The Scriptural citations in the Christian Science lesson-sermon entitled "Spirit" for Sunday, February 10, includes from the book of Acts the conversation between Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch: "And he said, 'See here, I am baptizing you, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God.'"

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: "The baptism of Spirit, washing the body of all impurities of flesh, signifies that the pure in heart see God and are approaching spiritual life and its demonstration. It is 'easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle' than for sinful beliefs to enter the kingdom of heaven, eternal harmony. Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality. It is only a question of time when 'they shall all know Me (God) from the least of them unto the greatest'" (p. 241).
