The history of a California redwood tree growing in the yard of the home of the late Mrs. Ella Wills on the Lynch Currin place has been overlooked until the tree bloomed on Christmas Eve with outdoor colored lights.

Now a proper size for outdoor decoration, the tree was brought from California a number of years ago as just a slip by Mrs. Wills' son. She kept it in water on the back porch at least a year and a half to root and then set it out in the yard where it has thrived. Alice Noth came from Salem before Christmas and put up a Christmas tree and decorations in her mother's little house and arranged the outside lighting as a surprise to her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Younce of Corvallis, who came on Christmas Eve to spend the holiday here. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch Currin and family and Mrs. Rosa Currin of Cottage Grove, who is a spry 92, gathered for Christmas dinner in the little house by the redwood tree.

and son Garth of Dallas visited Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Currin, who is spending some time at the Lynch Currin home.

Mrs. E. M. McEwen suspects a new poultry strain in the community that could be very popular with housewives during holiday baking or use in angel food cakes. The only thing is she has no idea where the hen is that laid the egg. However in a dozen eggs purchased at London store was a regular sized egg that contained no yolk.

Another novelty at London store and not usually found here are tree ripened lemons brought from Jim Flemming's lemon farm in California.

London Store has announced that the magazine and book exchange will again be held at the store so bring in your used reading matter and exchange it for something you haven't read. There is no charge.

The kitchen at the Bob Warner home at Blackbutte was gutted by fire that started around the kitchen stove about 10:30 a.m. Monday. The quick work of neighbors and a tub full of water nearby saved the house as there was no pressure in the house water system. Besides damage to the walls and ceiling of the room, loss was mainly to children's clothing hanging in the kitchen near the stove to dry. The house belongs to Jack Mills.
