

fashion firsts

Many fashion-wise women are now looking forward to vacation time, and for the working girl it means a wonderful two weeks with pay. Some will spend vacations with families, others with friends, and some will find it nice to travel alone to their favorite resort in beautiful Oregon or neighboring states. The perfect playtime and dress-up wardrobe for vacation can be found in your local stores.

The perfect summer coat at PERRY'S is a navy faille duster, belted, with a white pique over-collar and short rollback sleeves. A must for vacations, slacks suits with shirt jackets, in checks, grey and yellow, tan and white or charcoal and white. For a switchoff with the slacks and also to wear with all your skirts, a lovely Juillard flannel sports jacket, double breasted, with three buttons man style on each sleeve. In Kelly green or red.

Also nice for play are the Ro-may bright checked pedal pushers, in green, yellow and white, or red, yellow and white. Wear with any of the wide selection of T-shirts or sports blouses in plain colors.

A few dresses always round out a wardrobe for your trip. Perfect for travelling—LeRoy of California's rayon jersey in a shirtwaist style, blue and white check, with navy faille collar, cuffs, belt and covered buttons. Will never wrinkle.

Practical is the Lady Alice plaid gingham, also in a shirtwaist style, red predominating, with several shades of blue.

Alice's tissue cotton, sleeveless, in pale pink and blue check, sweetheart neckline, pink plastic buttons, sash that ties little girl style in back.

Crisp as a daisy—Toby Lane's embossed cotton sleeveless dress in cool pink or light green. White eyelet jabot down the blouse front, full skirt.

Alice's sheer nylon in pale blue, with tiny black print design, cap sleeve, V collar and rhinestone buttons for trim down the blouse front.

Bemberg for coolness, also by Toby Lane, white with tiny blue star design, waffle pique trim on the sleeves and forming a square yoke. Also a nice tissue cotton plaid in green, lavender and white, or tan, light blue and white, butcher linen for the tiny round collar and to top the big, patch pockets.

Dress of the week—Toby Lane's chalk white checked pique with big black jet buttons in a diagonal line down the blouse and side of the skirt. Black patent belt gives the finishing touch.

Nice dark dress—Alice's navy butcher linen with flared skirt, round collarless neck, white daisies forming a yoke across the blouse front.

With all your dresses—a white plastic, washable purse, which will serve all your needs during any trip.

Perfect resort wardrobe at THE SMART SHOP. Gay Gibson silk print sundresses, grey and yellow with yellow butcher jacket, or dark green and aqua print with black bolero jacket.

Plain butcher linen dress for that crisp look—in tan or pink, flared skirt with tiny double row of buttons on blouse for trim.

Also the summer coat—butcher linen in yellow and pale blue, both sleeves rolled back and caught with big rhinestone buttons.

A sweetheart of a dress with a sweetheart neck—tan cotton lace, very tubbale, full skirt, tan rayon linen for collar and cuff. Big rhinestone buttons for trim.

For the short girl who wears a half size—Martha Manning Petties, Chambray in grey or blue with deep V neck, lace dickey and collar all in one, slant row of pearl buttons. Also a lovely red and white check sheer. Or eyelet cotton in pale blue or pink, shiny glass buttons. Green and white dotted swiss, so cool looking for summer, bands of eyelet running horizontally on the bodice.

In Mynette regular half sizes—nylon sheers in modified shirtwaist styles, with tiny ribbed or striped look, in pale blue, lavender, tan.

Perfect with all your dresses, poodle cloth shortie, part wool and part cotton, in lovely pale blue, bright yellow or red.

For the teen-ager, Shirley Lee Jr. Petties, Grey chambray sundress with bolero jacket, black felt flower trim all over the dress. Carole King broadcloth sleeveless dress in grey chambray with charcoal stripes running horizontally on the skirt bottom and forming a V on the bodice.

Brussels Lace Veil Worn by April Bride at Church Rite

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS ROBERT WILLIAMS (Marie Elizabeth Lombard), cut their wedding cake at the reception at Delta Delta Delta sorority house, following their wedding at United Lutheran Church, Eugene, April 20. After May 5 they will be at home at 742 S. W. Vista, Portland.

A blouse wardrobe is important on any trip—lovely one to be had at ARNEST'S. Crisp organdy Gibson Girl blouse with long puffed sleeves, eyelet embroidery on the yoke. Or a cotton sheer with V eyelet bib, puffed sleeves elasticized, with eyelet cuff. Sleeveless cotton overblouse with tiny squared openwork all over. Pair with lovely Rosecrest cream colored full butcher linen skirt, or a panelled one in bright blue, or canary yellow. Or for cool evenings, an accordion pleated orlon and wool skirt in light blue or pale green.

For your dress wardrobe—Boulevard navy and white polka dot for travel, coat dress style with white buttons down the front of a navy panel. Or a one-piece dress with a two-piece look, black and white checked skirt, black bodice with arrow of embroidered flowers for trim. Black patent belt.

Very smart is the Boulevard navy sleeveless sundress with bolero jacket. White collar and cuffs give it that crisp, summery look.

Cool looking is the Boulevard tan chambray with white embroidered flowers as trim on the neck and pocket, cardigan necklines, slanting row of white buttons.

