Our sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Everett McFarland at the loss of their twin babies born to them at Cottage Grove hospital July 3. They died soon after birth. Burial services were held Wednesday, July 9 in Cottage Grove.

Burial services were held Saturday, July 5 at Grants Pass for Harold Litwiller who was drowned in the Rogue River, June 22. Mr. Litwiller's body was not recovered until July 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Groat and Mrs. Margaret Sherrett and son Gary spent July 4 at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cartwright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vaughn and family spent from July 4 to July 6 at the coast.

Byron Houck spent several miserable days last week with a bad case of poison oak.

The woods crews of Booth Kelly Lumber company did not even go out to work Monday, July 7 due to the low humidity.

Mrs. Lillian Doolittle of Cottage Grove is visiting at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spahr.

Dorena Grange sponsored a picnic for residents and friends of the valley at the grange grounds July 4.

James Plaisted will leave this week for his lookout post at June Mt.

Joe Smith spent Sunday afternoon visiting at the Henry Kelly home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monroe and family spent the Fourth of July and the following week end with relatives at Cheshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wicks spent Sunday at Albany attending the Timber Carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly and family went to Ukiah, Calif., during the three day holiday to see their son but upon arriving there they found he had departed for some unknown destination. The Kellys spent a day or so enjoying the Redwoods however.

Joyce Kelly returned at midnight Saturday night and departed the next morning to spend a week with friends in Medford.

Guy Hancock and Bob Kelly left Monday morning for Portland where they hope to secure employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horner and family spent last week in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Ward and family made quite an extensive trip over the Fourth of July, traveling throughout eastern Oregon to Idaho, then Washington and back down the Columbia River on the last lap home.

Company at the Oliver Crawford home over the holiday included Mrs. Charles Woods and daughter Roberta, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woods and two children all of Selma, Calif., and Mrs. David Hulse of Coos Bay.

(Delayed)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen and family spent Saturday night and Sunday at Grants Pass and Jacksonville with relatives who anxiously await the finding of the body of their brother-in-law, Mr. Harold Litwiller who drowned in the Rogue River, Sunday, June 22 while fishing for salmon. Mrs. Litwiller, formerly Miss Ruth Owen of this community, and Mrs. Tom Owen were confined to the hospital several days suffering from shock and exposure from remaining in the river nearly an hour before being rescued. Tom Owen, also in the party, suffered from shock and exhaustion but was not kept in the hospital. No trace of the body or any of the equipment in the boat had been found late Sunday evening when the Robert Owen family departed for home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Litwiller and Tom Owen are well known here and around Cottage Grove as at one time Mr. Litwiller was the proprietor of the LaMar grocery store in Cottage Grove and Mrs. Litwiller and Tom Owen were reared in this community.

The easiest way we know of keeping those spiral bevel and hypoid gears in good condition is to use RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant.

It keeps a tough, protective film on gear teeth. Contains an anti-foaming agent that controls leakage due to product expansion. RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant won't corrode metal, resists oxidation, stands up under extreme pressures. Call us about it. We'll fill your order fast; for service is the keynote of our local business.
