

LYNX HOLLOW

Mrs. Orville Lamb, Reporter

4-H club will give its achievement program Thursday, February 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the schoolhouse at which time the members will receive their pins and awards. Community club members will serve refreshments of coffee, cookies and punch.

Community club met Friday and put the applique quilt in the frames and marked it for quilting. Members may quilt any time they wish and next meeting will be February 15. Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Farmer served cake and coffee to six members.

Dee Farmer knew it all the time but didn't tell, therefore his wife was pleasantly surprised on the evening of January 27, her birthday anniversary, when a group of friends called to wish her a happy birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sander, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sanders, Billie, Shirley Ann and Johnny, all of Eugene, Rev. C. G. Harrison, pastor of the Church of Christ on Fifth and Monroe, Cottage Grove and son Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodwin and two grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Blue, Mr. and Mrs. McCall, all of Cottage Grove.

Coffee, cake, strawberries and fruit juice were served to the group. There were lovely birthday cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Leigh brought their little son home from the Cottage Grove hospital last week after several days stay there. Ray Simonson is home awhile from Linfield college, McMinnville. Mr. and Mrs. John Cue, their five sons and five daughters left Friday for their former home at Omaha, Nebraska.

Among others on the sick list last week were Wanda Dawson, Janay Mathews and Bruce Lamb. Mrs. Nettie V. Lamb is still in bed with sore throat and flu.

Mrs. Chuck Bivens entertained with a demonstration party at her home Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served to ten guests.

Mrs. E. G. Sanders of Eugene, spent an afternoon last week with her sister, Mrs. Dee Farmer.

Mrs. Ray Holbrook and son Don visited at Coburg Tuesday with Mr. Holbrook's niece and family, the Bill Landseys.

Donnavon Holbrook will take his physical examination this week for the navy.

Mrs. Chuck Bivens received a telegram Thursday telling of the death of her brother, Roy Green-up of Los Angeles, who had passed away Wednesday evening.

Sgt. William T. Macauley is visiting a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Macauley. Sgt. Macauley is being transferred from Lackland Air Base, Waco, Texas to an air base at Denver, Colo.

Nobody cares what the world is coming to—just so it does.

PIE SOCIAL

There will be a pie social Saturday night, February 16, at the Walden Community hall at 7:30, and everyone is invited to attend. There will be a musical program with local talent and anyone wishing to take part is urged to come. The ladies are to bring the pies. The money made will be used to repair the building. Let's all come and help a good cause.

Mrs. Gladys Ide, teacher of the upper grades at Blue Mountain school, resigned last week because of ill health and Mrs. Frank Moore of Eugene has been teaching in her place. She is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Castle.

Mrs. Lee Dugan and Mrs. Jess Thylfaul were hostesses for a pinocle party at the home of Mrs. Dugan at Walden Saturday night. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Ledford, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Potter, Mrs. Miller Roby and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Thylfaul. The ladies served hamburgers, lemon pie and coffee.

While your correspondent does not like the years added on to her birthdays she had a very enjoyable time this year. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lancaster and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rearick, Allen and Judy came and brought gifts and enjoyed cake, ice cream and coffee.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Castle went to her daughter's, Mrs. Berta McGuire, for a dinner of roast duck and a birthday cake. Sunday evening Mr. Castle's nephew, wife and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Seward of Disston, brought a lovely birthday cake and all enjoyed cake and ice cream again. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore also were present. Mrs. Moore is teaching at Blue Mountain school. Thanks for all the lovely gifts.

Bonnie Birdsong of Creswell was a week end guest of Marian Seidel.

Mrs. Mable Bassett stayed last week at the Carl Hoff home and took care of the children while Mrs. Hoff was in Cottage Grove hospital with pneumonia.

Don't forget Extension club meets Thursday, February 14 at Walden Community hall. All are to bring Valentines for exchange. It is the "Canada" meeting put on by Mrs. Roby and Mrs. England.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dugan were in Portland last Monday and came home Wednesday. They also visited in Hillsboro with a son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dugan. Our sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson in the loss of their baby boy that was born last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saltgaver and two boys of Walden community were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rasmus.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Leabo of Pacific City were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dugan, Mrs. Leabo's parents.

