

Adult Tailor Class Sets First Meeting

The first meeting of the adult tailoring class will be held Tuesday evening April 15, from 7 until 10 p.m. Classes will meet in the homemaking department at the local high school under the direction of Mrs. Vernon Sprague, adult tailoring instructor from Eugene.

Mrs. Sprague, formerly a home-making teacher and home demonstration agent, is returning here for her second year as clothing instructor. She has also taught adult classes in and around Eugene.

For the opening meeting a representative of Heath's Wonder Fabrics of Eugene will present a display of new fabrics and textures popular for spring wear. For the first meeting members may bring patterns and measuring tapes, if they have them.

Membership for the class is still open, and those interested may contact the local high school. Classes are jointly sponsored by Cottage Grove Union high school and the State Department of Vocational Education.

Membership in the current upholstery class is also still open. Those interested in joining may come to the second class meeting Friday, April 11, at 9 a.m. at the Vinal Randall Sr. residence on South Sixth street.

MR. AND MRS. VERNON COOP

Miss Patricia Scott and Vernon Coop exchanged wedding vows Sunday, March 23, at a double ring candlelight ceremony at the Methodist church. The Rev. Clark Enz, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony at four o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Scott and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Coop, all of Cottage Grove.

The bride wore a two-piece street-length dress of ice blue faille, a blue flowered hat and white linen shoes. With her wedding attire, she carried a lace-edged linen handkerchief her mother had carried at her wedding. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds and sweetpeas, centered with a white orchid. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Bride's Attendant From Bend

Mary Lou McKenzie of Bend was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She was attired in a dusty pink two-piece faille dress and a pink flowered hat to match. Her bouquet was of pink sweetpeas and yellow rosebuds.

Walter Sorensen was best man for the bridegroom and ushers, who were also taper lighters, were Wayne McCall and Marvin Jacobson.

Two large baskets of tulips, snapdragons and sweetpeas were on either side of the altar, and candelabra held white candles. Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist, played wedding music preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's mother chose an aqua lace dress and small hat to match for the wedding while Mrs. Coop was attired in a mauve dress with small black hat and accessories. Each wore a corsage of white sweetpeas.

Reception In Parlor
The reception was held in the church parlor. A miniature bridal couple and wedding bell topped the three-tiered wedding cake which was surrounded at the base by maiden hair fern and tiny pink and yellow rosebuds. Mrs. T. A.

Delegates Elected For Rebekah Meet

The Rebekahs met Friday, April 4, in the local IOOF hall with Noble Grand Dorothy Lyons in the chair.

Delegates elected to attend the forthcoming IOOF and Rebekah convention to be held at Salem May 19-23 inclusive were Alice Conner, Emma Smith, Gladys Hatch, and Alda Miller. Alternates elected were Zula Hansen, Elsie Currin, Leda Stewart and Stella Kiker.

Emma Smith was welcomed home after an extensive stay in California.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room.

The next meeting will be Friday, April 18. A special good of the order meeting is being planned.

FAST MATRON'S CLUB

The Past Matron's club will meet with Mrs. Vinal Randall on Monday, April 14, for a 1:30 dessert.

CERRO GORDO BREAKFAST

The Cerro Gordo Commandry No. 24 will serve Easter breakfast next Sunday, April 13, beginning at 8:30 at the Masonic hall. All members and their families are cordially invited.

Ceremony Installs Officers, Grove and Springfield Circles

A joint installation ceremony was held April 8 for officers of the Pine Circle No. 45, Springfield, and Grove Circle No. 875 at the local IOOF hall.

Guest installing officer was Fannie Leabo of Moss Circle of Creswell. She was assisted by Julia Bartels, first assistant of the local order; Harry Allen, second assistant, and Bessie Lee, third assistant, of Pine Circle. Adelia Hatch was installation chairman in the absence of Past Guardian Neighbor Mildred Teich.

Gladys Hatch Heads Circle

Installed as head officer was Gladys Hatch, guardian neighbor. Others installed into their respective offices of the local circle were: Mildred Teich, past guardian neighbor; Marie Story, advisor; Pearl Bressler, banker; Bert Hatch, magician; Julia Bartels, attendant; Adelia Hatch, captain of guards; Nellie Blackmore, musician; William Bartels, flagbearer; Ralph Hawley, Richard Hill and John Sowles, managers; Naomi Hill, correspondent; Martha Cooley, inside guardian; Mary Duffy, outside guardian; Mable Sowles, senior guardian; Horace Hatch, clerk. Recommended for physicians were Dr. Robert Merrick, Dr. David Morris and Dr. Marlowe Schaffner.

Springfield exemplified the floor work with Harry Allen, captain of guards, and his team. Mrs. Elliott Voegel sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Blackmore.

Gifts Presented

Several officers were presented gifts following the installation ceremony. Among them were Julia Bartels of the local circle and Mary Allen of Springfield, who were presented past guardian neighbor pins and gifts by their respective circles. The presentation to Mrs. Bartels was made by Neighbor Gladys Hatch while Neighbor Stella Lewis of Springfield presented the gift to Mrs. Allen. Members of the Cottage Grove drill team each received a gift from their captain of guards, Adelia Hatch, who in turn was presented with a beautiful spray of carnations from her team.

Neighbor Julia Bartels presented installing officer, Fannie Leabo, with a gift and the assistants received gifts from Grove Circle.

Committees Served

Committees for the evening were: Reception: Bert Hatch, Julia Bartels and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawley; refreshment: Horace Hatch, Bert Hatch, Lester Story, Wallace Carpenter, Ralph Hawley, William Bartels, Richard Hill and John Sowles. The hall and refreshment tables carrying out the Easter theme were attrac-
