HOW DO YOU CHOOSE YOUR INSURANCE AGENCY?

1. Is his place of business readily accessible?
2. What is the extent of his insurance training?
3. Is he financially stable?
4. Is he devoting 100% of his time to insurance?
5. Is he active in civic affairs?

An agency in order to serve your interests should maintain an office, properly staffed for your convenience, be free of financial worries, devote full time to complex, ever-changing insurance problems, be fully cognizant of civic responsibilities and have served an apprenticeship to acquire a broad experience in the application of insurance to your needs.

DOES YOUR AGENT MEASURE UP?

You buy truly Professional Services when you go to the established, locally owned insurance agency for advice on your protection.
