

HOLDS CHRISTMAS MEETING

The annual pre-Christmas meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Free Methodist Church was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gayle VanVleet. Secret Pals had their Christmas gift exchange and Mrs. John Ross presided over the short business session and led the devotional service.

Mrs. Lillian Gray Belknap was in charge of the program followed by the singing of Christmas carols.

JIMMY BRIDGES SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. James Bridges entertained at Sunday dinner for their son Jimmy, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

Guests besides his parents and brother, Thomas, were his grandfather, Thomas Whetham, Mrs. Jay Burleson, children Larry, Durol and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Long, daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whetham and children Roger, Elnora and Lester, and Mrs. May Baxa.

Golden Wedding Observed 7th At Grange Hall

(Jeannette Kelly)

Dorena correspondent) Nearly 100 friends and relatives attended the open house held at the Dorena Grange hall, Sunday, December 7, in observance of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Spahr.

Mr. and Mrs. Spahr were married December 4, 1902, at the home of Mrs. Spahr's pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles H. Pitcher, and they still reside on that homestead taken up by the Pitchers.

Mrs. Spahr was born Harriet Pitcher near Lorane, Ore., November 26, 1882 and while still a small child moved to this community with her parents.

Mr. Spahr was born at Clifton, Ohio December 24, 1875 and came to Oregon for his health in 1900.

Immediate relatives attending the anniversary festivities were three of their four daughters: Mrs. Henry Kelly of Dorena, Mrs. Sidney Sheets of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Maurice Estabrook of Culp Creek; Mrs. Jessie Vining of Andrews being unable to attend. Eight of 11 grandchildren and five of six great-grandchildren were also present, thus making four generations attending. Five guests were present who also attended the wedding 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Spahr were recipients of many lovely gifts.

RUMMAGE SALE SLATED

Members of the Townsend club will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday, December 20, at Dick's Furniture Store. Coffee and pie will be served during the day.

The club is thankful to the merchants and others who donated articles for the rummage sale last Saturday at Short's Furniture Store.

Nathalie Circle Studying "Proclaim The Good News"

Nathalie Circle of the Methodist church met December 10 in the church parlor with Mrs. Edna Piller, president, in charge of the business meeting. The group voted to purchase Christmas bulletins for the Sunday church service preceding Christmas. Hostesses were Mrs. Bert Land and Miss Della Gallo.

Miss Melissa Clark presented the lesson on "Proclaim the Good News" and Mrs. A. M. Johnson led the devotionals. Mrs. Johnson resigned as secretary and Mrs. Bert Land was elected in her place. Miss Clark volunteered to keep a scrap book for the Circle which will be taken to Camp Magruder next summer for comparison with scrap books from other Circles.

Mrs. Piller reported on the recent Guild House Party held at the Osborn Hotel in Eugene. At this meeting a new secretary was elected to take the place of Beulah Faber, Central Point, whose term expires in June. Emma Jane Kitzmiller of Dallas was elected for this office. It was decided to have the House Party each year for state officers and presidents of the various Circles.

It was decided that each guild would send a box of homemade cookies to a foreign student attending college here. A money gift was raised for Deh Hwa Hang, a Malayan girl attending Willamette University who is being supported by the various Guilds of Oregon.

TWO LOCAL MEN PASS FOR MEMBERSHIP 40 ET 8

The Promenade of the Lane County Volture No. 80 40 et 8, held in Eugene December 11, attracted members from all parts of the county including seven or eight from this area. At the meeting Thursday two local men were passed for membership, Francis Bormuth and Charles Miller. Charles Whippis announced that the next Promenade would be held here January 8.

Of local interest was the fact that Rosemary Sweeney, a student nurse at the Sacred Heart hospital, received a $300 scholarship award from the 40 et 8, and her picture will appear in an early issue of the national magazine of this organization.

4-H DIZZY MOLDERS BUSY WITH CERAMICS

Latham's 4-H Dizzy Molders met at the home of their leader, Donna England, December 10, at which time they learned to mold ceramic leaf trays.

Members of the club are Carol Tonoli, chairman; LeGatha Woody, vice chairman; Sandra Hill, secretary; Kathleen Clark, news reporter, and Donna England and Nina Lindsey, leaders. Other members are: Tina Bumpus, Sharon Larson, Connie Basham, Joe Basham, Virgil England, Patsy Basham, Ronnie Landers, Milan Chapman, Marjorie Williams and Barbara Woodard.

Extension Unit Remember Old People at Home

(Mrs. Walter Downes)

Mount View correspondent) The Mount View Extension Unit held its regular meeting Friday, December 12 at the Dorena Grange hall.

