District Meeting Of OES Chapters Held Here 21st

A district meeting of the Creswell, Oakridge and Cottage Grove chapters of the Order of Eastern Star was held in the local Masonic temple Thursday evening with pot-luck dinner preceding the meeting.

The Worthy Grand Matron Alice Robinson made her official visit at this time. The Cottage Grove chapter opened and closed the meeting and had charge of the good of the order; Creswell had the escorting and balloting while Oakridge chapter exemplified the degree work.

Those escorted to the East, introduced and who gave interesting talks were: the worthy grand matron; Blanche Herbig, grand representative of New Hampshire; Esther Bedell, grand representative of Ohio; Helen Dersham, grand representative of Wisconsin; Celeste Dickerson, grand marshal and Ray Martin budget committee of the grand chapter.

An addendum, honoring the worthy grand matron, was presented by five members of the chapters. This was on the humorous side and caused much merriment. The honoree very graciously thanked the members for the presentation of the addendum.

The hall was beautifully decorated with miniature cherry trees, a large silver star in the East and many multi-colored stars about the room.

Refreshments were served by a committee from the three chapters: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gates, chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich, Mrs. Cora Olson, Mrs. Pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dugan, Mrs. Charles Bozell, Mrs. Max Bird and Mrs. Fannie Leabo.

The next regular meeting of the local chapter will be March 6.

Teacher is Author Of Religious Book

Mrs. Jessie Walther, teacher at Disston school, is the author of a religious fiction book, Beacon Rock, recently published by Osterhus Publishing company of Minneapolis.

The book is about two young men of the Columbia Gorge area in Washington, where Mrs. Walther lived and taught for a number of years. It tells of their conversion and attendance at a Los Angeles Bible school and their return to their native Washington as evangelists. They worked in the mountain country among the millmen and miners.

Likes Teaching

Mrs. Walther, who has taught for about 20 years in the Washington country and in Hood River before coming to the Cottage Grove area, says she likes her work at Disston teaching the second and third grades. She has rented a house there and goes to Eugene on week ends. Her husband, Herman Walther, is employed at the Mt. June Lumber Co. mill in Eugene. They have lived in Eugene about six years. She came to Disston for the first time at the beginning of this school year.

Poems Published

The author was a journalism student at Western Women's Teachers College at Bellingham, Wash., and also attended the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma. She was co-author with Dr. Herman Hausser, head of the sociology department at Puget Sound, of articles written for a sociology publication. She also has had published a book of poems.

Beacon Rock is on sale at Eugene bookstores.

INITIATION HELD FOR EIGHT LADIES

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Women of the Moose eight were initiated into the order. They were Mesdames John Arnold, Philip Larson, W. B. Smeltzer, George Binder, H. W. Satterwhite, Thecla Mae McCoy, Ethel Caves and G. A. Crawford.

Group singing followed the initiation and refreshments were served by Iona Brock, Sylvia Bennett, Jan Bressler and Clara Burdett.

The next meeting was announced for March 6.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church will be held Thursday evening, March 6, in the church parlor. A 7:45 dessert will precede the meeting.

ANNUAL STAMP EXHIBITION SET BY STAMP SOCIETY

The South Lane Stamp Society will hold its annual competitive stamp exhibition at 8 p.m., Thursday, February 28, in the clubroom of the city library. A gold cup is being awarded the winner by one of the members.

R. E. Manson of Springfield is to be the out-of-town judge and following the judging will show slides and albums of his famous Kicking Mule cancellation collection.

The public is invited.

CLUB WILL CONTRIBUTE TO CARDIOGRAPH FUND

The Utopia club met with Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin for a 1:30 dessert on February 21. Her decorations of red carnations and miniature red hatchet place cards depicted George Washington's birthday.

During the business meeting it was voted to make a donation to the electrocardiograph fund. Mrs. A. H. Brachvogel was a guest.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED BY CUB SCOUTS

The birthday anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America was celebrated by Cub Scout Pack 33 on Friday, February 22, with a pot-luck dinner and movie at the Odd-fellows hall for all the Cubs and their families.

The American Legion, which sponsors Pack 33, provided a beautifully decorated birthday cake in the blue and gold of the Cub Scouts and all present enjoyed the evening.

MISS BARBARA WILLIS TO BE HEARD OVER KORE

Barbara Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willis of Lorane route, will present piano selections over radio station KORE at 5 p.m. Saturday, March 1.

Miss Willis will play The Skylark by Tchakowsky and Elfin Dance by Adolf Jensen, numbers she played at a recent workshop program at Northwest Christian college. She is a student of Mrs. Cecil Caldwell.

N OF W ENTERTAIN WITH CARD PARTY

Julia Bartels entertained members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft February 19 at the social meeting for the month.

Four tables of bridge and canasta were at play with prizes in bridge going to Pearl Bressler and Mary Duffy while canasta prizes were won by R. B. Hill and Gladys Hatch. Harriet Bartels of Springfield received the traveling prize.

The evening closed with refreshments served by Mrs. Bartels and Mrs. R. B. Hill.

The next regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be March 4 in the IOOF hall.
