Charles Mitchell Heads RAM for '53

At the regular annual convocation and homecoming banquet of the Royal Arch Masons, Chapter No. 41, Charles B. Mitchell of Lorane was elected excellent high priest.

Other officers elected for 1953 are: Harold L. Wolfard, king; Arthur C. Schaefer, scribe; Edgar Rickard, treasurer; Earl C. Bal- lew, secretary; Wallace E. (Gene) White, captain of the hosts; Dwight (Doc) Near, principal so- journey; Maurice Bottorff, Royal Arch captain; Robert Poynter, chaplain; Richard Kensit, master of the first veil; H. B. McMillan, master of the second veil; Earl Stanley, master of the third veil, and Ray Denham, sentinel.

Officers were elected and in- stalled during the evening. Instal- ling officer was Dr. W. E. Lebow and marshal was Jesse Lansing Jr. Following the installation, the group was entertained by Jerry Harrison who sang three solos, accompanied by Mary Lou Wolfard.

Members of the Constellation club served the ham dinner to 115 members preceding the election and installation.

LORANE EXTENSION UNIT PLANS YULE EXCHANGE

(Mrs. R. G. Conner Lorane Reporter)

Home Extension unit will meet Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the grange hall. A Christmas tree with gift exchange will be held and in addition each mem- ber is asked to bring a toy or treat which will be sent to the McKinley Indian Mission.

Hostesses will be Mrs. C. C. Coleman, Mrs. W. J. Leach and Mrs. R. G. Conner.

To raise "pennies for friend- ship" each member is to bring the amount of her age which will be placed around the birthday cake. This unit has been going since 1940 so there will be 12 candles on the cake.

A GIFT THAT LASTS

The Defense Bonds you give your loved ones as Christmas gifts are lasting gifts. They will increase in value through the years until they mature. Then the recipient can still continue to hold them at interest to an additional 10 years to realize more than seventy-nine percent increase in the original value of your gift.

LANGUAGE REFRESHER COURSES OFFERED

Reserve members of Military In- telligence, Counter Intelligence Corps, and other detachments where foreign languages are used, who speak, read and write certain foreign languages may now apply for a refresher course in that language if they meet certain pre- requisites and qualifications.

Extension Club Has Gift Exchange

(Mrs. Harry Castle, Mosby Creek reporter)
The Mosby Creek Extension club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Darrel Mosby with Mrs. Raymond Powers as co- hosts. The day was spent in playing games, exchanging gifts and a business meeting.

There were two guests, Mrs. Bush from Creswell and Mrs. Ackers from Cottage Grove. Mrs. Ackers joined the club.

A get-well card was signed by all to send to Mrs. Doris Sandifur, who was in a hospital in Eugene for an operation.

The next meeting in January will be at Dorena Grange hall and will be on "Making Fabric Gloves." This meeting will be put on by Mrs. George Woodworth and Mrs. Dale Pitcher assisted by the Mt. View Extension club leaders. All are to bring shears and thimbles as a pair of flannel gloves will be made.

Mrs. Dale McCoy of Silk Creek won the prize on the best cut-out Christmas tree, and Mrs. Wilma Culp won the prize on guessing the nearest to the number of beans in a jar. Mrs. Mosby had her house decorated in the Christ- mas spirit with a lovely tree and a fireplace. Mrs. Mary Cornwell also joined the club again.

NO TALKING ALLOWED BY RUSSIAN DRIVERS

The Oregon State Motor associ- ation is calling the American pub- lic's attention to how it is in Russia if you drive an auto.

In the diary of a U. S. embassy man 18 months in Russia in the November 28 issue of U. S. News and World Report it comes to light that in Russia it is forbidden to talk when you operate an auto- mobile.

As the embassy attache was driving near the Kremlin in Mos- cow, the car was abruptly stopped by a militiaman who was direct- ing traffic at a considerable dis- tance from the car. The car, an American make, was whistled down wildly and when it drew to the curb the officer came over and the following ensued:

"Don't you know it is forbidden to talk when you operate an auto- mobile?" the driver was asked. "Never do it again. Is that clear?"

