Local Girl Attends Regional YW Meet

CRESWELL—Miss Shirley Netzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Netzel of Creswell, returned recently from a week at Seabeck, Wash. Miss Netzel was a delegate from the University of Oregon to the Northwest Regional YWCA and YMCA student-faculty conference held annually at Seabeck.

This is one of six conferences held in various parts of the United States each year. Their aim is twofold. First, to enable the students from colleges here to get acquainted with and understand better the foreign students and the viewpoints of their country toward the United States. Second, they serve to show the American way of life and explain more fully our aim toward other countries through the foreign student. The objective is the part the "Y" as a Christian organization can play in improving and strengthening international relations.

SALEM PASTOR ASSIGNED TO CRESWELL CHURCH

CRESWELL—Rev. Frank DeVaris, assistant pastor of the Leslie Methodist church of Salem, has been assigned to the Creswell pastorate. He will have to fill the pulpit in the Salem church a few Sundays before moving here with his family. Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Hawthorne, who have been with the local church for the last three years, will move to Monroe, to which church he has been assigned.

Former Resident Makes Visit Here

CRESWELL—The Misses Ida and Pauline Ruegger had as guests Monday their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramseyer, of Los Angeles. Old-time residents will remember Mrs. Ramseyer as Helen Zinkler, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zinkler of the Camas Swale district. The couple are on a trip which will take them to visit relatives at Bellingham, Wash., and on to British Columbia. Recently they made a trip to Switzerland and toured other countries including France.

The Rueggers and Ramseyers with other relatives numbering 28 were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Laird and son Jimmy of Pleasant Hill. Others in the company were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Zinkler, daughter Duffy and Mrs. Ronald Durlinger; Mr. and Mrs. Edie Zinkler and daughter Maria; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zinkler, daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edward Faulk, and daughter Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zinkler and daughter Rose Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Erdman and sons LeRoy and Eddie; and Mr. and Mrs. William Zinkler and children, Billie and Pauline.

WSWS MAKES PLANS TO REDECORATE ANNEX

CRESWELL—Mrs. Chester C. Walton was the leader of the lesson at the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church Wednesday, June 18, following the noon luncheon. Mrs. J. M. Black had the devotion. Mrs. J. E. Smith presided at the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Phil Walker.

A contribution was voted to the Neighborhood House at Calexico, Calif. Members were reminded to bring their tea towels for the shower at the next meeting for the Methodist Old Peoples Home in Salem.

Plans were discussed for the redecoration of the church annex, and the matter was turned over to the Miriam Circle to contribute labor with the Dorcas Circle buying materials needed.

The church reception committee for July consists of Mrs. J. M. Walkup and Mrs. F. A. Everson. Those to decorate the church during July are Mrs. Frank Elliot and Mrs. W. W. Smith. Mrs. C. I. Kent is the lesson leader for the next meeting, and Mrs. Louis Erwin will lead the devotions.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kerr, who have been living at the Marvin Kerr home, have taken up their residence again in Cottage Grove where Mrs. Kerr is a teacher in the city schools.

CRESWELL—Ensign Ralph Eugene Black of Creswell, first Lane county veteran of World War II to receive his Oregon bonus check, was not on hand when his check arrived Thursday, June 19. He was busy serving his country in another war. He was called back into the navy last January and is now with his ship, which is in dry dock at San Francisco.

Ensign Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Black of Creswell, graduated from Creswell high school in 1943 and enlisted in the navy. He was in training with the NROTC at the University of Washington for two years, with service in V-12 for another year during World War II.

After the war he entered Oregon State college and graduated in 1949 in mechanical engineering.

OES INSTALLS OFFICERS

CRESWELL—An advance of officers was made at the meeting of the Creswell chapter of Eastern Star in order to fill a vacancy. Mrs. R. M. Carpenter was elected associate matron; Mrs. L. A. Whitney, conductress; Mrs. V. W. Johnston, associate conductress and Mrs. H. H. Dersham, treasurer.

They were installed in their respective offices by Mrs. Sherman Gibson, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Mawson, installing marshal and Mrs. George Hayes, installing chaplain. The lodge will recess until September.

LIONS DISTRICT GOVERNOR TO SPEAK HERE JULY 7

Church Women Set Summer Projects

CRESWELL—Members of the Presbyterian Women's association enjoyed a picnic dinner at noon Wednesday, June 18 on the church lawn. The lesson and business meeting followed with Mrs. H. A. Simmons telling of the needs of a hospital at Palmer, Alaska. Envelopes were distributed for a special summer offering.

Mesdames E. C. Coombs, Hazel Joslin and Annie Harold gave a playlet on missions. Mrs. E. C. Coombs chose "Love" as the theme of her devotions.

A potluck dinner was planned for Sunday, June 29 on the church lawn following the morning service.

Several projects were submitted to be scheduled for the summer. They included a harvest luncheon with Mesdames G. L. Decker, A. J. Gabriel, W. W. Lower, R. M. Carpenter and K. C. Schwering in charge. A food sale was set with Mesdames Norman Skaggs, W. B. Gillespie, Lillie Schwering, C. Edwin Witto and Francis Brundidge making the plans. Also a progressive luncheon in charge of Mesdames Catherine Dorris, Joslin and Simmons. Each group will set its own dates.

Minister Attends Portland Synod

CRESWELL—Rev. Gerald G. Emerson is attending the Presbyterian Synod in Portland this week.

Members of the church are reminded of the picnic dinner to be served on the church lawn following the morning service June 29. Plans are also underway for a joint picnic of the Sunday school and church membership some Sunday in July following the morning service, the place and date to be announced later. The Women's association will have charge of the tables and coffee. The elders will provide transportation.

A Junior Westminister Fellowship group to accommodate young folks of high school age will be organized Sunday, June 29 with Mrs. Emerson as advisor.

The members of the Women's association will go to Eugene Friday, June 27 to a meeting at the Central Presbyterian church when Mrs. W. Vern Buchanan, national president of the Women's association will speak.

DISTRICT 12 ELECTION ENDS IN TIE VOTE

CRESWELL—Ninety patrons of Creswell Union high school district No. 12 turned out Monday to vote for a director for five years. The result was a tie with the selection to be decided by state school officials at Salem. K. C. Schwering, retiring director, received 45 votes for re-election, and Arthur Johnson, local businessman, received a like number. Others on the board are W. O. Thomson, F. G. Harold, W. D. Tiedje and G. L. Decker.

IOOF HOLDS FINAL MEETING UNTIL FALL

CRESWELL—Gilroy Lodge IOOF met Wednesday evening, June 18 for the last session until September. The charter for the sponsored group of Boy Scouts was hung on the wall.

Plans were discussed for painting the exterior of the hall, and the members will be contacted for help. Refreshments of ice cream, cookies and coffee were served following the business meeting.
