group spent the day on the Umpqua, several attended the Yoncalla rodeo, and others were entertained in the homes of friends and relatives.

Many of the wise ones stayed at home and caught up on those odd jobs that have been piling up since last Fourth, while the still wiser ones, just rested. But, we'll all agree on one thing—the absence of fireworks made it a very quiet, safe and sane Fourth, and just another holiday.

Birthday Observed at Lake

Relatives came from far and near to be with the Fred Langston Sr. and Fred Langston Jr. families for the holidays and also observed the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Charles Mizera of Ashland, sister of Mrs. Langston Sr. Her birthday was the Fourth. This group went to Cottage Grove lake for the day, and besides a picnic dinner, boating, swimming, and wading were the order of the day, plus music on the guitar and harmonica.

In the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wald, Michael, Philip and Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Striluk, daughter Bonnie and Mrs. Elizabeth Darland, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Andrews of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Coffelt, daughters Sharon and Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Coffelt and son Gary, all of Arcata, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mizera of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Clea Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Langston Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Langston Jr., and children Frederick, Paula and Christine.

Queen Candidates Introduced

A large number of local people attended the Yoncalla Rodeo, among the group were the five Cottage Grove Rodeo queen candidates who were introduced. They were the Misses Dora Bradley, Phyllis McKay, Alpha Lee, Darlene Underhill, and Roberta McDonald.

Among others spending the day at the Yoncalla Rodeo were: the Stanley, Manley, Marion and Chet Purdy families, Donnie Parks, Lloyd and Floyd Holland, all of Lorane; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard, Kay Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pyeatt, Mr. and Mrs. Connie Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welden, Della Mae Welden, Louie Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Potter, sons Denny and G. G., Mr. and Mrs. Stub Mosby, sons Jerry and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mason and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shepherd and children, Beverly and Jerry.

Umpqua Attracts Group

Spending a quiet day on the Umpqua below Scottsburg were Mr. and Mrs. Vinal Randall Jr., Roger and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Neal, daughter Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pickens.

Birthday Dinner Served

Mrs. Karl Mills entertained her family with a birthday dinner for her husband. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills, their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mills and Elizabeth and John were present.

Families Camp on McKenzie

Camping on the McKenzie river the night of the third were the families of Neil Gwyn, Jim Hendricks and Bob Moody. That is, Neil and Jim camped after they awakened all the campers on the McKenzie river trying to find the right camp.

The Fourth was spent picnicking at Belknap Springs.

Roy Shermans Entertain

A group, who had planned a picnic at Cottage Grove lake, were a little dubious about the threatening weather, and was glad to accept an invitation to the Roy Sherman home for an indoor picnic dinner.

This party included: Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Land, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton, J. S. Markham, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. D. M. Hamant, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akerblade, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman.

After a social afternoon and visiting, the group went through the fine new Veterans of Foreign Wars building on North River Road.

Lake Attracts Groups

Another group picnicking at the lake included Mrs. Lee Miller and son Lee of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Carter and baby of Eugene;

Mrs. Harrel Attends Social Functions While in Colorado

Mrs. Velma Harrel attended two social functions while visiting relatives in Carbondale, Colorado.

On June 18, she attended the wedding of her great niece, Miss Helen Dee Hinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Hinkle, to Donald Gordon McLean. The event was a double ring candlelight ceremony in the Methodist church. Mr. Hinkle gave his daughter in marriage. Baskets of white and sunset pink gladioli blanketed the candle-lit altar.

The bride wore a gown of imported chintilly lace over antique ivory satin. Her white prayer book was covered with Pointe de Venise lace brought from Vienna by the bride for that purpose. A diamond stickpin belonging to her father was borrowed to secure her veil, and an heirloom pin, which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother, was used as "something old."

Mr. and Mrs. McLean will live at Fort Collins, where he will continue his course in Veterinary Medicine at Colorado A&M college.

The bride's father, Daryl Hinkle, is a nephew of Mrs. Harrel, and a graduate of the local high school.

Another social event attended by Mrs. Harrel was the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hinkle, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Harrel. This was held in the dining room of Hotel Denver the evening of June 27.

BYF PLAYS SOFTBALL

Each Tuesday evening the members of the Baptist Youth Fellowship gather at the Jefferson school grounds for an evening of softball, after which they adjourn to the home of one of the group for refreshments. The Rev. William Sutterlin, pastor of the church, has been in charge of the recreational period.

