Mr. and Mrs. Bill McBee (Dolores VanMatre) were married Sunday evening, August 26, at the home of E. W. Ware. They will reside in Cottage Grove when they return from their wedding trip.

Dolores VanMatre and Bill McBee Exchange Vows at Home Ceremony

Miss Dolores VanMatre and Bill McBee exchanged wedding vows Sunday evening, August 26, at eight o'clock at the home of E. W. Ware. About 40 relatives and friends were present for the double ring candlelight ceremony performed by Elder Virgil C. Hill of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Tall baskets of white and yellow gladioli were on either side of the fireplace, forming a floral setting for the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil VanMatre and parents of the bridegroom are Mr.

and Mrs. Frank McBee, all of Cottage Grove.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Carolyn Moore sang "No Other Love" and Mrs. Warren Ness sang "Because." Both accompaniments were by Mrs. Ness. Candlelighters were Miss Patty Lee Rickard and Miss Alma Jean Ware.

Mr. VanMatre gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white street-length dress with navy trim and matching accessories. Her bouquet was white gladioli, centered with a white orchid. She had a half crown of white gladioli in her hair, and wore her paternal grandmother's pearls and carried a keepsake handkerchief which belonged to her maternal grandmother.

Miss Jean Rickard was her honor attendant. She wore a navy blue street-length dress with grey accessories. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Bob McBee acted as best man for his brother.

The reception was also at the Ware home. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and yellow and white rosebuds. Mrs. Marge Tanner cut the wedding cake. Miss Dora Bradley and Miss Lois Dawley assisted in serving, and Miss Yvonne Ware had charge of the guest book.

The couple went to Crater Lake for a wedding trip. They will reside in Cottage Grove where they are both employed.

The bride graduated from the local high school in '51 and is employed at Community Jewelers. The bridegroom will be a senior in the local high school and will work part time.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Earl of Oakland, Calif., maternal grandparents of the bride, and Mrs. Dorothy West of Dillard, paternal grandmother.

Labor Serves

The man with a micrometer and the one behind the push buttons, the savant whose eye is glued to an eye-piece and he who uses a saw, the clerk at his counter and the person who guides the destinies of big business have worked, are working, for each other.

Labor serves himself, and mankind. Without Labor we couldn't eat. Without Labor we'd be sleeping in caves. Without Labor we'd walk or ride a mule. Labor is the capitalist; it is the savings of labor that gives us telephones, sawmills and banks.

Labor is dynamic. It moves, advances, sweeps industry to dizzy heights. It won two wars. It has made our United States the envy of men everywhere.

Next Monday is Labor's Day. Observe it, pay tribute to those who keep us free, who give us pop-up toasters, zippers and tires. Labor came out of its rut to stand shoulder to shoulder with the boss, a team that does the impossible.

Denver Wedding Unites Couple; McMinnville Will Be Their Home

The sanctuary of the Montview Boulevard Presbyterian church in Denver was decorated with banners of white and pink gladioli August 10 for the wedding of Miss June Elizabeth Dunsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dunsworth of Denver, and Gordon Earl Asbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Asbury of Cottage Grove. Dr. Arthur Miller and the Rev. Harold M. Gilmore officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

An exquisite gown of chantilly lace over satin was chosen by the bride for her marriage. It was designed with a nylon yoke and a fitted bodice with bertha of matching lace. Her full gathered skirt ended in a court train. A halo of seed pearls held her illusion veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white orchids with streamers of fleur d'amour and stephanotis.

Mrs. Leonard Bartels of Greeley, Colo., wore a gown of turquoise lace and net for her role as matron of honor. It was made with a fitted bodice and full net skirt and complemented with lace mitts and a picture hat. Her maid of honor, Miss Diane Gilmore, and two bridesmaids, Miss Beatrice Miller and Miss Joan Cutler, wore similar costumes in pink. All attendants carried bouquets of gladioli in shades of pink.

Glenn E. Asbury of Silver Springs, Md., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Dr. Vincent Gutshall, Leonard Bartels and Bill Gillespie.

The bride's mother chose a moonstone blue crepe dinner dress with rhinestone trim for the wedding, while the bridegroom's mother was attired in a gown of ice blue satin brocade. Both wore corsages of pale pink orchids.

The reception was held in the McCallum Memorial room of the church.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will live at McMinnville, where Mr. Asbury will be high school industrial arts teacher and Mrs. Asbury will teach music in the elementary schools.

Rebekahs to Vote On Two Amendments

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night in the IOOF hall members will vote on two amendments to the by-laws.

A special dispensation was granted the lodge by the state president, Mary Allen of Hood River, allowing the group to make money by having a food concession at the amateur rodeo Saturday and Sunday. It was announced by the noble grand, Aida Miller, that $85 was made for the lodge at the concession.

Several Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and Theta Rho Girls assisted at the two-day food booth. They were Vera Medley, Helen Chapman, Ellen Puderbaugh, Helen Ashbridge, Bob and Melvie St. Elmo, Bert and Gladys Hatch, Ida Taylor, Florence Walker, Roy and Dorothy Lyon, Paul and Aida Miller.

Theta Rho Girls assisting on Saturday were: Willodene Lyon, Ellen McCoy, Barbara McCoy and Lois Puderbaugh. Others helping on Sunday were: Rosemary Hudson, Beverly Hudson, Kathryn Clark and Carrol Walker.

Anyone wishing to go to Waverly to visit the Rebekah lodge, there Thursday night, August 30, phone Aida Miller, 238J.
