Primary Sessions Are Attracting Many Youngsters

Mrs. Roy Miller, superintendent of the primary department of the Methodist church school, announced Sunday that the extra sessions of the primary department which on account of the fourth of July were not held this week, will be resumed next Tuesday, July 10 and continued July 12, 17, and 19.

These sessions feature songs, games, stories and hand craft. They are held at the church from 10:00 to 11:30. All children of primary age (1st, 2nd and 3rd graders) are invited to attend.

Mrs. Miller stated that the attendance has been very good. The session on the 19th of July will be the tenth and the final one for the summer. However, the regular primary work will be continued each Sunday at 9:45 throughout the summer.

Give Us a Name for this Salad
WIN $200.00
It's a little contest we've whipped up for folks in this area (not a national contest). You'll find a national contest blank at your Safeway store. Choose a name. Write it on the blank together with your name and address. Drop it in the box at the store. That's all there is to it. There's nothing to buy. No obligation. Anyone can enter except employees of Safeway Stores, Inc. and their families. Entries will be judged by food editors of the Portland, Oregon Journal and The Oregonian. Decision of judges will be final. Duplicate award in case of a tie.
Contest closes Wednesday, July 11. Winner will be announced in about two weeks after close of contest.
