THREE FAITHS—BUT ONE PURPOSE

THE CROSS AND THE STAR OF DAVID rise from snowbanks atop Mount Lewis in Bethlehem, New Hampshire, as churchmen of different faiths meet to pray for peace in 1952. With the temperature at 22 degrees below zero, they join in a warm handclasp. They are (left to right): Reverend Norman Langmaid, representing the Protestant churches; Father Stanley Piwowar and Rabbi Bernard Honan. (International)

For best results in whitewashing, the whitewash should be very thin when applied. The coating will dry opaque, but two thin coats are better than one thick coat.

"Stop! What made you think I'd tutor you for this sort of Bowl Game test!"

Oregon's coaches were evenly divided between the Army and Navy during World War II. Len Casanova and Bill Borchert were naval men while Don Kirsch and Bill Bowerman were with the infantry.

As a man gets older he spends less time on his pleasures and more time on his ailments. The trouble with reform is that every one wants to apply it, but no one wants to receive it.
