Joan Johnson Weds Robert (Red) Glenn At Church Rite

Miss Joan Johnson and Robert (Red) Glenn exchanged wedding vows Wednesday evening, October 8, at the Free Methodist church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. B. Starkey before the immediate members of the families and a few close friends at six o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Bailey and the late Clarence Johnson of Cottage Grove and parents of the bridegroom are Floyd Glenn of Cottage Grove and Mrs. A. R. Robinson of Lancaster, Calif.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Walter Fisher of Myrtle Creek. Her street-length dress was of smoky blue orlon jersey with pleated skirt and three-quarter sleeves. Her accessories were navy, and she carried pink carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Rae Monn Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was charcoal gray jersey with red and white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Walter Sorenson acted as best man.

Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums furnished the church decorations. Mrs. Vernon Coop played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Yvonne Ware and Miss Irene Kirkpatrick, who sang "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Miss Kirkpatrick was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Bud Fisher was at the gift table. The couple spent a few days visiting coastal points and is now at Sand Point, Wash., where Mr. Glenn is stationed with the Navy.

Both young people graduated from the local high school, she in the class of '51 and he in the class of '49. She had been employed at the J. C. Penney store for the past year.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher of Myrtle Creek. Other relatives attending were the bride's step-father, Robert Bailey and the bridegroom's father, Floyd Glenn, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glenn.
