Sweet Home Is Scene of Wedding

First Baptist Church of Sweet Home was the scene of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dellion Couturier on August 2 in an evening ceremony. Mrs. Dellion is the former Patsy Ruth Davenport of Sweet Home, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davenport of that city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Couturier of Cottage Grove. Rev. Lee Finley of the First Baptist Church in Sweet Home performed the ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

She wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon tulle with a fingertip veil attached to a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried pink roses on a white ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Mary Herington, who wore a blue ballerina length gown and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Bridesmaid was Shirley Couturier who was gowned in a pink ballerina length dress and carried a pink and white nosegay of carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Sheila Couturier and Sue Davenport who wore identical lavender dresses and carried nosegays of pastel colored sweet peas. Flower girl was Diana Davenport. She wore a green dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mothers of the bride and bridegroom had identical corsages made of white gladioli.

Best man was Stanley Taylor and ushers were Floyd Smith, Dale Couturier and Merle Couturier. "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me" were sung by Darlene Couturier with Lila Mae Sanbert, accompanying her on the piano.

Wedding reception was held at the church. Serving were Mrs. Fern Lee and Mrs. LaVern Combs. The church was decorated with candles and baskets of gladioli.

For going away the bride chose a white suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bride attended Sweet Home and McKenzie high schools. The bridegroom is a graduate of McKenzie high school. Mr. Couturier is employed here as a truck driver.

The Couturiers are now at home at 114 South Eleventh, following a wedding trip to Seattle.

Refreshments were served following the business meeting. The first meeting following the new meeting schedule was held on August 13. Meetings are now held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

At the next regular meeting there will be a spelling contest and refreshments will be served. Odd Fellows and Rebekah picnic is scheduled for August 24.

Golden Wedding Observed by CG Couple; Also 33rd Anniversary of Daughter

The celebration was also the 33rd anniversary of the couple's oldest daughter and her husband. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Booher and the 11th wedding anniversary of their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Booher.

Seven of the couple's eight living children were present with their spouses including: Messrs. and Mesdames William F. Booher, George H. Peters, Gerald Turpin, Lester Turpin, also Donald Turpin, all of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. George Pennock of Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Perini of Anlauf.

The Turpins have 31 grandchildren 21 of whom were present and 17 great-grandchildren with 15 present.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Turpin were in charge of the dinner attended by nearly 50 people. A large decorated three-tiered wedding-cake was baked by Mrs. Willis Booher. Mrs. Ernie Dunn, granddaughter, was in charge of the guest book.

Grandsons in Service
Three of the grandsons are in the service and unable to attend. They are Cpl. Alfred Pennock, who has been in Korea, but on way home; Cpl. William D. Peters, stationed in Kentucky and Cpl. Darrel F. Booher in England.

During the afternoon Mrs. Salem Magnusson sang "The Old Rugged Cross", accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Willis Booher. Many lovely gifts were presented to the couple.

Grandchildren attending were: Ralph, Bobbie and Jeannie Peters, Willis Booher, William Booher, Mrs. Juanita Duncan, Mrs. Ernie Dunn, Dixie Lee Pennock, Mrs. Phyllis Robertson, Gary, Larry, Janet and Linda Turpin, Sandra, Ronnie Sherric, Neil, Lynette and Jody Turpin and Darlene and Lonnie Perini.

Fifty Guests Present
Others attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brookhart, Mrs. Bill Mattoon, John Booher, Miss Suzanne Brookhart and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Callers, all of Drain. Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Nelson, Ray Turpin, Fred Baster and Mrs. Mamie Lake, all of Yoncalla; Mr. and Mrs. George Diney and four children of Roseburg; Ellis Turpin of Springfield; Mrs. Josie Keeney of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Grimes and Mrs. Mamie Grimes of Mohler; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffins and Mrs. Minnie Caufield of Auburn, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rasplcock of Sherwood; Mrs. Bertha Landis and Mrs. Cora Todhunter of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Salem Magnusson, Mrs. Lorraine Talsor and Mr. and Mrs. Ray White of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Turpin of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fawver of Independence. Mrs. Fawver is a sister of Mrs. Charles Turpin.

