As a result of Sunday's Big Six league playoff games in Cottage Grove McKenzie and Coburg will meet this Sunday for the championship tilt.

Coburg defeated Cottage Grove 5-2 in the second of a double-header at Kelly field, and McKenzie beat Marcola in an overtime game 6-5.

Cottage Grove and Marcola will play in the second game the 24th for third and fourth league positions.

The playoffs were set after the season ended in a two-way tie between the teams.

Championship team will be awarded the league winner's trophy. Other trophies will be given by local merchants to the other teams, best pitcher, best hitter and most valuable player.

All Tied Up

The Marcola-McKenzie tilt proved to be exciting, with the game tied up at 3-all at the end of the ninth. The game went 14 innings before McKenzie scored the winning run.

Clint pitched for McKenzie, with Beans catching. Johnson was on the mound for Marcola and Marsters at the catcher's post. Clint struck out a host of men, 19 in all, and allowed only two walks.

Oregon's Final 1952 Hunt Regulations Set October 1 as Deer Season Opening

Oregon's final 1952 hunting regulations set by the game commission following a second public hearing establish an October 1 deer season opening, but changes over the tentative regulations announced recently are few.

Buck deer season was set back four days and will be Wednesday, October 1. As proposed in the tentative regulations, there will be a three-day either-sex deer season in agricultural areas and on problem deer ranges for hunters with unused deer tags.

All-Stars Shrine Tilt Set Saturday

Portland—The 1952 football season will be unveiled in auspicious fashion here Saturday night when the Oregon All-Stars collide with the Portland All-Stars in the fifth annual Shriners' Hospital game.

Both teams have been drilling hard here since August 11 and are in peak condition for the "rubber" game. Morale on both squads is excellent and the two teams are pointing for the victory which will give it a three to two lead in the traditional series.

This promises to be a high-scoring affair and both teams will rely on their passing attacks to produce the touchdowns.

The state team has two excellent passers in Jerry Crimins of Milton-Freewater and Jerry Gustafson of Astoria, who are expected to decide the playing time at quarterback.

Outstanding Ends

Ends Dean Benson of Bend, Hank Hudspeth of Eugene, Jim Boulter of Rogue River and Ron Brown of Astoria will provide the receiving targets.

In addition, the state team boasts plenty of hard-running backs and will present a versatile and powerful offensive machine. Counted on for some of the leather-lugging chores are Dick James and Ron Knight of Grants Pass, Al Leopold of Hillsboro, Dick Pavlat of Astoria, Larry Rose of Reedsport and Cliff Rosenbaum of Prineville.

The state team has a slight edge in size with a team average of 181 pounds to 177 for the Portland squad. The two lines are equal at a 188. pound average, but state's back have an advantage of 172 to 162.

The same passing combination of Johnny Keller to Gerry Exley which carried Grant to the state finals last year will be one of the chief offensive weapons for the city team.

Halfbacks Lou Lofland and Tex Kirkendall of Roosevelt add needed speed to the running attack, which is short on power.

The only major change on refuge areas was the opening of that portion of the Columbia River game refuge east of Castle Rock in Morrow county to all hunting.

There were no changes in the three area antelope hunts, or the Walla Walla and Troy special elk hunts. The special 300 permit deer season in the Newbridge area of Baker county was set back two weeks to December 1 and ends December 31.

Applications for the Newbridge special deer hunt will be available at game license agencies after August 27 and the application filing deadline is September 20.

All special hunt applications must be made on forms provided by the game commission, and the hunter's license number and signature must be included on the application will be void. A $5.00 tag fee must accompany the antelope and Newburg deer hunt applications.

Under the special season law invoked by the last State legislature a hunter who obtained any paid special season tag last year is barred from entering this year's drawing. Objective of the law is to give more people a chance to participate in an antelope hunt or to take an extra deer or elk when special season tags of a limited number are issued.

An affidavit on the application certifying that the applicant and members of his party did not hunt in a special season the year previous is required.

No fee is charged for the Troy and Walla special elk hunts as the hunter who receives a permit must take these animals on his regular elk tag.

Applications for the 200 permit Walla Walla elk hunt in north-eastern Umatilla county will be available after September 27 and should be returned to the game commission by October 20. This special elk season is designed to alleviate a winter range forage problem.
