Beta Zeta Chapter of ESA Has Busy Month; Rushing Parties Entertain

Rushing season for Beta Zeta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority has featured various forms of entertainment for members and prospective members. The month of October has been set aside as rush period and the group has been entertaining with a coffee hour, a model business meeting and a hobo party and wiener roast.

Activities started with a coffee hour held Saturday afternoon, October 11, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olson. After a social hour refreshments of cookies and coffee were served by the hostess.

A model business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Held the evening of October 15. At this time the workings of the organization were explained by the president, Mrs. Lloyd Peterson, and the evening closed with the hostess serving donuts and cider.

Rushing season closed Wednesday evening, October 22, with a hobo party and wiener roast at the home of the president.

November 12 Pledge Nite

New members will be pledged at the next meeting, November 12, and initiation for new members will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Peterson was appointed president by Eugene chapter and will hold this office until May. Mrs. Peterson is active in civic affairs. She is not only president of the local chapter, but also president of the Dental Assistants association and chairman of health and safety committee of the BPW club. She is employed in the offices of Dr. Dean I Webb.

Chapter Chartered November 20

Beta Zeta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha was chartered November 20, 1951 under the supervision of the Alpha Zeta chapter of Eugene, with Mrs. H. J. Wiscomb installing officer. She and Mrs. Robert Thomas, formerly of Cottage Grove, were primarily responsible for the founding of the local sorority.

The purpose of this sorority, which was founded May 1, 1929 in Kansas City, Mo., is three-fold: social, philanthropic and cultural education. Epsilon Sigma Alpha is a non-academic sorority open to girls 18 years of age or older, and is by initiation only. The chapter is limited to 25 girls. When more are interested, a sister chapter is organized. Epsilon Sigma Alpha freely translated means "Pursuit of Learning."

Slipper Satin, Lace Worn by October Bride, Church Rite

A white slipper satin and lace wedding dress was worn by Miss Mary Lou Jones as she exchanged wedding vows with Charles William Hanks Sunday afternoon, October 12, at the Methodist church. The bride's gown had a long train edged with wide lace and the front of her skirt was rows of gathered lace. Her bodice was fitted with a net yoke edged with lace and buttons down the back. Her sheer fingertip veil was edged with matching lace and held in place with a headdress of seed pearls. She carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her hanky was borrowed from the grandmother of Betty Jo Stroud. A penny was worn in her shoe and a blue garter was her "something blue."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones of Mapleton and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hanks of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Clark Enz performed the double ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Oylan Jones.

Sharon McCall Soloist

Preceding the ceremony Sharon McCall sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen. Mrs. Allen also played the traditional wedding marches. Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums were at the altar while yellow mums and yellow mums and white bows marked the pews. Candelights were Jean Oberfell, cousin of the bridegroom, and Paula Jones.

Miss Addie Rue Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of pink taffeta with net overskirt, puffed sleeves and bodice with net yoke and scalloped shoulder line. She carried a pink muff with baby mums. Wanda Sue Meeks of Mapleton was bridesmaid, wearing blue net over taffeta with puffed sleeves and Peter Pan collar. She carried a blue muff with baby yellow mums. Flower girl was Margene Meeks in a floor-length gown of yellow taffeta.

Abe Hanks Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Kenneth Bush and Kenneth Cooper Jr.

The bride's mother wore a grey suit and black accessories while the bridegroom's mother wore blue flowered nylon and white accessories. Both mothers had pink rosebud corsages.

The reception was held in the church parlor where tall baskets of pink dahlias decorated the room. Mrs. W. C. Bost, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Lulu Perkins, aunt of the bridegroom, served punch. Miss Phyllis Perkins assisted. Mrs. Everett Yearous was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to scenic spots in Oregon the bride wore a grey suit with red accessories and her wedding orchid.

Couple Reside At Klamath Falls

The bride is a graduate of Scotland, Ark., high school with the class of '30 and the bridegroom graduated from the local high school. He is now attending Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls where they are living.

Out-of-town guests were: the bride's family from Mapleton; Lowell Blue of Mapleton; Harry Hanks, Salyer, Calif.; L. N. Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. George Moxley and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pollesko of Eugene; Mrs. Bruce Moorhead, son Bruce Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roy of Talent; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, Delcena and Randy of Gold Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oberfell and family of Oakridge and Sgt. Lyle Mullica, home on 30-day leave from Korea.

OES Initiates Two, Entertain Masons

The Order of Eastern Star met Thursday night, October 16, with Elsa Hickok, worthy matron, and Kenneth Hickok, worthy patron, presiding. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations of witches, pumpkins, autumn leaves and zinnias.

After the business meeting initiatory work was put on for two candidates, Faye Dusenberry and Phyllis Clochetti. Several reports were given from visitations to various chapters, and an invitation was read to attend a reception for Ray Martin, member of the budget committee of the grand chapter. An invitation was also read from the Elkton chapter inviting the local group to be their guests at their meeting on October 28.

The Masons invited the local chapter to be their guests on the night of November 5 and on November 6 the OES will entertain all Masons.

At the close of the meeting games were played and refreshments served by the committee: Nordelle Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Matt Smith, Hazel Morris, Mrs. Elwyn Rude and Mrs. George Witters.

