A 1 1/2 Leonard Thiede has been transferred from Lowry Field, Denver, Colo., to Mather Field, Sacramento, Calif. He spent a couple of weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thiede, on a delay enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Wooden and son Gene are spending this week in Baker county on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bigelow have moved to their home here from Nelscott. He is planning on buying a sawmill. They are vacationing a few days in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George McReynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Chapman made their way by jeep into rugged country in the Blue Mountains of eastern Oregon and bagged three deer and three bear.

The Chester Nance and W. A. West families also hunted in eastern Oregon, bringing home one deer.

On Monday 196 pupils were registered at the Latham school. There were 36 in the third grade and 33 in the first grade. Five new pupils entered school Monday. There will be a carnival at the school on Friday evening, October 24. Everyone is invited.

Adolph Lindstrom is home from Cottage Grove hospital. He expects to go to Eugene soon for another operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wilcox have rented an apartment at the Lindstrom place. They are from Roseburg.

Mrs. Anna Lindstrom Erickson, a former resident of Divide, will undergo major surgery at a Portland hospital next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lindstrom will go to Portland Friday to spend the week end with her.

Billy Bryson of Cottage Grove spent the week end with his grandparents and tried out their new tractor.

Jon McReynolds spent a few days at Drain last week with the Sherman Chapman family. Frank Chapman also visited with them and his daughter, Mrs. Herschell Phillips at Yoncalla.

A beautiful specimen of a gingko tree, product of forests primeval and the Orient, is located on the edge of Salem, Oregon's capitol mall, in contrast to the modern state capitol group around it. No groves of this tree now exist, though it once graced the tropical paradise of ancient central Oregon.

DORENA

Friends of the "Babs" Freeman family of Culp Creek were sorry to hear of their great misfortune and loss when their home was destroyed by fire in the early morning Thursday of last week. The Dorena Community club sponsored a shower for them Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Reynolds and children of Marcola were Sunday guests at the Charles Niehaus home.

LeRoy Potter returned home Monday evening from several days spent in eastern Oregon hunting.

Larry Steele of Creswell spent the week end here at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Steele.

Miss Hazel Roy of Drew was a week end guest of Joyce Kelly.

Bob Niehaus returned to school Tuesday after spending several days at home suffering with tonsillitis.

A group of relatives and friends of the "Babs" Freeman family went to Gowdsville Sunday and spent the day from early morning until dark helping with the work still to be done on the new house which was under construction at the time their home at Culp Creek was destroyed by fire. The group put on siding and part of the inside walls and insulation.

Those helping with the work were: Mr. and Mrs. Mel St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Mattson, Mr. and Mrs. George Hatt and son Eddie.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Klang, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gildersleeve, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stockman, and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Freeman. A delicious luncheon was served at noon in the yard of the Nels Mattson home of Gowdsville.

Latest report is that LeRoy Pullen, who sustained a broken leg while at work for Bohemia Lumber Co., about ten days ago, is home and doing nicely.

Residents of this community and no doubt those of the other communities on up the river are very pleased with the resurfacing job on the road extending from the top of Cerro Gordo to Knox Hill. We hope the next few years will find the road as far as Disston in the same condition.

Legal voters are reminded that the polls for the Dorena precinct will be held at the Dorena grade school, November 4.

A group of friends held a house warming at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Ward and family and presented them with a beautiful lamp Thursday evening, October 9. This party was scheduled for an earlier date and on the day scheduled the son of the Wards was taken to the Eugene hospital for a very serious operation, so the party was postponed until a later date.

Mrs. J. H. Spahr suffered numerous bruises when she fell in her own living room one day last week.

Your correspondent was a luncheon guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Houck Monday of last week.

Larry Kelly spent Sunday night with Carl Owen.

Dorena grade school lost its football game played last Friday to London grade school but your reporter did not learn the score.

LYNX HOLLOW

Write us a letter. Tell us why you like to shop for meat at your Cottage Grove Safeway Store

Your acceptance of the improved method of meat merchandising at your new Cottage Grove Safeway store has been most gratifying. And we'd like to know which of the improvements we've made please you most.

Maybe it's the greater selection of meats we can now offer in our new self-service display cases. Or is it the fact you no longer have to wait for service that brings you to our store for your family's meat?

Or perhaps you enjoy the new convenience of fitting your purchase to your pocketbook? Every package is plainly marked with price per pound and total price of the package.

So sit down and write us a letter. Give us your own personal reason for buying your meat at Safeway. You might be the winner of one of these swell prizes!

Special meat-cutting service at your request.

Enter Now! Follow These Simple Rules

1. Complete this sentence in 25 additional words or less: "I like to buy Safeway Guaranteed Meats the new self-service way because..." Send as many entries as you wish — each on a separate piece of paper. With each entry send the gummed Safeway label, or a reasonable facsimile, from any package of Safeway self-service meats. Mail to CONTEST EDITOR, Safeway Stores, Inc., Cottage Grove, Oregon. Use enough postage. Contest closes Nov. 1, 1952. Entries must be postmarked by midnight, November 1, and received by Nov. 8, 1952.

2. Entries will be judged on originality, sincerity, and idea content. Sentences offering constructive criticism of Safeway Guaranteed Meats can win. Duplicate prizes in case of ties. Judges decision will be final. No entries returned. Entries and ideas therein become the property of Safeway Stores, Inc., and will not be publicized.

3. All persons may enter this contest except employees of Safeway Stores, Inc., and their families. Contest subject to all Federal and State regulations. Winners will be notified and list of winners will be posted at Safeway in Cottage Grove.
