

fashion firsts

White sweet peas, pink bonnets, frothy nylon sheer blouses, white swirling pleated skirts, pert straw bags, white cotton gloves, whispering sheer half slips or starched cotton ones... all spell a new season and a pretty Easter lady.

At PERRY'S new blouses for Easter by Carol West—nylon tricot shirtwaist style with rows of black stitching in panels down the front, tiny white rhinestones inside black buttons. Or a Gibson girl blouse in white nylon and on cheek, with a puckered look to the material, jet black buttons, black velvet bow at the neck, push-up, three-quarter puffed sleeves. Or nylon linen in a shirtwaist style with 4-way collar, in pink, white, chartreuse.

Also new for Easter and the perfect bright spot to your suit or coat—with flowers, artificial but so real looking. Cluster of daisies with bright yellow centers. Tiny clusters of flowers in pink, lavender or white. White sweet peas.

Also another important accessory—new navy corde bags.

For a bright lift, bright cotton by Lipsom—red sun dress with black splash print, topped by a white pique bolero jacket.

For your suit choose an Isenberg—lavender or tan wool skirt with a tweedy look with checked shortie coat tops that can be worn with your sheer dresses.

Blousemaker does the Easter blouse up right at THE SMART SHOP. Lovely nylon batiste with lace trim forming square patterns all over the blouse front, puffed short sleeves. Or a sleeveless blouse with diagonal rows of stitching forming a bib front.

For frothy femininity—black, red or navy and white nylon tricot striped blouse with three-quarter push-up sleeves, wide cuffs, bow at neck.

Jewel neck blouse with stitched front panel in blue or white, also in lovely, washable, nylon batiste. Koret of California has the perfect separates for Easter. Full skirts in acetate, nylon, pleats stitched at the waist, falling into soft folds, big quilted pockets on the side of the skirt. In yellow, light blue, and to match—in sleeveless nylon blouses in the same colors, with tiny rows of pleats all down the front of the blouse.

Also by Koret—sleeveless, one-piece dresses in nylon acetate. Lovely in white, pink or pale blue. Accordion pleated skirts.

Lovely blouse of the week at ARNEST'S—white nylon tricot with long sleeves, tiny rows of pink and blue embroidered flowers down the blouse front by Camellia. Perfect with a dainty, pink head hugging calot, with row of small pink flowers across the front and frothy veiling.

For Easter and all summer—nylon sheer by Marge Moore, aqua print against grey and white background.

By Johnnye Jr.—navy broadcloth sleeveless dress with navy and grey plaid skirt, same plaid for sailor collar. Lovely sundress in dark hunter's green Bates broadcloth, with fish net top and

AN EASTER ENSEMBLE

is no better than its
MATCHING
ACCESSORIES!

We Have
Lovely BLOUSES
Nylon Batiste
Nylon Jersey
Colorful Pastels
to choose from.

PURSES
Newest Spring Colors
THEME HOSE
HANKIES
at

The Smart Shop
507 Main Ph. 14

K of C Initiation

Knights of Columbus Council #3154 of Cottage Grove will hold an exemplification of major degrees of the order on Sunday, April 6, in the Odd Fellows hall. All local and visiting members will attend eight o'clock Mass and receive Holy Communion at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Breakfast will be served at the D & M cafe at 9:30.

Present will be members of councils from throughout the state including Portland, Eugene, Lebanon, Albany, Salem, St. Helens and Corvallis.

A banquet will be held following the degree work at 6 p.m. in the Odd Fellows hall. All members and their wives are invited to attend. Rev. Mattias Burger O.S.B., professor of theology at the Benedictine Seminary at Mt. Angel will be the principal speaker.

V. F. W. Auxiliary

A meeting of the VFW Post No. 3473 Auxiliary was held Friday evening, March 28, at the VFW hall.

