Hebron Grange

The new grange kitchen will be in use Saturday evening due to the efforts of many people. While most folks enjoyed their Easter in various ways J. F. Godard spent his whole week end and more in the installation of the sinks and cupboards. He and Hugh Trunnell are ready for a crew to come out Saturday to do all possible and clean up before the evening meeting.

Master Forrest Woods states that definite arrangements are made for Hebron's new members to go to take the first and second degrees put on at Dorena April 18. Contact him if you desire.

Cubs A, B Teams Make It 5 in a Row As They Defeat Drain, Junction City

Jefferson's A and B baseball teams made it five in a row this week end as the varsity won games from Junction City and Drain and the B squad topped the Drain bunch. The B team did not play a game with the Junction squad.

In the game Friday with JC, the Cubs won 9 to 8, with Frank Miller, left fielder, hitting a homer in the extra 8th inning for the winning run.

Jerry Garvin, who pitched the last five innings after relieving Mason, struck out 12 men, allowed only 1 hit and no runs. Mason, who pitched the first three innings, allowed 5 hits and 8 runs, struck out 4 and walked 2.

J. C. Schirmer, JC pitcher, allowed 10 hits, struck out 14 and walked 8.

Score for Cubs

Scoring runs for the Cubs in the 1st inning were Allen May, second baseman, and Mason. Perkins, catcher, scored in the 2d; Miller and Perkins in the 3rd; Stewart, center fielder in the 6th; Heck, right fielder, and Rice, first baseman, in the 7th.

For Junction Shumate, shortstop; Toftdahl, third baseman, and Burrell, center fielder, scored in the 1st. Five runs were counted in the 5th by Conser, second baseman; Toftdahl; Peterson, right fielder; Myers, first baseman, and Drongensen, catcher.

In the Drain game Saturday the varsity squad won 5-3. The B team won its game 4-0.

In the first inning of the A game the Cubs got 1 run off 2 hits. Garvin scored and Stewart was left on third. In the second inning 4 runs were scored from 2 hits. Garvin and Miller hit doubles. Scoring were Miller, Hayes, Nichols and Heck.

Drain got all its runs in the 4th, 5th and 6th innings. Moore, second baseman; Harris, first first baseman and Behnam, pitcher, tagged the base.

Greg Stewart pitched the entire game.

BENTON C. HALL ARRESTED ON DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE

Benton C. Hall of South 4th street was out on $250 bail this week pending hearing in Municipal court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was arrested Friday by local police. He will appear before Judge Don Allen later in the week.

Lions Will Be Among Top Contenders For Class B Title in Hayward Relays

Cottage Grove Lions will send a full team to the Hayward Relays at the University of Oregon this week end, long one of the state's top prep track classics. Over 750 entrants will bid for championships in Class A, B and C.

The Lions, in the B division, hold two records in the relays, high jump relay record of 17' 10", which is 7" over the Class A record and the 440 relay record of .46. In the six years of participation the Lions have been first twice and second four times.

The Lions will be hosts on the 24th to an invitational meet that will get underway on the home field at 2 p.m. The Lions, Wilamette, Oakridge and University High will participate.

Those participating in the Hayward relays are as follows:

Shot put relay: Jess Michaels, Wayne Smith and Ray Arthur.

Distance medley relay: Jim Patton, Norman Bechtol, Tom Long and Dick Hankins.

Sprint medley relay: Marvin Hayes, Doyle Higdon and Jim Wilson.

High jump relay: Lowell Radway, Wes Malcolm and Ken Sloan.

Shuttle hurdles relay: Clarence Smith, Ken Sloan and J. C. Isley.

Pole vault relay: Wes Malcolm.

440 yard relay: Dick Hankins, Dick White, Doyle Higdon and Jim Wilson.

Broad jump: Doyle Higdon.

Javelin and discus: Ray Arthur.

Ashland and Cottage Grove have been trading the Class "B" title for the last four years, must again be considered as serious threats. Ashland won the 1951 championship with Cottage Grove second and University third.

Klamath Falls, which won the Class "A" title by nosing out Medford, 58 1/3 to 58, will again be on hand, but Coach Paul Delar's crew will face a tough field in attempting to repeat its victory of last season.
