Any student who attended school in the old high school building between 1900 and 1914 is invited to the picnic and reunion in Cottage Grove August 2, 1952. They do not need to be graduates. Aside from those in and near Cottage Grove who plan to attend, John Cochran and wife of Ephrata, Wash., who visited here recently, plan to return for the picnic. Carrie Woods of Eugene will be here. Mrs. Harry (Hester Bemis) Welch of Santa Rosa said she would come if most of her class of '12 were here. Others of that class who plan to be here are Mable McFarland Baker, LeRoy Woods, Jr., of Eugene; Blanche Veatch Short and Ruth Woodard McCall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chilson visited her brother, Edd Lajoy, and wife in Springfield on Sunday.

George Campbell of Eugene, formerly with the Lane Co-op store in Cottage Grove, recently made a trip to San Francisco with his wife to get his mother. The latter came to live with a daughter near Eugene. The Campbells also visited the A. L. Bennetts in South San Francisco. Mrs. Bennett is improving right along and is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Means are building a home near the Hebron Grange hall on the right side of the highway toward London.

Lenore Porter left Friday for Portland where she will do stenographic work for the F.B.I.

Mrs. Julia Watts, who is now able to be about on crutches, has rented the Boswell apartment and moved there.

A surprise move on the part of Mrs. Jack Carter and her mother, Mrs. Mandy Buffington, brought a celebration of the 28th wedding anniversary Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams to them on Sunday. The dinner also was for Father's Day. Besides the above, their son, Jack Carter and his sons, Jack and Michael, Son Allen Lee Williams and Mrs. DeMonte Seebold, sister-in-law of Mrs. Williams, with her granddaughter, Rebecca, were present.

DeMonte Seebold was still in Cottage Grove hospital following an accident which occurred north of Drain June 9, when he and his wife were involved in a car accident. Both entered Cottage Grove hospital, but she was released after a few days. They were returning from attending his mother's funeral in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yokum of Wolf Creek visited at the Lee

Williams and Murray Trunnells Saturday and Sunday en route to a visit in Cut Bank, Mont., Missouri and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Porter left Sunday to visit in San Francisco and other points on a vacation trip.

Everett Yearous is with the Cottage Grove National Guard on encampment at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The Roy and Gerald Beers families left Saturday for Spooner, Wis., where they will visit Mrs. Roy Beers' two brothers and the old home town. The Gerald Beers hope to see her brother, who is stationed in Canada also.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Currin of Eugene are visiting their daughter and family in Montana. He plans to see E. L. Anderson at Cut Bank also.

Lonnie Harris is progressing nicely at a Eugene hospital and may be at home in time to read this.

Harry Williams of Mount View was inspecting for Canadian thistle and Tansy Ragwort in this vicinity Monday. He reports that there is less of both than a few years ago, but he would like to acquaint new people with the weed killing program. There were 21 weed inspectors in this county three years ago and probably near that number now.
