The fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the Dorena school accompanied by their principal, Milton E. Harris, a teacher, Mrs. Hedler, and two mothers, made a trip to Salem Monday, May 19 where they visited the state capitol. They came back by way of Corvallis where they inspected the coliseum on the campus of the Oregon State college and were privileged to go through the museum also housed in that building.

Tuesday the four lower grades braved the weather and took a bus trip, which your correspondent will report on later.

Mrs. Eddy Garoutte and baby son recently returned from Los Angeles, Calif., where she was called by the death of her grandfather. Her mother, Mrs. William Hoskins, and her grandmother, Mrs. Rantuso, returned here with her for a visit.

An executive meeting for the school lunch program was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Shoberg Thursday afternoon, May 15. Those attending were Mesdames Larsen, Everett Davenport, Wayne Vaughn and Darrell Garoutte.

A Boy Scout committee meeting was held Thursday evening at the Row River Community hall. Mrs. Ray Steele went to Creswell last Friday where she attended a school program. Her grandson, Larry Steele, returned here with her and spent the week end. Other week end guests at the Steele home were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Plowman and son Richard of Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Potter and family spent the week end at Redmond and planned to do some fishing in Crain Prairie.

The sick list for this community for the past week included the following: Mrs. Charles Niehaus, Anna Reeves and Carla Vaughn, victims of the three day measles. Susan Tryk seemed to be the unluckiest of all because she had both the measles and the mumps.

Booth-Kelly Lumber company resumed operations Monday morning after a three-week closure due to the strike which was settled Friday noon, May 16.

Residents of the community please remember I am as close as your telephone, so don't forget to call me if you have some news or know someone who has and cannot be contacted by telephone.

Only 99 voters came to the polls to vote last Friday out of the 146 who are on the poll books. Next November the regular election will be held in the same place so be sure to vote. If you are not registered at the present, you will be able to do so in about a month at Steele's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Beebe, former residents now of Salem, were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Howerton. Mrs. Beebe and Mrs. Howerton are sisters.

Sunday callers at the Henry Kelly home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sheets and Terry and Kenneth Bush, all of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Everett McFarland entered the Cottage Grove Hospital Monday evening for observation for a couple of days.

Mrs. Ileen Monroe is under the weather, and Joan has the mumps. Mrs. Forest Monroe and children, and Mrs. Neva Gray of Creswell spent Sunday afternoon at the Ray Steele home.

Mrs. Florence Monroe spent the week end in Springfield at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jennings.

County school budget election to authorize exceeding the 6 percent tax limitation was passed 9 to 0. Polling was at the Blue Mt. school Monday night.

A dance and party was held at the Bob Beidel home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Green and family were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rearrick. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Duley and children of Knox Hill called in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Rearrick and baby and Mrs. Lavina Rearrick of Cottage Grove were callers Monday night at the Lester Rearrick home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sathers have moved to Eugene so he can be near the hospital for treatment.

Overnight guests at the Charles Putman home were Mr. George Scouton, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Scouton of Oregon City. George and Reuben are brothers of Mrs. Putman.

Those working on the election board at Walden community hall Friday were Mrs. Harry Patten, Mrs. Glen Roby, Mrs. Harry Castle, Mrs. George Woodworth (in place of Mrs. Duerst, who has been ill) and Mrs. Bryson Sandifur in place of Mrs. Fred Overton, whose mother is seriously ill at Cottage Grove hospital. For the first time in many elections more Republicans voted than Democrats. The count was 50 and 42 in favor of the Republicans.

The annual Sunday school picnic will be held Sunday, May 25 at Walden Community Sunday school. Everyone is welcome, and ice cream and coffee will be furnished.

The Walden Sunday school and friends and neighbors honored Mrs. Eljin Crane with a pink and blue shower last Tuesday afternoon at the Walden Community hall. After opening her dainty gifts, cookies and cupcakes were served for lunch.

The Mt. View ball team played the Blue Mt. school team Friday, and the score was 9 to 5 in favor of Blue Mt. The game was played at Blue Mt. school.

Melvin McGuire spent Monday with his grandmother, Mrs. Harry Castle, as he was hurt while playing croquet at home Sunday and unable to go to school.

Mrs. Hack Wooden had a major operation at Cottage Grove hospital last Thursday and is getting along fine. She expects to be home Tuesday or Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patten and three boys went to Coos Bay and other coast points Sunday.

Floyd Jones plowed George Woodworth's garden one day last week.

Allen Rearrick had a seizure with three day measles last week but was able to attend school Monday.

Mrs. Edna Asplin and son Billie of Divide were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Foster of Walden community.

Saturday evening guests at the Charles Putman home were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Putman and son Dale of Mosby Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Don Ballard and daughter Doris Mae of Eden Park. They called to visit the Putman's guests from Oregon City.

Mr. L. W. Gissler, a brother of Mrs. Sig Nelson left this week for Duluth, Minn. He has been making his home with the Nelsons for about three years.

Experiences do not change a man; they merely bring to the surface what's in him.

It's alright to combine business with pleasure, but be careful not to lose the combination.
