Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper Jr. (Irma Duwell), who exchanged wedding vows November 28, at the R. L. Sederger home in Delight Valley. They are now at home at the Grove Trailer Court.

Bride Chooses Wedding Anniversary Of Parents for Her Wedding Date

Miss Irma Duwell chose the 28th wedding anniversary of her parents for her wedding date. She became the bride of Arthur Cooper Jr., November 28 at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sederger in Delight Valley. The Rev. Clark Enz, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duwell of Abrams, Wis., and Arthur Cooper Sr., of Mt. Shasta, Calif., is father of the bridegroom. The candlelight ceremony was witnessed by a few relatives and close friends. The Sederger home was decorated with chrysanthemums.

Vernon Duwell, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. Her dress was ballerina length and made of tomato red nylon net over the same color satin. The bodice was styled with a V neckline and short sleeves while the skirt was gathered. She carried a black prayer book which had been a gift at confirmation. It was topped with a green orchid.

Mrs. Vernon Duwell, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was tomato red nylon net over gray satin and was fashioned after the bride's dress. She carried an arm bouquet of white mums with black velvet streamers.

Shiela Sederger was taper lighter. She wore a white taffeta dress. The two small flower girls were dressed in light blue and pale green satin. They were Linda McGarvin of Crescent City, Calif., and Linda Ellison of Saginaw. They had bouquets of white mums. Ring bearer was Gordon Duwell, nephew of the bride.

Percy Steers acted as best man for the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Sederger home. Mrs. Percy Steers cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Fitzgerald poured punch. Mrs. Dale McGarvin presided at the coffee urn and Violet Sherlock had the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are now at home at the Grove Trailer Court after a wedding trip to Crescent City, Calif., and Oregon coastal points. Mr. Cooper is a partner in Steers Electric.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dale McGarvin, daughter Linda, and Mrs. Royal Wolfard, all of Crescent City.

With Christmas less than two weeks away, shoppers are getting down to the serious business of gift buying. Christmas is very much in the air. Decorations of fir boughs and trees are up and the spirit of the season is upon us.

KEM'S has a lovely variety of gifts for Christmas. Alice in Wonderland, Snow White and Cinderella character dolls. For decorations, groups of clustered cones, plastic last-forever holly wreaths. Fireplace crystals that make colored flames shoot up. Candles of all kinds—big white snowballs, Santas, trees, snowmen and angels.

Gift ideas—photo albums, Canasta card sets in plastic cases, plastic chessman sets, Cara Nome cologne and fragrant bath soap packaged in bright pink-purple paper and tied with silver ribbon; atomizers; White Mink dusting powder individually wrapped in white paper decorated with silver stars and tied with bright blue satin ribbon. Wrisley's White Cloud cologne in milk white containers. Cara Nome fitted travel kit in red plastic leather with light blue rubberized lining. Parfait's powder glove and Junior Miss powder kit; satin padded hangers in blue and pink; hosiery bags with clear plastic compartments. Evening in Paris sets, dresser sets, pocket sewing kits with tiny multi-colored spools of thread and needles; manicure sets, plastic atomizers.

Cutex lipstick setting in a white bell. Swansdown puffs in plastic cases. Thin, handy cotton puffs in clear plastic cases that can be used after as handkerchief or knickknack kits. Plastic toaster covers, refrigerator bags and dish covers.

A lovely edition of the Holy Bible would make an inspiring gift.

Other suggestions: sachet nuggets, pottery ware, electric clocks. Lovely gift wrapping paper, ribbons and stickers, attractive cards are available.

A complete line of baby cosmetics and needs. For men, Ronson lighters, Rexall sets of shaving cream, after shave lotion and powder; Stag sets, Seaforth and