Election of officers was held and the following were elected: Mary Duffy, president; Dorothy Wright, senior vice president; Bertha Wilson, junior vice president; Martha Cooley, secretary; Elsie Patten, treasurer; Helen Sherman, chaplain; Helen Bales, conductress; Mae Barton, guard; Margaret Woodrume, June Bird and Loraine Garoutte, trustees.

At the next meeting the new officers will be installed, date of which meeting will be announced later.

After the meeting the VFW joined the ladies for lunch.

ENID LA BLUE TO PLAY OVER RADIO STATION

Miss Enid LaBlue will play a piano solo, "Arioso" by J. S. Bach on the radio program of the Eugene district of the Oregon Music Teachers' association which will be broadcast over station KORE at 5 p.m., Saturday, April 5.

Miss LaBlue is a senior in the Cottage Grove union high school and president of the Honor Society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaBlue and piano student of Mrs. H. A. Hagen.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND SHOWER IN EUGENE

A miscellaneous shower for Miss Violet Renken of Eugene, bride-elect of James Griffith, was given at the W. O. W. hall in Eugene, Friday night, and was attended by several local people.

Miss Renken is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew of Cottage Grove. The wedding is set for April 20.

Attending from Cottage Grove were: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Drew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buessow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rand and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fishell.

DEGREE OF HONOR HAS GUEST NIGHT

The March 26 meeting of the Degree of Honor lodge was guest night with seven guests present. The evening was spent in playing canasta and monopoly and refreshments were served.

There will be initiation at the next meeting, April 9, with the Roseburg lodge present to exemplify the initiatory work.

Refreshments will be served by the committee, Winona Bloom, Iona Lusk and Lucille Lusk.

collar. Novel shell buttons down the front of the detachable jacket. Lovely is the Johnnye Jr. charcoal broadcloth with very full skirt, white daisies dotting the skirt.

Kay Whitney bemberg sheer prints for the larger woman. Lovely accessories—scatter artificial flowers with pin attached to brighten your suit or coat. In all colors. Washable plastic bags, red print on white or plain red.

PENNEY'S have them... the perfect feminine half skirts for femininity under your Easter costume. In crisp white cotton with rows of eyelet trim on the bottom and blue satin bows. Also lovely in rayon jersey with net trim on the bottom—in white, pale blue.

These are perfect under the very full embossed cotton skirts that come in bright red, green, gold and lavender. Or a pastel gingham plaid, lavender, pink and black, with wide black belt.

Most unusual skirt—pink butcher-linen wrap around with black shiny buttons down one side and a black band trim around the edge of the overskirt.

Lovely with the skirts—white, sheer batiste blouses with lace trim.

Nice accessories—chalk white straw calot with red flower across the top caught in a red veil. White plastic purses. White cotton gloves in an attractive, tiny, white plastic doll-size purse case.

And of course, a small silk square for neckline brightness—in red, lavender, yellow, any color you can think of.

A&B Beauty Shop

Balcony
Cottage Grove Hotel
Specializing in Hair Reconditioning and permanent waving.

Phone 43
Lorayne Kotrc
Ella Beers
Gladys Adams

SENTINEL SOCIETY

PHONE 555 OR 556

—Photo by Clark Studio

MR. AND MRS. ROGER DALE PLATH

Miss Mary Ann Hall became the bride of Roger Dale Plath at a double ring ceremony, Saturday, March 22, at the Presbyterian church. The Rev. D. Hugh Peniston officiated at the candlelight ceremony at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening. Palms and baskets of lavender and purple stock and tulips formed a floral setting for the exchange of vows by the couple. Pews were marked by bows of lavender and purple satin and net.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hall of Cottage Grove and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harriet Plath of Boise, Ida., and Max Plath of Cottage Grove. Mr. Hall escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Attendants Wear Identical Gowns
All attendants wore identical gowns of white embossed net over lavender satin. Their nosegays were of violets edged with lavender frills with the exception of the honor attendant whose frill was purple. Miss Edith Reicher of Salem was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Sanford Wiese of Cottage Grove, Sue Coggeshall of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fritz Bradford of Myrtle Creek and Carol Banta of Bakyr. Flower girl was Judy Dakin of Portland in a white organdy dress and net headress. Her nosegay was sweetpeas. Stuart Stephen was ringbearer.

