The mechanical lie detector will never be as successful as the one made from Adam's rib.

Tip to motorists: Winter brings added driving hazards—take it easy on the highways.

There are too many people trying to save the world, and too few trying to save themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pool and sons, accompanied by Mrs. Pool's brother, Johnny Proctor, made a business trip to Redmond recently, remaining overnight and returning home the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradford have returned from a visit of several days duration with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Troclair in Redding, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Decker spent last week end in Ashland, where they formerly lived, before moving here.

Mrs. C. R. Trent was hostess to the Knox Hill Neighbors club at her home here, at an all day meeting, with a potluck dinner served at noon on Thursday. The meeting celebrated the second anniversary of the club's beginning, with a special cake for the occasion, baked by Mrs. R. C. McNew. It being also the last meeting before Christmas, numbers were drawn with each member receiving a gift, and a special treat by Mrs. Trent for each of the children present that day. Names of each member's "secret sister" were revealed and plans were made for the January meeting to be held with Mrs. Ralph Aubrey. Mrs. A. E. Higgins of Gowdsville was a visitor at Thursday's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elfving were guests last week end in Portland at the Ira Wells home. Mrs. Olga Holm, who had visited the preceding week with Mrs. Elfving returned to her home in Portland with the Elfvings.

LaSells Stewart has returned to his home from a month's stay at a sanitarium in Portland, where he has been receiving treatment. Mr. Stewart has not fully recovered from the effects of a stroke which he suffered months ago.

Jim Townsend, who had been employed in Eugene, has returned here and is staying at the home of his brother-in-law, Harvey Hinman.

Mrs. S. M. Starner, a resident of the community for several years and sister of R. B. Dixon, passed away at her home here, Thursday evening after a long illness. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. Starner's daughter, Mrs. George Paroz of Myrtle Creek, who had been here helping to care for her mother, left over the week end to accompany the body to Potlatch, Idaho, where funeral services and burial will be held, at Mrs. Starner's former home and where her husband is buried. He also lived here until his death a few years ago. Friends in the community extend sincere sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Chancellor of Eugene were recent visitors of Mrs. Chancellor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edmon, and her sisters, Mrs. Harvey Hinman and Mrs. Frank Perkins.

The wind storms of the past week blew off portions of roofing from some buildings and moved some small properties which were lying around loose, but otherwise did little damage.

Henry Grover, who has been living in eastern Oregon, arrived here Thursday to see his sister, Mrs. S. M. Starner, and reached here shortly before she passed away. He is at the R. B. Dixon home.

Mrs. Walter Peek and Mrs. Harry Elfving and their husbands attended a dinner Saturday at the home of their mother, Mrs. Sadie VanSchoiack in Cottage Grove, honoring the latter on her 85th anniversary. Each year on Mrs. Van Schoiack's birthday, all of the members of her immediate family spend the day with her at her home, bringing both the dinner and gifts to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Jett of Cottage Grove are staying at the home of Mrs. Jett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dixon while the Dixons are in Idaho.

Mrs. Harvey Hinman was pleasantly surprised Sunday by a group of relatives arriving to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. It was also the anniversary of her niece, Mrs. John Rodgers of Eugene, who with her family, were present at the dinner here. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. David Edmon and their families, all of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edmon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins and sons, and the Harvy Hinman family. The day was spent visiting and the children playing games.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kenyon of Salem and Weyburn Kenyon, accompanied by son and daughter, all of Ashland, were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Kenyon and visited another brother, Virgil, who is still in the hospital, suffering from severe burns.

MOSBY CREEK
Mrs. Harry Castle, Reporter

The biggest topic last week was the weather and that mostly bad, with the lights and telephones out. The wind blew the playshed down at the Walden Community hall. It had been built a good many years ago by the people of the Walden school district. There were lots of trees blown over and the roof on one part of Mason Land's house blew clear off, rafter and all. Even at that, we were pretty lucky on Mosby Creek.

Our sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Orin Land in the death of Mr. Land's mother, Mary Land, Monday morning at Harrisburg. Mr. Land was with his mother to the end helping care for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis of McKenzie River have moved into the Jim Bostick house, Mrs. Davis is a sister of Mrs. Roy Hanks of Blue Mountain district.

The Gettogether club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Agnes Miller for the Pollyanna Christmas exchange and drawing of names and election of officers for the coming year. Mable Bassett, was elected president; Vena Rearrick, vice president and Joyce Powers secretary-treasurer. A lovely lunch was served at noon and gifts for the children. Phyllis Lane entertained the children in games at her home in the afternoon.

Mother's club met Wednesday at the Blue Mountain lunch room to discuss the Christmas program which will be Thursday evening December 20 at 7:45. They met again Tuesday and sanded the candy and nuts for the children.

The Walden Community Sunday school will have the Christmas program and tree Sunday afternoon, December 16, at 3 o'clock. There will be treats for the children and everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Green have been doing some carpenter work on their house and built a stairway up stairs and fixed the girls a nice bedroom up there.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Myers, who have been living at Burns, have moved back home on Mosby Creek. They liked it very much over there and plan to go back in the spring.

When Mrs. Lula Bettes returned home from work one day last week, she found a note on her door telling her that a friend who had lived here several years ago, had called. Ruth Harris Mills, who was on her way to California on her honeymoon had stopped to see her and wanted her to meet her new husband. Ruth attended Blue Mountain school several years ago and was the youngest Harris girl. They also called on Mrs. Arnold Duerst.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rearrick took his mother, Mrs. Lavina Rearrick to Eugene Monday for a check up after having an operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Latham have moved into the small house on the Bob Seidel place recently vacated by the Freemans. Mrs. Freeman and Sammy have gone to Texas for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Lebow and girls of Mount View visited Sunday at the Cliff Lebow home and helped cut some trees that were near the barn.

Melvin McGuire was on the sick list Monday and stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. Harry Castle, while his mother was at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Castle called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frost of Cottage Grove Sunday. Mrs. Frost is quite ill with the flu. They also called at the Grant Dully home on Knox Hill.

Pfc. Don Mosby called home folks Saturday from Sheppard Field, Texas, to let everyone know he was fine and hopes to be home for the Christmas holidays.

It is odd that the man who sits without thinking is the one most likely to say what he thinks.

The man who advocates common sense in government is never fearful of losing the right of free speech.

Flagg Resigns Post With Utilities Board

George H. Flagg, Public Utilities Commissioner for the past 18 years, will resign about January 1 to join the Oregon Highway Council, he announced recently.

The highway council is an organization of highway users that will work with the Western Highway Institute and the National Highway Users Conference, according to Flagg. He said the organization was interested in all phases of highway problems and had under way extensive studies on costs and benefits and hoped to assist in the development of an equitable tax program.