LORANE

Mrs. R. G. Conner, Reporter

Lorane school bus will leave at 9 a.m. July 9 to take children to the Drain pool for swimming lessons. The Rev. Robert A. Green will drive the bus and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell and Mrs. Stanley Purdy will go along as supervisors. Age limits are from 6 through high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wyman and family left Saturday for a few days visit to relatives in Boise, Idaho and Baker. While they are gone his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnston, who have spent the past few weeks with them will care for their place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Suiter who recently took Mrs. Bridge Maley and children to Plainfield, Texas, have written back that Patty Maley broke out with measles about the time they arrived. Mr. Maley will soon move their possessions to Texas. The Suiteres who have been visiting relatives there expect to be back soon after the Fourth.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert A. Green have returned after a two weeks absence. The first week was spent at Turner at the Oregon Convention of Churches of Christ and the last week visiting relatives in Yakima.

Mrs. Gene Davis and small son Stanley of Alsea spent a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Doughty while her husband was on a fishing trip with friends. When he returned they went on to California for a few days vacation.

Friday, July 6 only, prayer services will be held at Lorane Christian Church instead of on Thursday due to the Fourth of July holidays.

Lane County Convention of Churches of Christ will be held July 8, at 3 p.m. at the 7R ranch just north of Lorane on the Eugene-Lorane highway.

Mrs. R. G. Conner who has been a patient at Cottage Grove hospital is now at the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. Alice Conner at 1131 Ash in Cottage Grove. Visitors may see her there for the next three weeks.

IOOF installation has been postponed until July 11 due to the Fourth of July holidays falling this week.

Lorane Couple Wed in Double Ring Ceremony at Springfield Church

(Mrs. R. G. Conner, Lorane correspondent)

Springfield First Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lillian Tew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Tew of near Lorane to Clyde Harold Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Robertson of Lorane.

The church was decorated with baskets of roses and delphinium flanked by tall candelabra at the altar and tall baskets of pastel gladioli and delphinium on each side. Tall tapers were attached to each pew also.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of starched marquisette made with high neck and small peter pan collar. Her bodice had tiny buttons down the front. The front and hipline were trimmed with lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a seed pearl-trimmed Juliet cap. Her bouquet was orange blossoms.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Dennis Mitchell, who wore green organdie fashioned similarly to the bride's dress and carried a nosegay of pink and white painted daisies.

Bridesmaids were three sisters of the bride, who wore dresses like the matron of honor, Roberta was in yellow, Catherine in pink and Dawn in blue organdie. Each carried a nosegay of painted daisies.

Dennis Mitchell was best man and Walter Hayes and Larry Schaffer were ushers.

Proceeding the ceremony Ruth Kistler sang "Because" and "I Love Thee," by Greig.

The double ring ceremony was read by Dr. E. R. Moon, pastor of the First Christian Church, at 8 p.m., June 22.

For something old the bride wore a cameo which had belonged to her grandmother. It was worn by her sister, Mrs. Dennis Mitchell, at her wedding.

At the reception immediately following in the church parlors, a sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Robert Bailey, was in charge of the bride's book. Serving was done by Miss Gladys Buckhole and Mrs. Cal Marlin. Mrs. Larry Wilson and Mrs. Floyd Brant were in charge of the punch bowl.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Warner wore a brown suit with tan accessories. They will be at home in Eugene following a short trip.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Max McGinnray and Mrs. May Allen Chesney, aunt and cousin of the bride from Ketchikan, Alaska, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Templeton of Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Warner and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner all of Portland; Miss Julia Warner of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner, Terry and

Stamp Society Has Dinner, Social Meet

Members of the South Lane Stamp Society were guests of Billy Randall at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vinal T. Randall, Thursday evening, for a potluck dinner and social get-together.

Society members entertained two Eugene guests during the evening, Miss Lillian Morton and Mrs. Dee Townsend.

Hayride is Fun And Profitable

A hayride Saturday night in Chet Purdy's red pickup for 13 Theta Rho girls and three musicians proved to be a lot of fun as well as profitable for the Theta Rho queen candidate, Dora Bradley, for the coming rodeo.

Tickets were sold on Main street from the pickup as the musicians, Dana Whitney of Latham and Jimmy Williams of Saginaw played their accordions and Georgie Mae Smith sang.

After a successful campaign, the group accompanied by the advisor, Dorothy Lyon, and Alda Miller, newly elected noble grand of the Rebekahs, serenaded their assistant advisor, Mrs. J. P. Walker.

The evening closed with a wiener roast on the bank of the river at the Miller home.

MRS. MILLER PRESENTED 25-YR. SERVICE EMBLEM

At the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Pioneer banquet at the Veterans Memorial Building in Eugene Friday night Mrs. Charles E. Miller, local operator, was presented with a 25-year service emblem. The Eugene group was host to the members of the Cascade Council.

Those attending from here were: Mrs. Miller, Miss Mildred Dugan, Mrs. F. L. Langston, C. J. Robinson of Silk Creek, a retired pioneer from Texas, Mrs. E. A. Boswell, Mrs. Lee DeMoss, Mrs. Margaret Clearwater and C. E. Miller.
