Saginaw Church On Hill Presents Yule Program

(Mrs. E. G. Sherrill)

The Christmas season was observed at the "Little White Church on the Hill" Sunday evening, December 21, and in spite of the terrific storm just preceding the opening of the program, a goodly number was present to enjoy the presentation of song and story.

The program opened with the congregation singing "O Come All Ye Faithful," and the Christmas welcome was given by Christine Balt. Carrie Lou Sherrill sang "Long Ago On Christmas Day." A tableau of "We Can Find the Babe" with Charlotte Sexton as reader and the Shepherds class as the seekers, and singing "Away in the Manger." Then the pianist, Mrs. Jos. Kominek, played a piano solo of "Star of the East," which was followed by a little skit, "Little Things" with a cradle song being sung by Catherine Connor and Shirley Sherrill.

A duet of "C-H-R-I-S-T-M-A-S" was sung by Shirley and Jean Ellen Sherrill, and "Christmas Carols" was presented by the Israelites class with Gwynne Bentley, Ronnie Williams and Charlotte Sexton giving the readings and the choir presenting the songs of "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Away in a Manger," and "Silent Night." Edna Cassidy, then entertained with "White Christmas" and "Winter Wonderland" on the accordion. Following the congregational singing of "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" the Gailleanes class presented a playlet entitled "Never Be Afraid" with the cast as follows: Shepherds, Edna Cassidy and Carol Gordiner; Naomi, Jean Ellen Sherrill; John, Joyce Kominek; Angel, Dolly Jo Kominek; Mary, Mrs. Malcolm Gibson; son and Joseph, Malcolm Gibson; choral numbers were by Catherine Connors, Shirley Sherrill and Mrs. Kominek. "Joy to the World" was sung by the congregation and the "Last Word" was given by Gail Bentley.

Treats were given to everyone, and gifts were distributed by the Gailleanes class. The program was arranged and presented by Mrs. Clarence Sexton and Mrs. Edgar Sherrill.

A most cordial invitation is extended to everyone to meet in Christian fellowship at the church each Sunday morning. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. and morning worship at 11.

Because of the Christmas holidays, there will be no preaching service at Walker church on Sunday, December 28 as the minister, Mr. Lavern Gomez, a student of N.C.C., is vacationing with his parents in California.

Services as usual beginning Sunday, January 4, 1953.
