

Mrs. C. I. Kent is our news, advertising and subscription representative for the Creswell area. Her phone is Creswell 557.

CRESWELL NEWS

Published by The Sentinel, Cottage Grove, Oregon

CRESWELL'S OWN NEWSPAPER PAGE

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1952

NUMBER 13

Whitney Is Named IOOF Noble Grand

CRESWELL—Lester A. Whitney was elected noble grand of Giffry Lodge IOOF last Wednesday evening. Other officers elected were Harold Parks, vice grand; Norman Skaggs, secretary and J. R. Miller, treasurer. Installation of the officers will be announced later.

The second degree was also given for J. V. Birdsong, and it was also homecoming night with a good attendance. Skaggs, V. W. Johnston and M. G. Miller were appointed on the program committee for the Lane County IOOF association which meets in Creswell in April. Guests for the evening were Bruce Lansbury and Ike Holmes, both members of the Oakridge IOOF lodge, both now residents of Creswell. Refreshments were served in the dining room.

Pie Social Planned To Benefit Hospital

CRESWELL—Both round and square dancing will be featured at a pie social to be held at the VFW hall, Saturday, November 15 beginning at 8 p.m. Women are to bring pies and the men are to bring their purses.

The affair is sponsored by the local Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges, and the receipts will be given to the Children's Hospital school in Eugene. This is a part of the community service program sponsored by the Lane County IOOF association.

MIRIAM CIRCLE PLANS FOR SPRING BAZAAR

CRESWELL—Mrs. Douglas Treiber entertained the Miriam Circle of the Methodist church at her home last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Forrest Elliot was leader of the lesson. Work was done on articles for the spring bazaar and some articles were turned in.

Plans were discussed for the installation of a water heater in the new church unit. Mrs. Robert Fox was appointed reporter. Pumpkin pie, coffee and cider were served. December 3 meeting will be with Mrs. Ross Bradford. Mrs. Fox will be the lesson leader.

An elk feed was enjoyed Sunday at the home of J. W. Smith. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Stiner, with whom Mr. Smith makes his home; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Doyle and Grover Post. Mr. Smith returned recently from California where he has spent the past year and has again taken possession of his home south of town.

Methodist Ladies Plan Bazaar 21st

CRESWELL—Mesdames F. A. Everson, Phil Walker and Ralph Maddy entertained the Dorcas Circle of the Methodist church at the Everson home last Wednesday afternoon.

Work was done on bazaar articles and plans were made for the annual event including the supper which will have turkey as the main dish. The ways and means committee were to arrange the committee for soliciting.

Members are to bring two packages of lemon jello to the WSCS meeting November 19 or leave with Mrs. Dora Martin. The Bazaar and supper date is Friday, November 21, at the Creswell Grange hall.

Mrs. W. D. Tiedje led the devotions and also presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Everson gave a sketch of her biography. Mrs. E. C. Fisher will give her biography at the December 3 meeting. The hostesses will be Mesdames C. I. Kent, L. A. Buchanan and W. C. Adams.

Guests at the October and November birthday table were Mesdames J. E. Smith, E. R. Lawrence, F. E. Vick and Kent. Greetings were sung for Mrs. Smith as her anniversary was that day.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD AT EASTERN STAR MEET

CRESWELL—Memorial services for members who had passed away during the past year were held during the meeting of the Creswell Eastern Star chapter last Thursday evening. They included Bertha Sly, Nel Mawson, Mary Jones, Gladys Rogers, Clara Parsons and Phil Jones, a state officer.

Murnard England of Eugene sang, accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Scott. Two birthday candidates were initiated. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. England.

ARDYCE RIDDLE CROWNED H. S. CARNIVAL QUEEN

CRESWELL—Ardyce Riddle was crowned queen of the carnival by Sam Shoaf, student body president, at the annual big time of the high school Friday evening. Miss Riddle's escort was Bob Rand. Her attendants and their escorts were Shirley Dunaway and Clyde Hartman; Margie Pettiford and Joe Burris; Lucille Westlake and Don Poole.

Mesdames E. E. Allen, Barney Doyle, C. Scarborough and W. J. Polson will entertain the Home Economics club at the Grange hall Tuesday, November 18, at 2 p.m. Officers for the new year will be elected.

Mother's Club Names Standing Committees

CRESWELL—A report was made at the Friday afternoon Mother's club meeting that $159.28 had been cleared at the recent benefit supper. A contribution of $5 was voted to the Community Chest.