Mrs. Darrel Mosby has taken over her duties as secretary of the Cottage Grove Riding club and meetings are held the last Monday of every month.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Mosby and sons were dinner guests Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Abbott in honor of Mr. Abbott's birthday anniversary.

Doris Sandifer had a demonstration at her home Friday. Mrs. Frank Chambers was the demonstrator.

Clarence Duerst is driving a new car. Mosby Creek has been having spring weather the past week with the trees budding and pussy willows out. Your correspondent discovered a bunch of grapes still good on the concord grape vine. It is under the porch roof.

SILK CREEK

Mrs. Hal Cochran, Ph. 64631

Mrs. Freda Overholser and Mrs. Cleo Gowing were hostesses at a farewell party for Mrs. Ivah Thornburg Tuesday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Alvin Allen, Elva Wells, Barbara Woolcott, Roberta Espy, Ruby Wilson, Reta Overholser, Kittle McCoy, Beulah Smith, all of this neighborhood and Mrs. Eline Felde and Mrs. Ida DeSpain, both of Lorane, also Mrs. Irene Angle of Eugene; Mrs. Thornburg's sister, Mrs. Christenson of Hope, Idaho. The group played some games, prizes being won by Mrs. Felde and Mrs. Wells.

The ladies had all contributed to a gift which was a traveling bag matching other luggage of Mrs. Thornburg's. Some who had contributed to the gift fund were unable to be there.

Refreshments were cake and ice cream, coffee and punch, the cake, an especially beautiful one, was cut by Mrs. Thornburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hathaway have received news of a granddaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hathaway, January 23 at Milwaukee, Wis. The little girl has been named Kathline Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson of Eugene were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Gowing and daughters.

Mrs. Ivah Thornburg left for Kalispell, Mont., last week. She accompanied her sister, Mrs. Christenson as far as Hope, Ida., and will visit her a while before going on to Montana.

Several from this neighborhood including Mrs. Nettie Estes and Mrs. O. H. Wheeler attended funeral services for Mrs. Carrie Dwyre Miller Monday afternoon in Cottage Grove. Mrs. Miller lived in this community on what is now known as Hazelton road about thirty years ago. The Dwyre home was between the Harvey Duer place and Mrs. Dunham's.

Mrs. Jennie Walker, who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Babcock, left the first of the week for Medford.

I can't say if its authentic that Mr. Ground Hog did or didn't see his shadow February 2. If he happened to be a resident in this particular spot he did not. Seems like spring today and I wonder if anyone noticed the planes flying so high and leaving such beautiful vapor trails on Monday. The atmosphere was so clear and the trails were so long and stayed for quite a while.

Mrs. John Overholser is not feeling a bit well. Had to have the doctor out the last of the week. She hasn't been like herself since having such a bad cold a few weeks ago.

Jimmy and Mickey Cook of Eugene are staying a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Cochran.

The Silk Creek Community club meeting Saturday night, February 2 was not well attended but what few were there have reported a wonderful time. Mrs. Wilma Douney is program chairman and they played games. Refreshments were cake and coffee.

Mrs. Raleigh Wilson had some teeth extracted Friday in Cottage Grove. She reports a very fat jaw at present. She will have some stitches out Tuesday and will probably feel better.

Mrs. Esther Wheeler and son Jack went to Springfield Friday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Art Rodgers. They attended church there on Saturday and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barrett. They returned home on the bus Sunday afternoon.

A dinner was given at the Clarence Duncan home Sunday. Those attending were W. F. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Puckett of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allen and Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Cochran went to Creswell Saturday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Victory and family. The Victories did live in southeastern Colorado where the Cochrans formerly lived and Mrs. Victory was a pupil of Mrs. Cochran's sister Mrs. Carol Taylor who taught school there so many years previous to the dust era.

C. J. Robinson and his 4-H boys went on a trip Monday afternoon to the Gene White home in Cottage Grove where he demonstrated the use of the diamond saw. He sawed thunder eggs into pieces and gave each boy a piece of rock as a souvenir. The boys were very much interested in the saw and what it could do. After the demonstration, Mr. White served the boys cookies and grape juice.

An undenominational community church has been organized at Silk Creek, the meeting place to be in the old Adventist church building. Sunday school will be at 10 a.m. and church at 11 o'clock. The evening service will be at 7:30 and mid-week service on Wednesday night at 7:30. Rev. Roy Worthington of Cottage Grove, pastor.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.
