

fashion firsts

The summer season is now in full swing, with fashion taking a turn toward outdoor sports clothes and cool sheers for dress.

A familiar fabric, beloved terry cloth, makes its appearance in separates at PERRY'S. Pedal pushers, shorts and long sleeved jackets by Kafoury. The jacket is wonderful for the beach to wear over your bathing suit.

And speaking of bathing suits, there are lovely ones in a latex fabric, all colors, better than ever with built in bras for that lovely beach figure. Many come this season with shirred front panels. By Rose Marie Reid and Ben Rybke. A cute budget swim suit for the teen crowd is the puckered seersucker dressmaker suit with flaring skirt and shirred elasticized bodice.

Other sportswear is featured in Howard sailcloth shorts and pedal pushers in about every color. Nice in fireman's red stitched in white, team with a Graff white sports shirt with bright red trim on the V collar. Wear with a Howard sailcloth shirt jacket with long sleeves, nice for cover-up on the beach. Enhance your waistline with a white nylon belt, looks like leather, is washable.

The ever popular Jantzen swim suits are in at THE SMART SHOP. Lovely pastels in taffetized water brocade, or acetate lator, shirred fronts and zip-up backs for that smooth look. Especially lovely is one in pure white jersey. Other nice suits by Par Form, our favorite a black ribbed acetate with white cotton vertical lines for that very slim look.

Terry cloth here, too, in jackets with three-quarter sleeves and mandarin neck, shorts and bra tops. Also the famous Jantzen T-shirts like a boy's in all colors of terry cloth.

Koret Pair-offs in denim, blue, tan and pink, or Cameron of California in bright blue or grey stitched with red. Pair for a change with a white Jantzen turtleneck cotton shirt.

With rodeo time nearing, you will want some of the Punched pedal pushers, red or black stitched in white. Nice with a plaid Cameron shirt.

Let's dress-up for hot days at ARNEST'S. Cool white, checked nylon shirtwaist style dress by Johnnye Jr. with tiny gandy daisies for trim around the collar and down the front, also for panels in the skirt. Or a sheer nylon in red and grey with straw belt. Also a sheer, cool Johnnye Jr. in red and white or blue and white nylon with horizontal zig zag stripes, shirred bodice and velvet belt.

Lovely is the charcoal nylon and acetate dress with vertical white stripes on the blouse and horizontal ones on the full skirt, with wide, white taffeta strapless petticoat sewn in. White organdy collar and cuffs for trim. Also cool looking is the tissue chambray sleeveless dress with green and white stripes, big self bow at neck.

Navy sleeveless sheer with sewn in wide crimoline petticoat, white organdy collar for trim. Also summery looking is the Johnnye Jr. red and white checked sundress with plain red bodice, checked stole, which can be worn with a bathing suit or shorts.

The summer season at PENNEY'S is seen in the gay colored seersucker sport shirts for women, just like the men. Shades of Hawaiian prints. Also nice are the terry cloth zip-front T-shirts with a mannish look. Sailcloth abounds in sports clothes, shorts, pedal pushers and jack shirts. The combinations are bright blue, red, or red, white and blue stripes. Jack shirts also in pastel corduroys, nice for now and on into fall.

Cool puckered seersucker makes an appearance in shirts in all colors—pink, pale blue, a darker blue, green, all with full skirts to match.

For dress-up at PETERSEN'S, a Vicky Vaughn embossed, white cotton sleeveless dress with tiny panels of green or blue running vertically, the panels embroidered with white flowers.

Also a lovely embossed pastel, with puffed white net sleeves covered with embroidered trim.

Sun dresses—white backgrounds with blue or red tiny stars all over, solid bodices, topped by bolero jackets.

Plaid sheer—brown, blue, green, red, with the yoke of white embroidered organdy, with one small band of organdy running around the dress just below the hip line. Most unusual dress of the week—A broadcloth sundress by Jean Leslie Jr. white background with big red and black farm scene running around the skirt, topped with a sleeveless black jacket.

For cutting a wide swath—a full, white embossed cotton skirt with big navy flower design.

For play White Stag holds forth—in shorts, Deck Trou and Clam Diggers—all colors of sailcloth. Also lovely bathing suits in acetate and elastic yarn, in cool pastels, lavender, aqua, all with built-in bras.
