

Local Waitresses Compete in Contest For 'Queen of Trays'

Twelve local waitresses and three from Creswell are among those in the Eugene-Springfield-Cottage Grove area competing in the "Queen of Trays" contest sponsored by the Springfield American Legion post.

They are as follows: Audrey Frasier, Doris Hayes, Jean Herman, Beverly Munsell, Sylvia Bennett, Hazel Burk, Dorothy Cooley, Janet Oviatt, Theo Dalberg, Marjorie Brown, Grace Radford and Bonnie McCallum, all of Cottage Grove, and Mildred Parnell, Rebekah Harris and Alice Vogtsberger, of Creswell.

Prizes, including an all-expense Hollywood trip for the winner, will be awarded and the queen crowned at a ball December 12 in Eugene. Proceeds from ticket sales, which give contestants points, go to the Legion welfare fund. Contest chairman is John McCuiston.

The Mosby Creek Mountaineers 4-H club had a business meeting Friday afternoon at the Blue Mt. lunch room. They went to the 4-H picnic grounds and demonstrated building campfires out of wet wood and dry. They also played games. Nancy Shogren joined the club. There are 19 members now, and Mrs. Virgil Bassett was appointed to assist Mrs. Glen Roby, leader.

Mrs. Ida Darby of Drain spent last Tuesday with her son, Fred Overton, while Mrs. Overton worked on the election board.

Mrs. Pete Ekelund was hostess at a demonstration party recently at her home on upper Mosby Creek. Mrs. Frank Chambers put on the meeting. Coffee and pumpkin pie were served to several friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Land have one of the finest winter gardens with turnips, lettuce, endive, radishes and several other vegetables. It has been a wonderful fall for gardens, but they have needed some watering.

Mrs. Glen Roby cooked Monday at the Blue Mt. lunchroom as Mrs. McGuire, the cook, was ill.

There were 174 votes cast election day at Brumbaugh precinct. This is the most votes cast since the precinct has been divided.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Mosby and family were dinner guests last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bush of Creswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ulmer and two children, Wayne and Lynn of Cottage Grove were dinner guests Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bostick. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Ulmer's birthday.

'53 Kaiser Bows as First 'Safety First' Car

MORE HORSEPOWER under the hood and new chrome trim which accents sweeping body lines are features of the Kaiser for 1953. Described as the world's first "safety first" automobile, all of the new Kaiser models are equipped with richly cushioned safety dash panels which harmonize with exclusive vinyl and fabric upholstery combinations. Horsepower of the 1953 series, offered with optional overdrive or Hydra-Matic, has been increased without affecting economy of operation.