Gifts were brought and wrapped for elderly people at the county home.

A white elephant sale was held and the sum realized will help out on the "baby sitter" fund when there is a need of a "sitter."

The next meeting will be an agent meeting to be held on January 9. Hostesses will be Bessie Gillispie, Lee Armstrong, Helen Carlisle and Meda Downes.

The lesson will be on "New Materials in Home Furnishings," given by the county agent.

In February the unit will have the lesson on "Fabric Gloves." For this meeting members will need about 1/2 yard well used outing flannel, soft lead or colored pencil, #7 or 8 sharp needles, colored sewing thread, pins, paper clips and scissors.

At first a glove will be made out of the flannel before making one out of the glove fabric. Please phone your glove size, either to Frances Evenson or Lee Armstrong not later than this week, so they can send for the glove patterns.

Bessie Gillispie and Arlyn Van Nortwick acted as hostesses at this meeting. The tables were beautifully decorated with a miniature Christmas tree, red candles and holly. Donna England was unable to serve as hostess on account of illness.

UGO-IGO CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS AT JANUARY MEET

(Mrs. R. G. Conner)

Lorane Reporter) Ugo-Igo club met Friday with Mrs. C. C. Hayes for its Christmas party and gift exchange. Only one member was unable to be present and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell was a guest.

The January meeting will be held with Mrs. B. F. Briggs when annual election of officers will be held.

Mrs. H. H. Taylor will contact the Red Cross to see if more sewing is needed before this meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess following the gifts exchange.

CLUB ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS WITH DINNER

Members of the Research club entertained their husbands at a turkey dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coiner. This annual affair is one of the highlights of the club.

Following the dinner a white elephant exchange of gifts was held and appropriate games furnished the evening's entertainment. The men displayed their ability as entertainers with charades.

Besides the regular members and their husbands, two former members, Mrs. S. T. Rose of Springfield and Mrs. Benton Schrenk of Albany and their husbands were present.

Enjoy Christmas Party

The Social Twelve club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton for the annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mrs. Blanche Saunders and Mrs. Frank McFarland. Mrs. Paul Means of Eugene was a guest.

The club voted to contribute $5 to the Southern Lane County Health office to help purchase curtains for the room. It was also decided to send gifts to two of the club's sick members, Mrs. Maude Wright and Mrs. William Thum.

Christmas decorations including a lighted tree and holly were symbolic of the season. Each guest was presented a holly corsage by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leon Morton.

CHRISTMAS PARTY ENJOYED BY UTOPIAN MEMBERS

The Utopian club met at the home of Mrs. B. McCormack at Dorena for a Christmas party on December 11. A chicken dinner was served at noon and the dessert in the afternoon.

A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was in the living room and the dining table was symbolic of the season. The day was spent in exchange of Christmas gifts and visiting.

Those present were Mesdames Lee Giles, Carl Shoberg, Roy Stith, Glen Cochran, Otto Howerton, Allen Giles and Frank Howes. Also present were Mrs. M. J. Riggs a visitor and Susan Giles. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Stith.

REBEKAHS SING CAROLS SILENT SISTERS REVEALED

(Mrs. R. G. Conner)

Lorane correspondent) Following the lodge meeting of Lorane Rebekahs Monday evening the members gathered around the piano to sing Christmas Carols before the gift exchange.

Silent Sisters were revealed and it was decided to have a birthday party each month for members whose birthdays are in that month instead of Silent Sisters next year.

Mrs. Chester Purdy volunteered to take members wishing to attend the district convention at Thurston on February 7. Mrs. Claude Payne will deliver the tribute to the state president.

After the Christmas Tree refreshments were served by Mrs. W. T. Moore, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell and Mrs. Dennis Mitchell.

DECEIT IS AN ENEMY

This lady had a brilliant mind, culture and commanding ability, yet she was shunned by other women for beguiling deceit. She was a lonely and unhappy person.

Deceit alienated husband and children. Money-bought friends soon tired of her uncanny ability to involve them in unsavory and sometimes embarrassing situations; they too deserted her. One Sunday her minister preached a sermon taken from "O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man," Psalms, XLIII, 1. Two days later this lady called at his study, bitterly assailed him. As she spoke he made notes. With the kindness of a great heart he pointed out deceit in her speech and deception in her relations with others.

The blaze in her eyes died. Her anger cooled. She hung her head. "It's me," she choked. Tears spilled out. Her lips quivered. "I promise you I'll be truthful. Honorable. Myself."

She is re-united with her family, is one of the popular ladies in her church, in her city and state. Deceit is an enemy. Scorn it. Be truthful and friends will love you for what you are.