Real find of the week and perfect for any travel wardrobe is the Billy Dee orlon dress in red and white check. One big navy button at the bottom of deep V neck and navy patent belt for trim. Cool, washable, needs no ironing.

A must for any vacation would be a gold cloth duster to be worn as a summer coat or lounging robe. In gold and white, gold and charcoal, or gold with light blue or purple.

And have plenty of these with you at a budget price—sheer nylon panties in pink, blue or white with embroidered flower trim.

Dresses are the main event now at PENNEYS. May is the big month for them here. Embossed cottons in sleeveless dresses, charcoal and white, green or blue with white. Others with large horizontal stripes in several colors, also prints and plain colors.

Sheers in stripes, red, blue, green and tan. Gold cloth prints, all colors. Pastel embossed cottons in plain colors, many with the diagonal line of buttons down the blouse front and side of the skirt. One glazed cotton in white with red and black or yellow and black horse design.

With all of them—the white straw head hugging cloche that sits on the back of the head. A small package for travelling.

And play-clothes of course—sailcloth pedal pushers and shorts in bright red or bright blue, cuffs and pocket trim in red, white and blue stripes. Caps with stripe trim to match. Also striped short sleeved jackets, or bright red long sleeved shirt jackets.

Blue denims, shorts and skirts. Seersucker splash print sashes and blouses to match. With the shorts, an elasticized bra top with ruffled collar.

New as summer itself—white

Miss Marie Elizabeth Lombard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Lombard became the bride of Thomas Robert Williams Sunday, April 20, at the first post-Easter wedding in United Lutheran church, Eugene. Mr. Williams, young Portland attorney, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ervie

Williams, also of Portland. The vows were exchanged at four o'clock in a setting of yellow flowers, mixed bouquets of yellow iris, tulips and snapdragons. The Rev. Charles A. Epple performed the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Scott Adams of Portland was the soloist, singing "I Love Thee" (Greig) and "Because" (d'Harde-lot). Mrs. O. P. Nordling was the organist.

Bride Wears Nylon Tulle
Mr. Lombard gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a full-length dress of nylon tulle with wide neckline and very short shirred sleeves on the fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt was shirred at the hips and in the back and ended in a sash-like chapel train. Her Brussels lace veil was brought back by the bride from a European trip. She wore nylon mitts and carried a bouquet of stephanotis, Eucharis lilies and lily-of-the-valley.

Attendants Identically Dressed
Mrs. Lynn A. Hamilton of Portland was matron of honor and the four bridesmaids were Miss Wilma Hamilton of Portland; Miss Mary Graham of Prineville; Miss Leone Murphy of Bend and Miss Elizabeth Jones of Eugene. All attendants wore identical full-length dresses of yellow nylon marquisette over taffeta with insets of Venise-type lace in strapless bodices and worn with brief jackets of marquisette. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of deep blue Spanish iris and wore a small hairpiece of the same flowers while the other attendants bouquets and hairpieces were of light blue Spanish iris.

Peter Williams attended his brother as best man and ushers were Herbert W. Lombard Jr., brother of the bride; Peter Koehler, Donald Andrews and Robert Lee, all of Portland.

Reception At Sorority House
Yellow snapdragons, tulips and Spanish iris decorated Delta Delta Delta sorority house for the reception that followed the wedding. Mrs. Alfred M. Skade and Mrs. William H. Skade, aunts of the bride, Mrs. H. Brueckner, Mrs. George Hubach and Mrs. B. A. Shea, aunts of the bridegroom, cut the cake. Presiding at the coffee urn were Mrs. Marion Cloud, Mrs. E. B. Hagedorn, Mrs. R. B. Sprague and Mrs. A. H. Base.

Several Assist At Reception
Miss Janet Frye of Oakland, Calif., presented the guest book to arriving guests, who were received by Miss Marilyn Thompson, Portland. Mrs. Wilbur Workman Jr., Mrs. Richard R. Taggesell, Mrs. Rodney Harlam and Miss Elizabeth Sholdebrand served punch. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Daniel Dunn of Reedsport; Mrs. John Gibertson, Miss Barbara Henton, Miss Helen Gatewood, Miss Mary Penwarden, Miss Joan Risley and Miss Frances Healey, all of Portland.

For travelling to seekers wedding trip, Mrs. Williams wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and a yellow shortie coat. After May 5, the couple will be at home at 742 W. Vista St., Portland.

Baby Shower Given Mrs. James Suiter

(Mrs. R. G. Conner Lorane correspondent)

Twenty friends gathered at the home of Mrs. R. G. Conner Tuesday, April 22, for a stork shower honoring Mrs. James Suiter. As Mrs. Donald Gilman had planned to be one of the hostesses, but was in the hospital instead, the group wrote her a series of 'get well quick' cards.

Joan Suiter presented the gifts to her mother. They were in a decorated basket which she pulled on a small wagon.

Gifts included a baby bed from the ladies who are members of the Ladies Aid of Lorane Christian Church as well as other miscellaneous gifts.

Following the unwrapping and admiring the gifts, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Dora Allen.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Stewart Williams of Riddle, a sister of Mrs. Suiter and two aunts, Mrs. Ike Gray and Mrs. Morrill Gray of Canyonville.
