CULP CREEK

Mrs. Florence Erikson

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kimes of Walker visited Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Stratton and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Violette.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Patton returned recently from a few weeks' stay in California and are getting the house formerly occupied by Mr. Starr ready to move into this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Halvorson, Marlin and Joyce of Vancouver, Wash., came Saturday and spent the week end here with relatives.

Sewing club met at the home of Evelyn Whitman last Wednesday with very few present. Next meeting will be on September 17 at Isabelle Kendrick's honoring Florence Violette on her birthday.

Guests at the home of William Earnshaw Sr. this past week were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Earnshaw of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knapp of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Knapp is Mrs. Earnshaw's sister.

Mrs. Bonnie Jakowski returned to her home at Seattle Saturday by plane after spending some time with her father, James Brown, brother Harding Brown and sister, Jeannie Huffman.

A family reunion was held at the LeRoy Pullen home Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Love and son of Oakridge; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bridges and two daughters of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shellabarger, Mrs. Nellie Shellabarger and son of Cave Junction; Mrs. Hugh Shellabarger of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crammer and daughters of Culp Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frye and two sons of Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Raymond and three children of Culp Creek.

The demonstration party to be held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Whitman last Friday was postponed to a later date.

I wish to make a correction on the opening of the Culp Creek school. Due to the fact that the work is not completed as yet, it will start on Monday, September 8.

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Jack Peterson will be given on Wednesday, August 27, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Goodell. Hostesses are Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Erikson.

Mary Wyman of Tacoma, Wash., came Saturday morning and visited with her brother, Clayton Halvorson, who spent the week end here with relatives. She returned to Vancouver with the Halvorsons Sunday evening.

The following enjoyed a family reunion which was to be held at Rujada Park, but due to the rain was held at the Row River Community hall on Sunday, August 24: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Halvorson, Marlin and Joyce of Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Culbertson, Linda and Dixie of Oakridge; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears and Delores of Mt. View; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peterson, Laurence and Gloria, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodell, Stanley Goodell, Howard Goodell, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Erikson, LaVina, Sharon, Rodney, Eugene and Bonnie Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Violette, Larry, Donnie, Lois and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Don Patton, Leroy Peterson, all of Culp Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, Sandra and Steven of Disston.

After the dinner all gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Violette and others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lokken and Leroy of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kimes of Walker; Mr. James Goodell and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Stratton, Greig, Milo, and Tootie of Culp Creek.

A very enjoyable time was had by all with musical numbers rendered by several.

Little Joyce Patton was taken to the Doernbecker hospital at Portland Saturday morning by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Patton. Her condition is reported as unchanged.

Members and friends of the Culp Creek Assembly enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Chapman Friday evening with a wiener roast and dessert supper, after which pictures of previous gatherings, scenic spots and the logging industry were shown. The primary, sunshine and junior classes enjoyed a "sleep out," returning home Saturday at noon.

Mrs. James Goodell spent the week end at Springfield with her son, Harold Goodell, while her daughter-in-law is recuperating from a recent operation.

Leona Garrett, mother of Mrs. Harold Goodell, spent last Monday thru Thursday at their home caring for the children during their mother's stay in the hospital.

Clara Ruth Wineinger of Cottage Grove, spent last Thursday night at the home of her cousin, Donna Wineinger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kendrick, Larry and their house guest, her mother, Mrs. Priest, visited Sunday at Molalla with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Thweatt, LaVerne and Lloyd visited a week ago Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pardue and daughter, Martha Ann, of Arkansas. The Pardue family bought the Thweatt homestead when the Thweatts came to Oregon and now they are here looking for a place to locate and buy a business of some kind. They are living at Elkton at the present time.

A letter to his folks states that

Man Arrested Twice On Drunk Charges

Herman Bates of Cottage Grove was out on bail this week after being arrested by city police on two charges involving drunkenness.

Bates, who gave his address as General Delivery, was arrested Saturday night for being drunk on a public street and again on Sunday for driving under the influence of alcohol and for having no operator's license. His bail for the first offense was set at $25 and for the second at $150. He was expected to appear in municipal court later this week.

Another man, Kenneth Kenady, 30, of Lorane route, was fined $100 Saturday in municipal court for driving under the influence of alcohol.

Judge Don Allen, in commenting this week on the 1921 but just recently discovered amendment to the charter that allows a maximum fine of $250, said that he would use it only when the cases warranted.

Police here last Friday picked up Billy Fritz, alias William Patrick Smith, of Eugene, at the bus depot. He was wanted by Marion county on the charge of larceny by bailie and forgery.

Gordon Groat is stationed at Park Air Force base in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Violette and family have moved back from Elkton where they "camped out" the past few weeks. Others returning to their homes were Mr. and Mrs. James Goodell and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lokken of Cottage Grove.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Goodell has been given a coat of paint over the week end.

Mrs. Harding Brown is expecting her mother here from California for a visit in the near future.

Several relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Melvin Wiscarson of Disston Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Clark of Salem spent from Friday till Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leona Whitman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ival Ward and two children of Cottage Grove were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stewart returned to their home in California Monday morning after visiting the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Troutman.

Linda Culbertson of Oakridge is visiting with her cousin Lois Violette this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daly, former residents of Culp Creek, visited here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Earnshaw and children, Ruth, Ellen, Mary Lynn, Billy and Lois Elaine, enjoyed a week's vacation recently. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilber at Lake Sawyer, where the children enjoyed swimming and picnicking at Mt. Rainier.

Miss Nina Kuehl of Tacoma, a student at College of Puget Sound, was the Wilbur's guest. Mrs. Wilbur is Mrs. Earnshaw's twin sister and Miss Kuehl her youngest sister.

The Earnshaws then left by Chinook pass for Clarkston, Wash., journeying across the state. They visited Mrs. Earnshaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Kuehl of Clarkston and also with Mrs. Earnshaw's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Barneas of that town.

Beginning last Tuesday morning they returned, driving south from Clarkston to Enterprise, Oreg., to LaGrande, thru Prineville and home over the Willamette Pass.

Pat's Saw Shop Displays New Models McCulloch Chain Saws Announcement of new sizes and new low prices for 1953 McCulloch 3-horsepower chain saws made today by C. F. Breer, Vice President, McCulloch Motors Corporation, Los Angeles. The smallest model of this popular power saw now has a 14-inch blade and sells for the new low price of $285.00, f.o.b. factory. Other straight blade models now range up to a length of 36 inches. The bow model has a capacity of 15 inches. All models are available at Pat's Saw Shop, the local McCulloch Dealer, 117 No. Lane, Ph. 146. Although the new price tag on the McCulloch 3-25 Chain Saw is the lowest in the history of the company, performance of the new models has been increased with added engineering features. Carburetion has been improved, providing smoother operation at full power in all positions and at all angles, and the new HH chain, which increases speed of cutting, has been made standard equipment.