Standing committees for the new school year were appointed as follows: Ways and means, Mesdames W. W. Smith, H. E. Peterson and Carol Bush; sunshine, Mrs. A. J. Gabriel; health rooms, Mrs. Minnie Henriksen and Mrs. J. M. Black; reporters, Mrs. Norman Skaggs and Mrs. C. I. Kent; hostesses, Mesdames Frank A. Clack, Sam Lomas and R. H. Anderson; program, Mrs. J. V. Birdsong.

The club voted to investigate the cost of installing portable coat racks in the gymnasium of each grade school. Plans were also made to alternate the meetings with the two schools. The December 5 meeting will be at the Creswell grade school with Mesdames L. A. Whitney, Ed Slater and R. E. Green on the refreshment committee.

E Z Club Schedules Christmas Party 2nd

CRESWELL—Committee reports were given relative to getting floor covering for the IOOF club room at the meeting of the E Z club last Thursday afternoon at the hall. Appointments were also made for the Christmas party to be held at the next meeting December 2, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Miller.

Hostess committee consists of Mesdames C. Scarborough, T. A. Bessonette and L. C. Satter; program committee, Mesdames C. I. Kent, Minnie Henriksen, E. W. Rand. Gift exchange will be in charge of Mrs. Calvin Palmer. Officers for the new year will also be elected at this meeting.

CHURCHES

Creswell Assembly of God: Rev. W. R. Davidson, pastor. Schedule of services, Sunday school 10 a.m. A class for every age. You'll like it! Sunday morning worship 11 o'clock.

Sunday evening evangelistic rally, 7:30 p.m. Youth service, Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. A program designed especially for youth. Wednesday evening prayer hour 7:30 p.m.

Church of Christ, L. M. Bixler, minister. Sunday school at 10 a.m. Morning worship 11. Evening service at 7 p.m. Singing and study hour. Classes for all age groups. Wednesday 3:30 p.m. Youth choir practice. 7:30 p.m. Adult choir practice.

First Methodist church, Rev. Frank B. Vitaris, minister. Sunday school at 10 a.m. C. C. Walton, superintendent. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Sermon subject "The Church Moves Forward." Youth Fellowship 6:30 p.m. Worship service followed by pictures of his trip to Europe by Frank Bradford. Evening service at 7:30 with more pictures by Mr. Bradford. Tuesday, November 18, MYF chili supper with short program and pictures.

Presbyterian Church, Rev. Gerald G. Emerson, minister. Sunday school 10 a.m. Mrs. W. O. Thomson, superintendent. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Sermon subject, "Man and His Wonderful Possessions." Junior Westminister Fellowship 6:30 p.m. Thursday, November 20, potluck supper at the manse with Rev. Harold Roberts of Medford to speak on the needed church expansion program.

Creswell Stockman Trampled by Bull

CRESWELL—Oscar Shelter, Creswell stockman, died at a Eugene hospital Tuesday afternoon as a result of injuries received earlier that day when a bull trampled him on his ranch.

Shelter after being trampled managed to reach his house to call the Creswell ambulance, reports said. His wife, a German war bride, was in Salem at the time. The ranchman has lived in Creswell about ten years.

Around Town...

Mrs. C. I. Kent, Reporter Phone 557

Mrs. C. C. Walton will lead the lesson discussion and Mrs. Ray Andrews will be in charge of devotions at the November 19 meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church annex. Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. L. A. Whitney are in charge of the noon luncheon and Mrs. E. C. Fisher and Mrs. F. E. Vick will serve on the clean-up committee.

A seven pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redding at the Cottage Grove Hospital Monday, November 10. The Reddings also have two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coleman and Mrs. E. O. Smith visited the Veteran's hospital at Roseburg Tuesday, Armistice Day and took treats for the patients there.

Mrs. Hilda Hout of Corvallis is visiting this week with her sister, Miss Ida Ruegger.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skaggs visited Sunday afternoon with his mother, Mrs. Maude Loisel, at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler spent the week end at their cabin at Hecceta Beach.

A deputation team from the Wesley Foundation on the University of Oregon campus, consisting of Miss Rose Warner, Miss Alta Wright and Don Jackson, were in charge of the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday and a special offering was taken to add to the fund for the erection of a new Wesley Foundation building.

The F L club will meet Monday evening, November 17, at the home of Mrs. R. M. Carpenter.

Work on the Methodist church's new unit has been resumed following the busy summer season and will continue until it is ready for use.