Fritz Bradford of Myrtle Creek was best man and ushers were Charles Hall Jr., brother of the bride; Bill Gibbons and James Ramsey of Eugene and William Sheets.

Mrs. H. A. Hagen, church organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied the choir who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a black lace and crepe dress with a pink flower hat while Mrs. Plath chose a teal crepe dress with white hat. Both wore corsages of pink roses and bouvardia.

Old Knife Used to Cut Cake
The reception was held in the church parlor. The base of the wedding cake was surrounded by violets and tiny rosebuds. Violet nosegays and purple satin streamers were placed at intervals along the edge of the table. Mrs. Donnell Allen cut the wedding cake with a knife which was the bride's grandmother's wedding gift 80 years ago. Mrs. Frank McFarland poured coffee and Mrs. Velma Harrel presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Floyd Chapman, cousin of the bride, had the guest book.

For their wedding trip to points south the bride wore a gray suit with purple accessories and corsage of violets and bouvardia.

To Live in Eugene
Mr. and Mrs. Plath are making their home in Eugene where he is a student at the University of Oregon and affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. The bride is a graduate of Willamette University and took graduate work at Denver University.

Several out-of-town guests were present from Portland, Eugene and Roseburg.

LA SELLS STEWARTS WED 14 YEARS AGO MARCH 31

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. LaSells Stewart gathered at their home Monday night to help them celebrate their 44th wedding anniversary.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Faye Stewart showed moving pictures they had taken on a trip to Mexico a year ago and the children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt.

Children and grandchildren spending the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were: Mr. and Mrs. Loran Stewart, sons LaSells and Steven, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Stewart, children Suzanne, Bruce and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Chapman and children Ann, David and Jeanie.

land in a white organdy dress and net headress. Her nosegay was sweetpeas. Stuart Stephen was ringbearer.

Fritz Bradford of Myrtle Creek was best man and ushers were Charles Hall Jr., brother of the bride; Bill Gibbons and James Ramsey of Eugene and William Sheets.

Mrs. H. A. Hagen, church organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied the choir who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a black lace and crepe dress with a pink flower hat while Mrs. Plath chose a teal crepe dress with white hat. Both wore corsages of pink roses and bouvardia.

Old Knife Used to Cut Cake

The reception was held in the church parlor. The base of the wedding cake was surrounded by violets and tiny rosebuds. Violet nosegays and purple satin streamers were placed at intervals along the edge of the table. Mrs. Donnell Allen cut the wedding cake with a knife which was the bride's grandmother's wedding gift 80 years ago. Mrs. Frank McFarland poured coffee and Mrs. Velma Harrel presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Floyd Chapman, cousin of the bride, had the guest book.

For their wedding trip to points south the bride wore a gray suit with purple accessories and corsage of violets and bouvardia.

To Live in Eugene
Mr. and Mrs. Plath are making their home in Eugene where he is a student at the University of Oregon and affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. The bride is a graduate of Willamette University and took graduate work at Denver University.

Several out-of-town guests were present from Portland, Eugene and Roseburg.

Representative Chosen from Local Order of Rainbow

Twenty-three Rainbow Girls of Cottage Grove attended Grand Assembly sessions held in Lebanon March 27, 28, and 29 at which time Mary Lou Wiese was installed a Grand representative for 1932-33.

Two girls were grand officers for the sessions, Carmen Grewelle, Grand Representative to Michigan, and Rosemary Rickard, Grand Page to Charity. Rosemary was presented with a white Rainbow Bible by Doris Groves, Grand worthy advisor, and Mrs. Verna M. Gray, supreme deputy. Rowene Miller was a member of the Grand choir.

