

BPW Membership At All-Time High

Five new members were accepted by the Business and Professional Women's club here Monday night, bringing the total membership to 67, highest in the group's history.

New members are Mrs. Yola Baldwin and Mrs. Norma Mackey, teachers; Mrs. Eleanor Zeller, a nurse; Mrs. Evelyn Bell, hospital office secretary and Mrs. Iola Stokes of Stokes Jewelers.

The membership of 67 is 19 above 1951's total of 48 members.

Plans were made at the meeting for the dinner session April 7 at the Methodist church. Mrs. Ethel Krauss, chairman of the Education and Vocations committee, is making arrangements. Mrs. Nordell Wilder and Mrs. Eva Miller are on her committee.

Speaker Named

Speaker at the dinner meeting will be Alan Kirk of Eugene, who will talk on his experiences in Holland where he studied as a Fulbright scholar. He will show colored slides of his tour.

President Hazel Welden announced that district conference would be held at Reedsport on Sunday, March 23. Making plans to attend are Mesdames Edna Piller, Lenora Pyburn, Nancy Robbins and Miss Della Gallo.

Dates for the state convention at Klamath Falls were announced as May 9, 10 and 11.

A letter of appreciation was read from Thelma McDonald, who is attending nursing school at Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene on the BPW scholarship.

Mrs. Piller and Miss Gallo were in charge of refreshments.

Twelve relatives and friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shortridge for a family dinner and to congratulate the couple on their 55 years of wedded life.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Shortridge were: Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Olive Brown and daughter Janice; Wanda Cannon of Monmouth; Mrs. Tessie Foster of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland of London; Vera Thorne; Ollie Myers and Everett Weedon, both of Eugene; Bessie Rakestraw and Elma Umbrey.

Mr. Shortridge was born April 6, 1874, near London, the son of pioneer parents, Wallace and Ellen Shortridge, who came here in '52. Mrs. Shortridge was born in Butte county, Calif., October 30, 1875, and came to Cottage Grove when two years old with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thorne.

The couple was married at the home of her parents at Latham on March 13, 1897. One sister of Mrs. Shortridge, Mrs. Tessie Foster of Ashland, was at both the wedding and the 55th anniversary. Another sister, Mrs. Winnie Brown of Cottage Grove, was also at the wedding but unable to be at the anniversary.

Before Mr. Shortridge's retirement he was engaged in the sawmill and logging business.

Mr. and Mrs. Shortridge have three children: Mrs. Olive Brown of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Lena Needstrom of Springfield and Clifford Shortridge of Renton, Wash.; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Episcopal Guild Plans Bazaar, Sale

At the March meeting of St. Andrew's Episcopal Guild at the home of Mrs. Harold Axley, plans were made for the annual rummage sale to be held early in September. Mrs. R. W. Kessitt was appointed chairman of this sale. The Guild is also working on articles for the Christmas bazaar with Mrs. David Morris, chairman.

A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Axley for her work on the kneeling benches in the church. Mrs. David Morris gave a report on the card party recently given by the Guild which proved quite successful, and Mrs. Robert Mills gave the treasurer's report. President Mrs. Axley conducted the business meeting.

Delicious refreshments of pie and coffee were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Finneran and Mrs. Clifford Anderson.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. N. Bumpus.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY SET FOR MARCH 26

Fidels Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet for a 1:45 dessert at the Methodist church Wednesday, March 26.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Elmer Kent and Mrs. Joseph Safley. Mrs. Herbert Adams will lead devotions and Mrs. Albert Woodard will be in charge of the lesson.

Officers Named By Church Group

Members of the nominating committee of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church gave their report at the meeting March 12.

Officers named for the coming year were: Mrs. J. A. Long, president; Mrs. Abe Hanks, vice president; Mrs. D. O. Walkley, recording secretary; Mrs. W. A. Strausborger, treasurer; Mrs. Rodney Safley, secretary of promotion; Mrs. Charles Akerblade, secretary of missionary education and service; Mrs. Damon Scott, secretary of Christian social relations; Mrs. Walter Sorensen, secretary of local church activities.

Mrs. Paul Dyksterhuis, secretary of student work; Mrs. Alvin Allen, secretary of youth work; Mrs. Roy Miller, secretary of children's work; Mrs. Neil Gwyn, secretary of literature and publications; Mrs. Boyd Allen, secretary of supply work and Mrs. John Leonard, secretary of status of women.

Members of the Fidels Circle were hostesses and had charge of the program. Serving the 1:45 dessert were Mrs. Alvin Allen, Mrs. Abe Hanks and Mrs. Walter Sorensen.

During the business meeting Mrs. Andrew Brund was appointed as a representative from the group to meet with the planning committee in regard to a community rest room.

It was decided to have the April meeting on the second Wednesday night instead of the second Thursday due to the Lenten observance. Members of the various circles will report at the next meeting as to their desires on the rotation plan. The Adelpia Circle will function as it is now.

The meeting closed with a Lenten meditation led by Mrs. Lee Cooley.
