SEVEN BEST THINGS

According to a poll of French people quizzed by the National Institute of Statistics the seven best things in life are: #1, "A comfortable life;" that means a home where peace prevails. We have them here. #2, "Freedom from fear of war;" they have seen their homes ravished and families scattered—I hope we never experience it. #3, "A happy family life;" our family life is exemplar. #4, "Freedom of speech;" we've never known anything else. #5, "Choice of work;" we work where we please, when we please. #6, "Freedom of religion;" we have more than 12 churches in Cottage Grove. #7, "Esteem of fellowmen;" we are neighbors working together, planning together, with the utmost respect for each other.

Europe is a beautiful place—to visit; our United States is a wonderful place to live. These "Seven best things" are part of our social structure.