Mrs. J. E. Smith is confined to her home with an eye infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warthen and two small daughters of Oregon City have moved into the D. D. Eustad house on north First street. Warthen is employed at Oakridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skaggs and daughter Judy left Monday evening for Portland and spent Armistice Day in the city.

Mrs. Robert Leader of Madras, Oregon, is visiting at the home of her brother, S. L. Dahl.

Mrs. Herbert Flowerday is the new bookkeeper in Green's Hardware and Supply.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Claborn and the F. G. Harrold family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kinnaman Sunday.

The Pinochle club enjoyed its annual turkey dinner Saturday evening at the Civic club house with 35 members present.

The Creswell Community Choral group met Friday evening at the home of the director, Byron Westlake. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served following the practice. Members present were Mesdames A. E. Elmendorf, Perry Main, E. D. Groubeck, Rex Gwyther, Lettie Good and C. I. Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hager were called to Myrtle Point last week due to an accident to their son-in-law, Warren Smith. He received a back injury in a car wreck and is now in a cast at his home.

J. T. Kerr, Keith Kerr, Carlyle Scarborough, H. H. Dersham, Hubert and Ronald Dersham, E. E. Dersham and L. E. Ziniker hunted ducks in the Silver Lake area over the week end.

The VFW Auxiliary met last Tuesday evening at the VFW hall. Boxes of Christmas cards were distributed among the members for sale. Plans were made to pop corn at the social meeting November 18 to serve with apples.

Thelma J. Davis, A 3/c is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cornwall, before her new assignment in Japan. She has been stationed at McChord Field, near Tacoma, Wash.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank B. Vitaris and son Frank Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Walton and daughter Jeanne were dinner guests at the W. D. Tiedje home Friday evening. Mrs. Vitaris is convalescing from recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jarnigan of Silverton were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jackson. They formerly were neighbors of the Jackson here.

David Kasper is having skin grafting done on his foot in Eugene as the result of the bad burn he received from an electric wire several weeks ago. He came home to vote last Tuesday.

Due to conflicting activities the date of the amateur night to be sponsored by Creswell Grange has been changed to Saturday, December 13. Registrations are to be made with H. H. Brown.

Mrs. Ethel Harris underwent eye surgery in Eugene last week and is reported improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. C. C. Buell arrived from Madison, Minn., to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. H. S. Joslin.

Robert Smith of Portland spent last Wednesday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, in observance of his mother's birthday.

The grade school teachers attended the workshop in Eugene last Thursday and Friday. School was dismissed here for the two days.

Mrs. Edna McDonald and Mrs. Agnes Carveth of Vancouver, B. C. spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Everson. They were former Canadian friends and were returning to their home from a trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skaggs and Miss Mary Ann Ziniker went to Oakridge Friday evening where Miss Ziniker, Lane County IOOF sponsored trip winner to the United Nations, spoke before the IOOF Lodge.

Paul Hartman has received his call to armed service. He leaves early next month. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman have been visiting in California.

New playground equipment has been placed on the Creslane school grounds. It includes a merry-go-round and monkey bars.

Word comes from Rev. Alexander Hawthorne, former pastor of the local Methodist church, and Mrs. Hawthorne, that their daughter, Mrs. P. M. Rommel of Eureka, Calif., is still very ill with polio and in confined to the respirator. She gave birth October 27 to a girl, the first granddaughter of the pastor and wife. The baby is doing well. The Rommells also have a son. Dr. Rommel, also a polio patient, is able to be about in a wheel chair. Rev. and Mrs. Hawthorne left their home at Monroe to be with the daughter and family.

Eileen Berge, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Berge, fell while playing on the school grounds last week and broke an arm near the wrist. She was taken to Cottage Grove for care and is wearing a cast.

CIVIL DEFENSE NEEDS YOUR SKILLS

- ✓ MEDICAL
- ✓ POLICE
- ✓ FIRE
- ✓ COMMUNICATIONS
- ✓ TRANSPORTATION
- ✓ UTILITIES
- ✓ RESCUE
- ✓ ADMINISTRATION
- ✓ PUBLIC INFORMATION

Building a "reserve" for civil defense is object of registration campaign from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, which carries theme "Pledge for Home Defense." In Oregon, civil defense officials develop hard-core of trained workers and have a register of potential volunteers who are ready to serve as the need arises. Many organizations — veteran, civic, youth, farm — are taking active part in current drive by educating members in self-protection and encouraging them to register with local civil defense organization.