Mrs. Turpin, 67, was born at Little Falls, Minn., and came to Cottage Grove at the age of six, while Mr. Turpin, 73, was born near Drain and has lived all his life in Oregon. The couple was married at Roseburg, June 18, 1902. Mr. Turpin was a logger before retirement.

Parasols Shower Motif, Honoring Miss Jane Beidler

Pink was the color theme and parasols were the motif for a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Jane Beidler, Friday evening, at the Roy Short home. Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. Claude Cruse were hostesses.

Gifts were placed under the parasols which were at several points in the house and Miss Beidler was led to each of them. On the table was a lilted archway and a complete bridal party in a wedding setting. Decorating the mantel over the fireplace were perennial peas and petunias of pink and darker shades. The refreshments were also pink and white.

On the guest list were Mesdames Charles Adams, Harold Axley, Orlo Bagley, Ira Beidler, Parris Breedlove, Richard Chambers, Lester Coiner, Alden Copple, Warren Daugherty, Robert Daugherty, Robert Dusenberry, Neil Hammond, Wilbur Heath, James Kincaid, George Jacobsen, John Kelly, S. L. Mackin, George Mathews, Cecil Martin, Robert Mills, D. Hugh Peniston, Vinal Randall Sr., Norman Richards, Clyde Roberts, Margaret Spriggs, Schofield Stewart, Bert Trask, Michael VanderKley, Wilbur Workman, Wilbur Workman Jr., Lillian Bost, Lizzie Veatch, Sam Veatch, Albert Helliwell, Joe Smith, Karl Mills, W. C. Martin, Ernest Lebow, Arthur Hile, H. W. Titus of Eugene, Frank Nichols, Palmer Johnson, Claude Bennett, the Misses Eunice VanDenburg, Adeline Adams, Helen Axley, Margery Coiner and Miss Crane, a house guest of Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Henry Molino, sister of Miss Beidler, Mrs. Charles Beidler, mother of the honor guest, the two hostesses, and the honor guest.

Many women discover that it is just as hard to find a husband after marriage as before.

Miss Billie Scott Weds R. Lundbom In Reno Ceremony

Billie Ann Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Scott of Eugene, and Richard E. Lundbom, son of Mrs. Elsie Lundbom and the late Einar (Ed) Lundbom of Cottage Grove, were united in marriage by the Justice of the Peace in Reno, Nev., on July 31. The double ring ceremony was performed in the evening.

Parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jenkins of Eugene witnessed the ceremony, the latter couple being attendants to the bride and groom.

For her wedding the bride wore a white street-length dress of embroidered organza made with shirtwaist style, with a full skirt. Her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of baby orchids.

On their wedding trip the couple traveled in Nevada and California, visiting relatives enroute.

On August 9 the parents of the bride held a reception at their home for the couple, friends and relatives attending. Among those attending from here were Mrs. Elsie Lundbom and son, Gerald, and daughters, Laurita and Deanna, and Mrs. Lloyd Plueard and Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Rourke.

Mrs. Lundbom is a graduate of Oakridge high school, class of '50. Mr. Lundbom received his diploma from the local high school, class of '47, while in the Air Force.

The Lundboms will make their home at Westfir where he is employed by the Hines Lumber Co.

Decorations were in keeping with the occasion, featuring a large stork by the fireplace. Games were played by the guests, prizes being won by Mesdames Stigers and Dowens.

Guests attending were Mesdames Henry Marsh, Wayne Schmitt, Lee Rodgers, John Stigers, Emma Kelley, Frances Parks, Walter Post, Elvis Kelley, Claris Abeene, Roy Ewing, G. L. Gunn, Eldon Sibley, Louie Akins, George Sibley, H. F. Russum, W. N. Dowens and Miss Shirley Parks, all of the Cottage Grove area; Mrs. Laris Post of Oswego, the honor guest and the two hostesses.

Those sending gifts, but unable to attend were Mesdames A. B. Cochran, Claude Abeene, La Verne Hess, Dean Kelley, Henry Hess and the Misses Margaret Ann Price and Donna Abeene.

After the honor guest opened her many gifts, refreshments of cake, coffee and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turpin celebrated their golden wedding anniversary recently at Drain Community hall with a family dinner at noon followed with open house from 2 to 4:30 p.m.
