Baby Shower Honors Mother-to-be June 20

Mrs. Jerry Newton and Mrs. Lavern Hess entertained the evening of June 20 for Mrs. Cecil Wood Jr., at the home of Mrs. Hess. The party was in the form of a stork shower.

An appropriate game was played with Mrs. Eldon Hudgins winning the prize. After the honoree opened her many dainty gifts, a strawberry dessert was served by the hostesses.

Guests included: Mrs. L. W. Lemert, mother of the honoree; Mrs. Kinkade, grandmother, who is visiting from Dodge City, Kans.; Mesdames Bert Land, Norman Shires, Edwin Maloney, Pete Ritter, Sanford Wiese, Eldon Hudgins, Ronald Zahler, Merle Griffith, Carl Rich, Bob Summers, Vernon Coop, Glen Wicks, Bruce Cochran, Farney Edwards, Bill Stanley, Oscar Thielan, Roy Hales, Miss Florence Hickthier, Miss Mary Lou Stanley and the honoree.

Those unable to attend but sending gifts were: Mesdames Virgil Newton, Henry Hess, Zelma Small, Fred Langston, Callista DeMoss, Ollie Brown, Francis Glenn, Hal Skinner and Miss Donna Abene.

Luncheon Showers Fete Bride-Elect

Miss Jeannette Workman, whose wedding of Rex Vollstedt of Albany was on June 22, was the inspiration for several luncheons and showers during the two weeks preceding their marriage.

Mrs. Clyde Roberts and Mrs. Alden Copple entertained with a mother-daughter luncheon at the Roberts home on June 12 when 15 guests were present and showered the honor guest with many lovely gifts.

The bell motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments, and favors were in the form of miniature bride dolls. Gifts were concealed under a huge white crepe paper bell. The color scheme was pink and white and Esther Reed daisies in these colors were used in the dining room while pink and white snapdragons, carnations and syringa were about the living room.

Guests included Mrs. W. L. Workman Sr., Mrs. W. L. Workman Jr., Jeannette and Elizabeth Workman, Mesdames Roy Short, Mike Vanderkley, Harold Vanderkley of Kalamazoo, Mich., Herbert Lombard, K. K. Mills, Robert Mills, Raymond Grube, Joseph Grube and James Grube, the latter three from Lowell.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mrs. Tom Williams of Portland; Mrs. C. S. Roberts Jr. of Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Margaret Spriggs.

Mrs. Chambers Entertains
On June 17 Mrs. Richard Chambers entertained at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower complimenting the bride-to-be. Places were laid for seven guests at individual card tables centered with bridal nosegays.

A wishing well concealed the gifts for the honoree and a wish was placed with each gift in the well and were read as each package was unwrapped.

Guests were the honoree, Jeannette Workman, Mrs. W. L. Workman Jr., Mrs. Cecil Martin and Misses Elizabeth Workman, Joan Metcalf and Helen Axley.

Luncheon At Albany

Mrs. Robert Ferguson of Albany, aunt of Mr. Vollstedt, had a luncheon for 15 relatives of Mr. Vollstedt on June 18. This was followed by a miscellaneous shower in the afternoon.

Attending from here besides the honor guest were her mother, Mrs. W. L. Workman Sr., and her sister Elizabeth.

JOAN JOHNSON REVEALS BETROTHAL TO R. GLENN

Mrs. C. B. Johnson has announced the betrothal of her daughter Joan Lillian to Robert L. Glenn, son of Floyd Glenn of Cottage Grove and Mrs. A. R. Robison of Lancaster, Calif.

Miss Johnson graduated from the local high school in '51 while he graduated in '49. She is employed at the J. C. Penny Store and he is stationed at San Diego with the U. S. Navy after spending the past two years on Guam.

Glenn was recently home on leave. A winter wedding is being planned by the couple.

MR. AND MRS. REX ARTHUR VOLLSTEDT (Jeannette Workman) leave the First Presbyterian Church after their wedding and reception. After a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the couple will live in Spokane where he is stationed with the Air Force.

Nylon Tulle Worn By June Bride At Church Rite

Miss Jeannette Workman chose a white floor-length dress of sheer nylon tulle over satin with bodice of imported French Chantilly lace for her wedding Sunday afternoon, June 22, to Rex Arthur Vollstedt. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place with pearl trimmed satin leaves. She carried a handkerchief made from lace of her mother's wedding dress, and wore pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and Eucharist lilies caught up in a rosette of white moline.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Aiken Smith, a retired former pastor of the local Presbyterian church. The late afternoon ceremony was at 4:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church before a large group of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Workman and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Vollstedt of Albany. Mr. Workman gave his daughter in marriage.

Baskets of pastel blues of delphinium and vine maple decorated the church for the wedding. Preceding the ceremony, Walter C. Martin Jr. sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by Elwin Myrick, of Eugene, organist. Mr. Myrick also played the traditional wedding marches.

Sister Is Honor Attendant

Miss Elizabeth Workman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her floor-length gown was of delphinium blue net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of blue shades of delphinium in bomb-burst effect with half hat to match.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Chambers of Cottage Grove, Patty Miller and Beverly Kethelhorn, both of Portland. They wore identical gowns of light blue taffeta and net and carried bouquets of deep shades of delphinium in bomb-burst effect with half hats to match.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dress of powder blue crepe while the bridegroom's mother wore the same shade floor-length dress of chiffon. Each wore a corsage of garnet red anthuriums.