Creswell Man Hurt In Woods Accident

CRESWELL—John Mullanix of Creswell was injured Friday in a woods accident while at work near Klamath Falls, according to reports received here. He is said to be recovering in a hospital there from broken ribs and a punctured lung received when he was hit by a falling snag.

He and his wife have lived in Klamath Falls for several months, but their home is in Creswell.

Presbyterian Women Plan Bazaar Dec. 3

CRESWELL—Mrs. W. J. Polson and Mrs. Frances L. Francis entertained the Presbyterian Women's association at the Polson home last Wednesday afternoon. Wednesday, December 3, was the date set for annual bazaar and supper with Mrs. K. C. Schwering as general chairman.

Members who have not brought their cans of fruit cocktail or their lemon jello are reminded to bring them to the November 19 meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Olive Parlin with Mrs. H. S. Joslin co-hostess.

Talent money turned in totaled $33.95 with more to be added. Harold Roberts, field director of the Oregon Presbyterian synod, will be guest speaker at a meeting at the church Thursday, November 13, following a 6:30 potluck supper.

ANNUAL METHODIST BAZAAR DINNER SCHEDULED 21ST

CRESWELL—The annual Methodist bazaar and dinner will be held at the Creswell Grange hall Friday, November 21. The sale will open at 12:30 p.m. with Mrs. J. E. Smith in charge, assisted by Mrs. Charles Wetzel and Mrs. W. C. Adams.

The dinner serving will begin at 5:30. The receipts will be used for improvements in the parsonage.

Costume Jewelry

Gift packaged
Perfumes and Powders

Skirts
for girls
in checks and plaids.

Also
Doeskin finish
Turtle Neck
Sweaters

Toys including dish and silver sets.

Roller Skates

Creswell Variety

H. A. and Nedra Woolman

FARM and RANCH INCOME TAX RECORD
Requires no bookkeeping experience
FOR FARMS AND RANCHES OF ALL KINDS
SIMPLIFIED—EASY TO KEEP
Prices $2.00 - $3.50 - $5.00

COTTAGE GROVE SENTINEL
PHONE 555-556

Haley-Peterson Vows Read Nov. 9

CRESWELL—Mrs. Alice Haley of Eugene announces the marriage of her daughter Lorena to Harold Peterson of Creswell Sunday, November 9 at the First Christian church of Longview, Wash. Only members of the immediate family and a few close friends were present.

The bride wore a dress of white embossed organza over ice blue taffeta with small black hat. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations centered with an orchid.

The attendants were sisters of the bride, Mrs. William Copeland of Seaside and Mrs. Robert Lewis of Eugene. Donald Hoover of Creswell was best man.

The local pastor read the double ring ceremony with Bert and Frank Lewis, nephews of the bride, as ring bearers.

The bride attended the Eugene schools and has a class of piano pupils in Eugene. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mourer of Creswell. The couple will make their home in Eugene for a time, later moving to the groom's new home in Creswell.

SALES BOOKS

Snap Out Forms

at
COTTAGE GROVE SENTINEL
Ph. 555

Thanksgiving Housewares

Everything to prepare, cook, carve and serve your Thanksgiving feast! Save time - phone your order.

Revere Ware

- A. 2 qt. Sauce Pan $5.50
- B. 6 cup Percolator $8.25
- C. 2 qt. Whistler $4.25
- D. 6 qt. Dutch Oven $10.50
- E. 10 in. Skillet $7.00

June Rose 50 pc. Set Dishes $26.69

Sets of Glasses $1.59 and up

Heisey Crystal

Artbeck Baster 89c

Hamilton Beach Mixette $18.75

Coffee Makers Deep Fat Fryers

Green's Hardware & Supply
Personal Service — Easy Parking
Ph. 222 Creswell, Ore.

H. N. Traxler Real Estate - Insurance
Your Dependable Agent

Sixteen years in business in Creswell

Real Estate - Sales, Rentals, Trades.

Property Management.

Insurance - Property and Automobile.

Telephone 282 Creswell

Get Your Home Ready For Cold Weather With CHAMPION HEATING OIL

HOLLEMON MOTOR CO.
Phone 595 Creswell, Ore.

20% off
on
Sewing Supplies
School Supplies
Drug Sundries
Kodak Films
Costume Jewelry
And All Notions

SALE NOW ON

Zelma's Flowers and Teen Town
Mrs. Zelma Edwards

Subscribe to The Sentinel