White Slipper Satin Worn by August Bride

A pretty early August wedding was that of Miss Bonita E. Keene to William L. Thomas at the Methodist church the afternoon of August 3. The two o'clock double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clark S. Enz. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keene of Cottage Grove and mother of the bridegroom is Mrs. Ruby Thomas of Houston, Tex.

Tall baskets of white gladioli were on either side of the altar and white candles were in candelabra to complete the church decoration. Before the ceremony Mrs. Wayne Monroe, organist, played "Because" and "I Love You Truly." She also accompanied the soloist, Miss Neila Richardson, who sang "Because of You" and "O Promise Me." The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert H. Keene.

For her wedding dress the bride chose white slipper satin with long white train. The bodice had a lace yoke trimmed with seed pearls and tiny buttons down the back. Three ruffles formed peplums over each hip. Her wrist-length net veil was attached to a seed pearl tiara. She carried a white Bible on which was a lavender orchid with shower of stephanotis. Her Bible was a gift of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Cline. For "something borrowed" she wore a necklace of pearls that were her mother's, and for "something blue," she wore a garter.

Her attendants were Anna L. Keene, her sister, who was maid of honor; Garnet Keene, sister-in-law, and Verna Lee Eastman, who were bridesmaids. All wore ballerina-length dresses of net. The maid of honor wore light blue trimmed with pink rosebuds and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and carnations. Her bridesmaids wore green net and yellow net and carried identical nosegays of yellow rosebuds and carnations tied with green net and satin ribbons.

Lucille Hindman was flower girl. Her dress was orchid net and floor-length. Tommy Purcell was ringbearer.

The bride gave each attendant an aquarelle necklace. S. G. (Tommy) Thompson, G.M.S.N. was best man, and ushers were John Bash and Jim Keene, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a blue suit and black accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

The reception was held in the church parlor where the bride's table was centered with the four-tiered wedding cake with tall candles on either side. White gladioli and red rosebuds were the decorations. The bride's cousins assisted at the reception with Mrs. Edward Krebser cutting the cake, and Mrs. Glen Westfall and Ruby Faye Willey pouring the punch. Sybil Kuhn was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Lakeside and other coastal points, the bride wore a grey suit with white accessories and her wedding orchid.

Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '32 and a member of the Rainbow Girls.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krebser and Diane of Ridgefield, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Andreas and Mary Ann and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Keene of Salem, and Mrs. Frances Willey and Ruby Faye of Roseburg.

MR. AND MRS. LEONARD GLEN JOHNSON (Mary Louise Stanley) whose wedding was an event of August 9 at Trinity Lutheran church. After a furlough Johnson will be in officers' training school in Georgia.

Lutheran Church Scene of Wedding

Miss Mary Louise Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stanley of Cottage Grove, became the bride of Leonard Glen Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans W. Johnson of Toledo, at a double ring ceremony, Saturday, August 9, at the Trinity Lutheran church. The Rev. E. D. Busch, pastor of the Springfield Lutheran church, officiated at eight o'clock in a setting of pastel glads.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She made her wedding gown which was of white nylon net over slipper satin and was ballerina-length. Her veil of nylon net was held by a braid of slipper satin and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible and gardenias and stephanotis. For "something old" she wore a necklace of pearls which had belonged to her grandmother, Anna Stanley. "something borrowed" were her gloves which belonged to an aunt, and her "something blue" was a bow on her petticoat. For good luck, she had a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. David Belcher of Sweet Home, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was orchid taffeta and fashioned after the bride's. Her nosegay was of pink carnations. June Levings was bridesmaid in a gown of light green taffeta, ballerina-length. She also carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Anita Hudson was candlelighter. Her dress was yellow taffeta and her corsage was blue carnations.

The bride's mother wore a navy taffeta dress, while the bridegroom's mother chose a lavender taffeta. Both had white carnation corsages.

Best man was David L. Belcher, brother-in-law of the bride, and the usher was William A. Stanley Jr., brother of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony Jim Grewelle sang "O Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Brandsness.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bridal couple centered the bride's table at the reception. The cake was served by Mrs. Gladys Underwood, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Levings served coffee. Shari Crabb presided at the punch bowl. Decorations were white crepe paper and pink hollyhocks.

The couple went along the coast to the redwoods for a wedding trip. She wore a gray suit, black accessories and her gardenia corsage which she had carried on her Bible during the ceremony.

The bridegroom will attend officers' training school in Georgia and the bride will remain with her parents for the next two months. Then she plans to join her husband. He attended Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boslaugh have as their guest this week a niece, Miss Carol Hand, of Chelan, Wash.

BPW Head Attends State Board Meet

The fall state board meeting of Business and Professional Women's club was held last week end at Pilot Butte Inn, Bend, with Lenora Pyburn, local group president, attending.

She was accompanied to the meeting by Laura York and Florence Lance of Medford and Vivian Logsdon and Prineilla Clarenback of Roseburg.

Presiding over the sessions was Fern Trull, Grants Pass, state president. Special feature was reports from delegates attending national biennial convention recently in Boston. Mrs. Pyburn was among those attending, though not a delegate.

Workshop Held
A dinner was held Saturday night followed by a president's workshop on local club problems. A business session followed Sunday breakfast.

Leone Jensen of Eugene, chairman of the Oriental Scholarship fund, announced that Ma Khin Thi, 1951-52 recipient of the state scholarship, had been selected as the 1952-53 candidate. She is a graduate of Rangoon university in home economics, and the past year received her degree from Oregon State college. She will now work on her master's degree.

The local BPW club will hear a report on the board meeting at the potluck supper planned for Monday, August 18, at the home of Hazel Welden.

CHURCHMEN TO MEET FOR POTLUCK SUPPER

The Methodist Men invite men of all churches in Cottage Grove and area to a potluck supper at 7 o'clock on Monday, August 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kent, at 628 Birch.

Following the dinner, the group will enjoy singing and a round table discussion on "The Churches Part in Community Affairs." Bring a covered dish and your own service.

Local Man Weds Salem Lady Sunday

Hazel R. Lowe of Salem became the bride of Ivan L. Witte of Cottage Grove on Sunday afternoon, August 10, at the South Salem Friends church. Vows were exchanged at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Frank N. Haskins officiating in a setting of pink and white gladioli.

Lighting the tapers were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mitchell of Elkton. Mrs. Mitchell wore a beige suit with blue accessories. Soloist was Richard Zeller, who sang "Since God Gave Me You." Abe and Joyce Voth sang "Lord Make Our Lives a Lovely Song." Pianist was Miss Sandra Nordyke.

The bride was attired in a rose colored suit with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Orrin Ogier was matron of honor, wearing a pastel blue suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Orrin Ogier attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Homer Nordyke and Robert Nordyke.

Mrs. Robert Wills of Eugene, mother of the bridegroom, chose a gray suit with navy accessories for the wedding. Her corsage was white carnations.

A reception followed with Mrs. Charlton Smitherman presiding at the punch bowl and Mrs. L. L. Hughes cutting the cake. Assisting were Barbara Wood, Sandra Smith, Carol Stark, Florence and Joy Davis and Joyce Voth. Barbara Wood was in charge of the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to British Columbia and other points, the couple will live in Cottage Grove.