Reed Vollstedt of Eugene, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Wilbur Workman Jr., brother of the bride; Ole Oleson of Albany; Richard Wilson of Corvallis, and Don Black of Baker.

Aunts Cut Cake
The reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was covered with a white satin tablecloth and centered with a four-tiered cake surrounded with gardenias. On either side of the cake were crystal vases of miniature gladioli and tall silver candelabra.

Mrs. Robert Ferguson of Albany, Mrs. H. T. Hacker of Astoria, aunts of the bridegroom, and Mrs. V. W. Gardner of Hillsboro, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. At the coffee urns were Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. W. E. Lebow, Mrs. Harold Axley and Mrs. Hester Payne, aunt of the bride. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Wilbur Workman Jr., Mrs. Ralph DeJarnett, Mrs. Reed Vollstedt and Mrs. Richard Wilson. Assisting were Mrs. Clyde Roberts and Mrs. Cecil Martin. Miss

Joan Metcalf was in charge of the guest book. Kathryn Joy Workman, niece of the bride, presented the groom's cake. Before leaving the reception room 15 sorority sisters of the bride grouped together and sang the Sweetheart Chi Omega song.

For a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the bride wore a wool beige suit, blue accessories and a corsage of blue delphinium. They will reside in Spokane where Vollstedt is stationed with the Air Force personnel at Fairchild Air base.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Chi Omega sorority. Vollstedt also attended Oregon State and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mrs. Rosa Workman of Corvallis, grandmother of the bride and D. E. Nebergall of Albany, grandfather of the bridegroom, came for the wedding and reception.

MR. AND MRS. H. B. BREEDLOVE cut their cake Sunday afternoon, June 22, at open house held for them. The occasion was their golden wedding anniversary.

Open House Fetes Pair Wed 50 years

An occasion for celebrating Sunday, June 22, was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Breedlove. During the afternoon approximately 75 friends called to congratulate the couple and leave gifts and cards.

The Breedloves four children, their daughter-in-law and son-in-law entertained at open house for them and received the guests. They were Mr. and Mrs. Paris Breedlove and Mrs. George Hewett of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. William Carr of Newport and Glenn Breedlove of Cottage Grove. The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove on West Main was attractive with many bouquets and plants in golden hues and other colors.

A bowl of gold colored rosebuds decorated the mantle while a basket of yellow carnations and snapdragons was in front of the fireplace. The dining table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with gold rosebuds and topped with wedding bells and a gold "50" and on either side were gold colored candles. The honored guests were presented with many lovely gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

Pouring punch during the afternoon were Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. Ed Hoyt, Mrs. N. E. Compton and Mrs. Albert Woodard; coffee, Mrs. Edna Piller and Miss Della Gallo; cutting the cake, Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, Mrs. Marlowe Schaffner, Mrs. R. B. Hill and Mrs. Bert Hatch. Mrs. Horace Hatch was in charge of the guest book. Others assisting were Mrs. Fairy Woodson, Mrs. E. A. Teich, Mrs. Ira Beidler and Mrs. Claude Norton.

Couple Married In Missouri
Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove were married June 22, 1902 at Stotts City, Mo. They later moved to Washington and came to Cottage Grove 36 years ago. Mr. Breedlove was in the dray business the first year they were here, but due to an injury, he has not been able to work since.

Pasco Christian Church is Scene Of June Wedding

The First Christian Church of Pasco, Wash., was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and white candelabra on Sunday, June 15, for the wedding of Miss Luella M. Doggett of Portland and Verlin H. Odell of Cottage Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Odell of Fayette, Iowa. The ceremony at three o'clock was officiated by the Rev. Grant Cole, pastor of the church.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Dorothy Amundson sang "Still as the Night" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Everett Bagwell, organist.

Albert W. Curry gave the bride in marriage. Her floor-length white embroidered organza dress was fashioned with a picture neckline and collar, three-quarter length sleeves and four tiered full skirt. Her fingertip net veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

Sisters Attend Bride

Miss Edith Doggett of Portland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She also wore a white embroidered organza dress over light blue taffeta. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and wore a tiara of the same flowers. Another sister of the bride, Mrs. Leonard Shea of Walkerville, Mont., was bridesmaid. She was dressed like the maid of honor and carried a nosegay of the same flowers.

Dean Aulerich acted as best man, and ushers were Karl Aulerich, Glen Aulerich and Bill Aulerich.

The reception was held in the annex of the church. A pink carnation arrangement and white candles decorated the bride's table which was centered by the pink and white wedding cake. Mrs. Neva Kasper, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Joseph Dale, poured; Miss Donna McDonnell presided at the punch bowl while Mrs. Elmer Bruce cut the cake and Mrs. Arlie Kennedy, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

Wedding Trip to National Parks
For a wedding trip the couple went to Glacier National Park, Yellowstone National Park and Sun Valley. The bride wore a melon-colored dress suit, white lace hat and black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Central Washington College, Ellensburg, Wash., and took graduate work at the University of Oregon. Mr. Odell graduated from Upper Iowa University, Fayette, Iowa, and graduate work at the University of Iowa, Iowa City and University of Oregon. He is commercial teacher in the local union high school and Mrs. Odell will teach in the Harrison school this fall. They are at home at 735 1/2 E. 14th St., Eugene.
