Local Couple Wed In Honolulu Chapel

(Mrs. Roy Stone)

Delight Valley correspondent) Miss June Mardell Olson and Richard Fay Wicks exchanged wedding vows in a Protestant naval chapel at Barber's Point Naval base, Honolulu at 5 p.m. October 23. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Olson of Delight Valley and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leslie Wicks and the late Leslie Wicks of Dorena. The bride wore a pink linen suit, white accessories and her flowers were a white ginger lei.

For "something old" the bride wore a gold locket that had been given to her mother by a great-uncle on her fifth birthday. Her mother in turn gave it to her on her fifth birthday anniversary. Her "something borrowed" was a gold bracelet which belonged to Luella Gartner, and for "something blue" she carried a hanky, a gift from Marlene Peterson.

The bride graduated from the local high school with the class of '31. He attended the local high school and enlisted in the navy two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicks are now at home at 1745 So. Beretania St., Apt. B1, Honolulu, T.H.

Miss Susan Clay Tells Opportunities To H. S. Girls

Miss Susan A. Clay, field director of the Seven College Conference Scholarship program, who will confer with students in the local high school this week about scholarship opportunities in seven eastern colleges for women.

Opportunities for special regional scholarships to enable young women to attend any one of seven eastern women's colleges—Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar, and Wellesley—will be described here, when Miss Susan Clay begins a series of conferences with high school students in this area.

Miss Clay will confer with the students of the local high schools in Eugene, Cottage Grove and Roseburg between November 17 and 20, stressing particularly the annual competition for the 21 Seven College Conference Scholarships, seven of which may be awarded to students here. While in this area, Miss Clay will make her headquarters at the Eugene Hotel in Eugene.

Crepe Is Popular

EVERYBODY loves the soft clinging quality of crepe, and every woman of taste is beaming over the revival of this fabric of gentle femininity. Everybody loves cardigans, too, and this interpretation done in a dress of corded crepe of Du Pont rayon and acetate has taken on a fresh new sophistication. The wise use of the crepe by Ben Reig Designs has created a beautifully draped, softly tailored dress for almost any informal occasion.

Masons Honored At OES Meeting

Elsa Hickok, worthy matron, and Kenneth Hickok, worthy patron, presided over the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star at the Thursday night meeting.

After a short business session the chapter was closed and the 33 Masons present were escorted and introduced and presented with gold colored horseshoes. A playlet, "The Mystic Seal of Solomon," was presented by the officers. All characters were dressed in men's clothes and were real characters from reports. Robert Near of Eugene sang four solos, "Without a Song," "The Desert Song," "Lindy Lou," and "Stout Hearted Men," accompanied by Mrs. Hickok.

Members are reminded to have their canned fruit donations for the Masonic-OES Home at Forest Grove at the next meeting November 20 as this is the deadline for packing and shipping before Thanksgiving.

At the close of the program members were invited to the dining room for refreshments served by the committee: Harriet Horn, Chloe Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beck, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Velma Zumwalt, Rose Turner and Louise Hansen.

BIRTHDAY CLUB ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Bert Hatch was hostess to the Senior Birthday club at her home Thursday afternoon. Besides the seven members present, Mrs. Lila Veatch was a guest. She was also welcomed as a member.

Plans were made for the Christmas dinner to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Teich on December 7 when husbands of the members will be guests.

The hostess served refreshments at the close of the evening.