Members are asked to be sure to have their contributions of canned food at the next meeting on November 6 for the Masonic OES Home so it can be packed and shipped before Thanksgiving.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WILLIAM HANKS (Miss Mary Lou Jones) whose wedding was an event of October 12 at the Methodist church. The Rev. Clark Enz officiated. They are residing at Klamath Falls where he is a student at Oregon Technical Institute.

Miss Lois Oviatt Is October Bride

Miss Lois Ann Oviatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Oviatt of Cottage Grove, became the bride of Verden Wayne Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Wheeler of Creswell, on October 9, at North Bonneville, Wash. They were married at six o'clock in the evening by the Rev. D. K. Corner at his home.

The bride wore a two piece grey gabardine suit with lavender accessories and a lavender orchid corsage. She also wore a pearl necklace which belonged to her mother.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Given of North Bonneville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler visited various parts of Washington and Oregon on their wedding trip and are now at home at the Grove Court Motel.

The bride graduated from the local high school with the class of 1950 and has been employed as bookkeeper at Albee Pontiac for the past two years.

The bridegroom graduated from Pleasant Hill high school and served four years in the Air Force. He is employed as sawyer for the Meile Lumber Co. of Springfield.

(By Esther Trunnell Latham correspondent)

Mrs. Edna Ford has announced the coming marriage of her daughter, Lola Ford, to Edward Hart of Corvallis on November 2.

Miss Ford has been employed at Wagner's cafe in Corvallis. Mr. Hart is assistant manager of Day's market there. They will live in Corvallis and both continue in their positions.

Five New Members Welcomed by BPW

Business and Professional Women's club held a regular business meeting Monday night at the city library clubroom and saw a film strip sponsored locally by Grove Maid Dairy on the milk marketing act.

Mrs. Duncan, of a Fall Creek dairy, showed it. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hartwig, owners of Grove Maid Dairy.

At the business meeting following five new members were welcomed into the club. They were Mrs. George Hamilton, of Winterhaven market; Miss Alice Stuart and Miss Gertrude Elliott, both teachers at Harrison school; Mrs. Virgil Kingsley, Welcome Wagon hostess, and Mrs. Juanita Hicks, secretary at Daugherty Lumber Co.

Plans were made for the formal initiation ceremony to be held Monday, November 3, at the Methodist church. Myrtle Gleason, emblem chairman, will be in charge.

WEEK OF PRAYER AND SELF DENIAL WILL BE OBSERVED

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will observe the annual Week of Prayer and Self Denial with a Quiet Day devotional time on Wednesday, October 29. The meeting will be in the church parlor from 1 to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Howard of Eugene, district Spiritual Life secretary, will conduct the meeting at which time talks will be given on mission projects in Africa, which the Society help support by their offerings taken at this time. A devotional period will follow.

All women interested are invited.

Educational Bills Explained to Group

The American Legion and Auxiliary held a potluck dinner at the armory Thursday evening.

Paul Elliott, superintendent of Oakridge schools gave a talk on the educational measures which are appearing on the November ballot. Slides were shown on the new Bible through the courtesy of the local Ministerial association with Richard Tank showing the pictures.

A letter was read from "Pop" Grannis to Vinal Randall Jr., in which he thanked the organizations for cards sent him and visits paid during his stay in the hospital. He is now at his Portland home, 2835 S. E. 47th, Apartment 39. He stated that he is improving and seemed in good spirits.

Upholstery Class Will Start Soon

An adult upholstery class is being formed again this year in Cottage Grove, and all interested parties are asked to leave their name and phone number at the high school office.

The class will be instructed by Mrs. Maye Frye of Eugene and is sponsored by the high school and the Oregon State System of Vocational Education. Classes will meet on Fridays from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Randall building on South Sixth street. Date of the first class will be announced later.

Lindgren-Howard Betrothal Named

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Kangas announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Lindgren, to David L. Howard, of Cottage Grove.

The marriage will be solemnized by Jack Siebert Jr. Saturday, November 15th at 7 p.m. at the local Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Harvey road. Following the ceremony, an informal reception will be given at the home of Jack Siebert Sr. in Delight Valley.

"I'M A THIEF"

Fred Sturm enjoyed community esteem, had two sons and a devoted wife and claimed the love and respect of 18 boys in his Sunday School class. With anguished remorse in his eyes he blurted to his wife, "I'm a thief." She gasped. "On my 16th birthday, nineteen years ago, I'd saved $100, wanted to buy a car. Dad refused. We argued, on the street, in front of the bank. A crowd gathered. He struck me, knocked me down. I was humiliated. Furious. Walked home, saw his wallet, took ten $10.00 bills, went back for the car. It was gone—" "You, the soul of honor?" she murmured. "Last Sunday our lesson was, 'Sown in dishonor, raised to glory.' Those boys trust me; I'm going to return dad's money." "You've never written?" "Afraid. Arrest. Disgrace." "Go to the Police, now," she counseled. "I'll go with you." A twinkle danced in the Chief's eyes as he laid a pair of handcuffs and fevicol on his desk. "I'll call them," he boomed. "Go home. Wait. He ready to go to the Air Port." They waited in terrible torment. The telephone rang. Both jumped. Fred braced himself, answered. "Fred Sturm?" the operator asked. "Go ahead," he heard. "Fred! This is dad. I'm sorry. Be at the Air Port in the morning. Mother and I are coming." "The money?" Fred asked lamely. "Was yours," he explained. "I'd bought the car for your birthday."
