

DELIGHT VALLEY

By Mrs. Roy Stone
Phone 381-R-5

Those who attended the first meeting of the Red Cross advanced first aid class at the Silk Creek school last Wednesday were Mesdames John Van Nortwick, H. M. McFee, Floyd Way, Rice Hayes, Walter Tracey, and Weston Cameron, and Richard McFee. This class will meet every Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Silk Creek school.

Wally Tracey had a three day vacation last week from his studies at the Seventh-day Adventist school in Cottage Grove while the teachers were attending a convention in Portland.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Olson last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jarrett and children; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schacht and children; June and Dieder Olson, Billy and Bruce Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard White of Wenatchee, Wash., are the proud parents of a daughter, Wanda Lee, born on October 3. Mrs. White will be remembered here as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stalder.

L. B. Stubblefield of Crow completed his task of blasting and removing rocks from the quarry which he has leased from John Stalder. He left equipment at the quarry so that rock will be available for those who may need it.

Friends of Mrs. John Hatfield of Blackwell, Okla., will be interested to learn that she is recuperating from an operation. The Hatfields formerly occupied the place which is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Luten.

Luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Iberg last Thursday were Mrs. William Schletzer, Mrs. Roy Stone and Marianne.

Mrs. John Van Nortwick and Mrs. John Long were among those who were in Eugene to see General and Mrs. Eisenhower last Tuesday.

John Long returned to his home last Thursday from the Veterans' hospital in Portland and is recuperating satisfactorily.

Those who attended the bridal shower for Miss June Olson on Friday evening at the home of Miss Luella Gartner on Kenady Lane were Mesdames Norman Myers, William Olson and Roy Stone and Miss Thelma McDonald.

Miss Lorna VandenBosch of Eugene was the week end guest of Miss June Olson.

Faye Oster and Michael Zumwalt have been ill.

4-H Leadership
Parents of children who are interested in learning about 4-H clubs are urged to attend the meeting of the Delight Valley Neighbors club on Thursday, October 16, at the Walker club at 10:30 a.m. Miss Hattie May Rhonemus, county 4-H club leader and Mrs. Elwyn Bales, Delight Valley Sewing club leader, are expected to be present to give information about organization and leadership.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Manbeck and daughters were Mr. and Mrs. William Bach of Scotts Mills and Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Brook and family of Coos Bay.

Overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Norris Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Elton Duell and Mr. and Mrs. Art Beaton of New Dayton, Alberta, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Norris and family and guests spent the week end at the coast where they visited Sea Lion Caves. Mrs. Stovall of Long Beach, Calif., has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn. She left for her home on Monday morning, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn, who will spend several weeks in California.

Ralph Davidson is the proud owner of a new car.

Claude Davidson put a new floor in the gym. After it is sanded it will be covered with tile.

Mr. and Mrs. James Augstein and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Myers were in charge of the records and the hall for the square dance on October 11. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gwyn of Cottage Grove taught the group some new dances.

On October 18 Lillian and Bill Norris and Norma and Chuck Sharon will be in charge of the records and the hall for the square dance. On October 25, Helen and Harley Williams and Velma and Kenneth Zumwalt will be in charge.

Ralph Davidson had to go to eastern Oregon and tow home the disabled car of his brother-in-law, Delmer Myers. Delmer and his father had gone there to hunt deer.

Norman Myers poured the foundation for the new home he plans to build along Gettings creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Myers were accompanied on a hunting trip to eastern Oregon by Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Myers of Mosby. The hunting party was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Franklin of Drain.

Airman 2/c Robert A. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Long, is stationed in England.

Sgt. Russell L. Tracey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tracey, is in Korea, serving as chaplain's assistant.

A good view of the ruins of the Old Oregon Trail are still visible nine miles southwest of Echo, Oregon, by turning west at the Madison ranch off the Heppner highway.

There's no dampness in my home. I used STA-DRI.

STA-DRI does a real job on masonry.

STA-DRI will hold a wall of water nine feet high without leakage and contains a mold and mildew inhibitor.

That's protection! And STA-DRI is supplied in a variety of beautiful colors and white—decorative quality too!
