Men in Service

ELKTON MAN PROMOTED TO SERGEANT IN KOREA

KOREA—Roderick I. Bowman, whose wife, Lois June, lives at Elkton, Ore., was recently promoted to sergeant while serving with the 7th Infantry Division on the sweltering central front in Korea.

His division is taking part in patrol action against the Reds on the central front, where the temperature often rises to 100 degrees or more during the day and at night drops to below 60.

Sgt. Bowman, who entered the Army in November, 1930, is now serving as a gunner in Heavy Mortar Company, 31st Infantry Regiment, 7th Division.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bowman, also of Elkton.

SILVERTON GUARDSMAN WINS RIFLE MATCHES

SILVERTON—Sgt. I. C. Osmund W. Olson of Silverton was the only National Guardsman in the Northwest to take honors in the National Guard Bureau's indoor rifle matches for 1932. Sgt. Olson, third place individual winner of a bronze medal, is a member of headquarters company, 1st Battalion, 162d Infantry, Oregon National Guard.

ELKTON MAN ENDS TOUR OF DUTY

With the 43d Infantry Div. in Germany—Cpl. Arlyn L. Clemo of Elkton, Ore., is returning to the United States for discharge after a tour of duty with the 43d Infantry Division in Germany.

A former New England National Guard unit, the division came to Europe last October and joined the NATO Army.

Most of its original members were from Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont. However, men from all parts of the country have since filled its ranks.

Clemo is a rifleman with Company F of the 172d Infantry Regiment.

A/IC CLARK RECEIVES PROMOTION, TO BE HOME

Word has been received here from Dhahran Airfield, Saudi Arabia, of the promotion of Richard A. Clark to the grade of Airman First Class. Airman Clark has been in Arabia since November of last year and will rotate back to the Zone of Interior during this coming November. Prior to his present assignment in Arabia, A/IC Clark had been stationed at Luke Field near Phoenix, Arizona. He entered the Air Force in October of 1930. He is the son of Mrs. George Marquardt of Cottage Grove.

TOM JONES TO REPORT AT DAYTON AIR BASE

First Lt. Tom Jones left Wednesday for Wright-Patterson air base at Dayton, Ohio, after being called back into the service. Jones, who had been coaching at the Glendale high school, was a member of the reserve and was reactivated. He served as a B-26 pilot in World War II and had 65 missions over Europe to his credit. Accompanying him to Dayton was his wife and two daughters, Pamela and Rebel. Jones had been attending the University of Oregon this summer, working on his master's degree.