You never read of a decent man getting any benefit from a techni- cality in the law.

Christmas. While everyone goes off to enjoy the Christmas Eve festivities, leaving her home in bed, she eventually finds that her Christmas Eve turns into a very exciting and surprisingly enjoy- able one. A burglar breaks in while she is waiting for the Christchild to come in answer to her prayers.

The cast and helpers include Darlene Wilson, Dick Tank, Dar- lene Adams, Betty Wilson, Joyce Hounshell, Glenda Hudson, Bill Mason, Marie Yearous, Calvin Lovegren, Robert Rippey, Larry Mason, Franklin Satterwhite, and Yvonne Olson.

The choir will present a selec- tion of different Christmas carols. Mrs. Salem Magnusson is the di- rector.

Each department will have a part in the morning Sunday school service. A Christmas gift will be given to all the children and young people. A special missionary of- fering will be taken so that we can help give Christ, the world's most precious gift, to others. All friends and parents are invited to these services.

BLUE MOUNTAIN Assembly of God church will present a pageant in three acts, "A Gift to the Christ Child," at 8 o'clock Tues- day evening, December 23, in Do- rena Grange hall.

There will be 24 in the cast plus the carolers. The Rev. Donald L. Anderson and Mina Hill will have the leading parts, that of father and daughter. Mrs. Roy Davis will direct the pageant. The public is invited.

H. S. LIBRARY GETS BOOKS HONORING KOREAN DEAD

The high school library has re- ceived two volumes donated by the American Legion post here in memory of Korean veterans killed in action.

The first volume honoring Carl David Frost was Whitaker Chambers' "Witness," the au- tobiography of the man who testi- fied in the famous Alger Hiss trial. The second volume is "The Red Prussian" by Leopold Schwarzschild, the life and legend of Karl Marx. This was given in honor of Carl L. Gabrielson.

FOR A UNITED CHRISTMAS

Remember, U. S. Defense Bonds make wonderful Christmas gifts. Each Bond we purchase brings us closer to our United Christmas goal of "Peace on earth, good will toward men." At the same time, every Bond you give helps you en- joy the same thrill of Christmas cheer that makes Tiny Tim ex- claim, "God bless us, every one!"

Accidents Range From Mill Mishaps To Home Incidents

Accidents reported at the local hospital during the past week were mostly minor, ranging from a broken leg to mashing fingers in spring of a B. B. gun, and most of the patients were given outpatient treatment.

Bruce Glau of Blackbutte route was injured at Wagner-Binford mill and received a broken leg when a peavey slipped and struck him on the leg. Everett Cooper of Lorane had a severely cut hand while working at Mitchell Bros., Logging Co., and William Buffin- ton of Cottage Grove slipped on a log and injured his right side while employed for Farmen & Son.

Outpatient treatment was given Harry Kopperman, Cottage Grove, who dropped a cant hook on his ankle while working for Holmes Lumber Co.; Clarence Smith, Cot- tage Grove, received contusions to his right elbow and head when two cars collided on Mosby Creek; Barbara Pollard, 15, of Cottage Grove mashed her fingers when they came in contact with a BB gun spring; Charles Gibson of Cottage Grove was treated for electric burns to his hand and fingers while working at Cottage Grove Sand & Gravel Co.; Patsy Laird, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laird, received in- juries to her right arm while play- ing at school; David Holt of Cres- well received a broken nose while playing basketball and LaVant Woolfe of Cottage Grove was treated for first and second degree burns on arms and face as the re- sult of a pressure cooker blowing up.

MEN FINED ON DRUNK, RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGES

Duane E. Reed of Route 1 was fined $100 in municipal court here last Thursday after being arrested on a charge of driving under the influence of alcohol. He was nabbed by police as he was driving down the wrong side of the road on North River road.

David W. Crawford of Culp Creek was fined $25 Saturday on a charge of reckless driving and no operator's license.
