Local Grange Has Box Supper, Party

CRESWELL—A box supper supplied plenty of fun following the regular session of Creswell Grange Thursday evening. Since it was Valentine's Day several clever boxes were decorated with emblems of the day. W. W. Smith was auctioneer. Some over $23 was realized.

The first pussywillows of the season were the room decorations by Mrs. F. L. DeBerry. The lecturer, Mrs. J. V. Birdsong, presented songs and readings, and JoAnn Corwell and Marlene Smith gave a tumbling act. She announced Mrs. Mildred Norman, state deputy, as guest for the March 15 meeting and in charge of a school of instruction.

Jasper Grange will make a scheduled visitation here February 28 and present the program. Those in charge of refreshments are Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. H. L. Barge, Mr. and Mrs. Birdsong and Mrs. A. A. Blinkenstaff.

A furniture auction was to be held in the hall February 22 and 23 and the Home Economics club will sell lunches both days. Members of the club reported that an electric stove had been purchased for the hall kitchen. The Grange also voted to purchase an oil furnace. On the decorating committee for the next meeting are Mrs. V. E. Grousebeck, Mrs. E. J. Hengelbrot and Mrs. Frank Gardner.

HONOR REBEKAH LODGE TO HOLD JOINT MEET

CRESWELL—Two applications for membership by initiation were presented at the February 18 meeting of Honor Rebekah lodge and practice for the ceremonies was held following the business meeting.

Club Celebrates Petty Anniversary

CRESWELL—Members and friends of the Tri-Community club observed the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Petty at a potluck supper and social evening Valentine's day at the Cloverdale clubhouse. Forty guests were present. A large wedding cake with Valentine emblems made by Mrs. Earl Petty, daughter-in-law of the honored couple, centered the table.

Best Beaver was master of ceremonies for the program hour when stories of by-gone days were reviewed. An article along that line, written by a brother, Edward Petty, who was unable to be present, was read. A pressure saucan was presented Mr. and Mrs. Petty. The couple was married in Eugene and came to their present home in the Bear Creek community where they have lived ever since. Mr. Petty farmed during his more active years and Mrs. Petty taught rural schools for many years. The best of wishes are extended by their many friends. A son Earl was the only one of their children able to be present.

Rev. G. G. Emerson Is New Minister

CRESWELL—The Rev. G. G. Emerson has come to Creswell to serve the First Presbyterian church as pastor. He is a graduate of Coe Presbyterian college at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, with the class of 1932. He spent three years at the seminary at Dayton, Ohio and then served different churches in Montana for five years. The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions sent him and Mrs. Emerson to Colombia, South America in 1943, where he remained until 1947, when he returned to Denver, Colo., to do graduate work at the Methodist Seminary, for one year. He was then returned to Bogota, Colombia. In 1950 he was returned to Klamath Falls to serve as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Emerson is a choir director and specialist in Christian Education. While in South America, both Mr. and Mrs. Emerson taught in the American schools. The couple has two children, Mary Kaye, 12 years old and in the sixth grade, and Larry, eight years old and in the second grade.

McKenzie Tops Creswell, Leads League; Bulldogs Drop Decision to Oakridge

by Dee Burns

The league standings were put in an uproar here at Creswell Friday, February 15. The McKenzie Eagles upset the Bulldogs by a 3-point margin, 42-39. At Mohawk, the Pleasant Hill Hillbillies dropped the Mohawk Indians for the second upset the same night.

McKenzie held the lead all through the first two quarters and played at the half with a 12 point quarter rolled around, it found the Bulldogs forged ahead but lost the lead to a hard fighting Eagle team as they closed scoring for the night at 42-39.

After the game, Tom Cox, the "B" league official, had several numbers in a hat. This was the breaking of a 3-way tie for first place. But McKenzie drew first place, Mohawk second and Creswell third.

Creswell has one more game before the tournament, with Yoncalla February 19 at Yoncalla. Creswell's Bulldogs were ending a very good season as they dumped the Eagles "B" team down on the lower end of a 35-23 score. Kretten and Walker put through 9 points apiece for the Bulldogs.

Gilbert E. Everson Presented 50 Year Jewel Masonic Pin

CRESWELL—Gilbert E. Everson, a resident of this community for some over forty years, was presented with a fifty year jewel at the February 11 meeting of the Creswell Masonic Lodge. Two of his sons, Floyd A. Everson of Creswell and Francis G. Everson of Eugene were seated with him for the ceremony.

Mr. Everson transferred his membership from Iowa and has been a Mason for fifty-three years in April. He will observe his ninetieth birthday anniversary on March 30 and aside from somewhat impaired sight and hearing he is able to chat with his friends downtown most every day.

W. A. Woodward was to have been similarly honored that evening but illness kept him at home.

There were several visitors present from adjacent communities. The District Deputy Grand Master will make his official visit at the next meeting. A social hour followed and refreshments were served.

EMERSON FAMILY SURPRISED

CRESWELL—Rev. and Mrs. Gerald G. Emerson and family were pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when members of their congregation gathered at the Presbyterian manse for a "round party" and a social evening. Games and music provided entertainment.

Oakridge handed the Bulldogs their seventh loss of the season as they trounced the home team 63-44, February 12 on Creswell's maples.

For the first two quarters the Bulldogs gave the Warriors a rough tussle. Then the Warriors came back to go out in front to hold it the rest of the evening.

Don Gray led Creswell's scoring with 15 points followed by Decker with 11.

The Bulldogs dropped their fourth to "B" team after a close game with Oakridge leading most of the way, 27-18.

No Fires Occur In Creswell Area In Past 30 Days
