Like firemen in surrounding towns of the county, the Creswell Volunteers have responded to several fires, many of them grass fires, and have been ever alert for more calls. They announce that any property owners wishing to have grass burned off are to call the chief, C. C. Holleman, V. W. Johnston, or A. C. Denny. A minimum charge of $2.50 will be made per lot 50x100 ft. and slightly more for a larger lot. Team number Two will practice July 19 and team number One will practice July 24. Denny and Cecil Rhodes will serve refreshments at the August meeting.

Mrs. Ed Holt of Veneta called Wednesday at the J. E. Smith home. Her granddaughter Leslie Smith who has been visiting her paternal grandparents, the Smiths, went home with her to visit at Veneta.

A 6-pound 12-ounce son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Murnard England of 1009 Pearl St. in Eugene Tuesday, July 10. The Englands also have a daughter Susanne, nine years. The baby is a grandson of Mrs. Effie Hoyer of Creswell. Mr. England is the local mortician.

Mrs. Clella Sparks writes from 7053 Beach Drive, Seattle where she is visiting her son Mark Brown and family. She is well but would be happy to get cards from her friends.

Jerald Anderson, son of Mrs. Mary Anderson, broke his arm while playing at his home Friday. He was taken to Cottage Grove for treatment.

ANOTHER SWISS BELL FOUND BY J.E. SMITH

CRESWELL — Well, another Swiss bell has shown up in this community. Mrs. J. E. Smith has one with the same inscription and name of the founder as that of Mrs. W. S. Gillenwater's, "Chian-tel" made in Saigne-leiger, Switzerland.

She thinks her father, the late Joseph Weber, found the bell while building his home, the present Smith residence, in 1913. The clapper from this bell is missing but otherwise is well preserved.

Donald Satter FN is home on leave from San Diego. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Satter.

Miss Kay Wheeler of Portland was home for the week end with her mother, Mrs. H. W. Wheeler, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oakes and their four children Bill, Arthur, Penny and Dale of Salem came Saturday morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wheeler. Bill returned to Salem Saturday night but the rest of the family stayed until Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Cochran left Wednesday afternoon for Salem where she visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Berdine Walker.

Mrs. H. W. Wheeler received word of a new arrival at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Best of Deer Park, Wash. It's a boy and they have named him Terry Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cook and children Jimmy and Mickey ate Sunday dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cochran. They celebrated the birthdays of Jimmy and his grandpa Cochran that were July 11 and 12. Jimmy and Mickey are staying with their grandparents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Aasved and son Milo of Butte, Montana visited with Mr. and Mrs. Montie Thornberg Monday week. The Aasveds and Thornbergs were old friends and neighbors in Montana. Jimmy Thornberg, who is with the armed forces and was stationed at El Paso, Texas, has been sent to Germany. His wife Dorothy is waiting at El Paso until her parents return from their trip to Kentucky and other points east and she will come home with them.

It must be the states have been shifting around. Your reporter was born in Kansas and lived there until practically grown, and it never, never rained in Kansas. Coming west to Oregon, I spent a summer or two here when it was never like this—it rained. Now Kansas is swimming for her life and we Oregonians are—well the ones I talk to are just plain disgusted with sunshine, and scanning the heavens for clouds.

C. J. Robinson left Tuesday morning to attend a week's 4-H camp at Camp Lane on the Siuslaw river. He will be the camp photographer. Mrs. Harry M. Robinson and daughter Judy of Portland will stay with Mrs. C. J. Robinson while Mr. Robinson is away at camp.

Francis Sargent returned Monday from visiting his parents at College Place, Wash. He reports hot weather there also—only 108°. Mrs. Euna Givens and two little daughters of Springfield and Miss Rose Brodrug of Eugene attended church and communion at the Seventh Day Adventist church Saturday and visited in the neighborhood in the afternoon.

The Walden Sunday school children's Bible school came to a successful conclusion Friday with a picnic at noon. Fay Filby was director and teacher with Mrs. Wilma Culp, Mrs. Mable Kief and Mrs. Frances Crane helping out and Mrs. Sandefur came every day to play the piano for the group. enjoyed a week's visit from Mrs. Langston's grandmother, Mrs. P. J. Dorrah of Ardmore, Oklahoma. They hadn't seen her for several years.

What might have been a tragedy one day last week on the Floyd Jones ranch when a car belonging to Raymond Judson caught fire near where Sam Rasmussen was cutting hay was put out by the quick work of all present. They want to thank the Cottage Grove fire department that came out and the fire was put out before it got in the dry grass. It would have been hard to stop with the hard winds we have had lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed have as houseguests this week Mrs. Reed's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rodgers and three girls from Cincinnati, Ohio. They and their guests and Jim Nelson of Anlauf spent several days at Heceta Beach at the Otis Chapman cabin.

spent the week end at Centralia at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huntington and two daughters.

In writing the news last week the name of Mrs. Eldon Jones and two children of Orick, Calif., was left out of the callers at the Floyd Jones home the Fourth, and also Mrs. Dolly Comstock of Coos Bay was a caller. She is a sister of Floyd Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones visited Monday evening in Cottage Grove with Mrs. Hazel McNeil who is leaving for a visit in Ash-