Those attending from Cottage Grove were: Carmen Grewelle, Mary Lou Wiese, Rosemary Rickard, Rowene Miller, Catherine Heath, Joan Webb, LaVelle Schilling, Yvonna Chaffee, Pat Kent, Donna Decker, Barbara Throop, Roberta Wells, Wanda Dawson, Roberta Rickard, Phyllis Higdon, Mary Lou Wolfard, Patsy Pynes, Georgina McReynolds, Norma Schmitt, Claudette Kime, Marjorie Denny and two of the members from Creswell, Mardelle Cartwright and Ethel DeBerry.

Mrs. Pat Rickard, mother advisor, Mrs. Kenneth Hickok and Mrs. Littleton Lasater went with the group as chaperons. Others taking cars were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beck, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pynes, Mrs. J. A. Heath and Mrs. E. L. Decker.

Rebekahs Initiate Oakridge Candidates

The Oakridge Rebekah lodge members were guests at the recent meeting of the local order and brought six candidates for initiation. The 26 members plus their candidates chartered a Skyline bus from Oakridge. A local candidate was also initiated at the same time.

During the lodge session a cheerful and humorous letter to the lodge was read from Aunt Fannie Goude.

It was announced that Friday night, April 4, there will be a baby picture guessing contest. Each member is to bring a picture taken when a baby and enter in the contest. Entry fee will be 10 cents. A prize will be given to the one guessing the most pictures.

Plans were formulated for a card party to be held in the near future, the date to be announced later.

Kathy Carpenter Is March Bride

(Mrs. R. G. Conner, Lorane correspondent)

The wedding of Miss Kathy Carpenter to Craig Orange, was solemnized March 22, at the First Baptist church in Eugene. Dr. Vance Webster performed the evening ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Carpenter of Lorane and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Adelaide Orange of Brooks. Special music was by Miss Harriet Johnston, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attired in a blue and white silk suit. With it she wore navy and white accessories and three pink orchids.

The bride's only attendant, her sister, Miss Jean Carpenter, wore navy and white accessories and yellow orchids with her blue dress. Phillip Orange, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rice in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Orange will be at home at Corvallis until June when the bridegroom will receive his degree from Oregon State college.

SILVER WEDDING OBSERVED

Mrs. Robert Bauder entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schaffer at dinner on March 26. The occasion was the silver wedding anniversary of the Schaffers.

In the evening Mrs. Elva George and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Gardner were invited in and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served the guests by Mrs. Bauder.

AUXILIARY PLANS FOOD SALE

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, No. 2091, will hold a food sale April 12 at the Coast-to-Coast Store, with Elsie DeYoung as chairman. Election of officers of the Auxiliary will be held at the next meeting April 14.

In Style for EASTER

With lovely new

LINGERIE — DRESSES
COATS — SUITS
BAGS — FLOWERS

to dress up that suit or dress

For the Wee Ones

COATS — BONNETS — DRESSES
Dainty 1-6

Arnest's Dress Shop

Dorothy Arnest
509 Main Street

You Will Be Out Front in the Easter Parade with the BLUE look...

by

Life Strides

PETIT ---

The shoes pictured at the left come in that new blue-for-you for Easter look that's getting all the raves this season.

Beautifully styled for that delicate feminine look.

Blue with white perforation or red without perforations.

$8.95

Photo Courtesy Clark Photo Studio

Many other exciting new styles and colors to choose from to complement your Easter ensemble.

Hoover's
the family SHOE store

29 S. 6th Cottage Grove Phone 939

Joan Miller 2 Piece Suit

$14.95

The checked jacket complementing
the new flared skirt.

White Rose Flower
$1.45

White Nylon Gloves
by Fownes
$2.95

Navy Plastic Purse
$4.95

Photo Courtesy Clark Photo Studio
We also have Joan Miller, Mary Dean, Lady Alice, Toby Lane dresses and suits to fit any budget.

PERRY'S

Quality Store for Women

25 So. 6th Phone 601

Come in and let us help you with your Easter ensemble.