4-H Awards Made at Achievement Night; Scouts to Hold Honor Court on May 25

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Phone 140M

LORANE — 4-H Achievement Night was held in the high school auditorium Friday evening sponsored by Lorane Parent-Teachers club. A short business meeting was held preceding the program with officers being elected for the coming year.

Mrs. Oren Jacobsen will serve as president; Mrs. Frank G. Sessions, vice-president and Mrs. Wayne Coder was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The program opened with the flag salute and 4-H pledge. Douglas Burns brought in the American flag and Hazel Williamson carried the 4-H flag which was made by the 4-H sewing and livestock members.

James Kotrc, camp cookery leader, acted as master of ceremonies. He introduced the local leaders and Jack Gurton, county 4-H agent.

The combined clubs sang "She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain," followed by a demonstration on making "Pigs in a Blanket" by Jimmy Myers and John Meadows.

Knot Demonstrated

Judy Conner and Carol Coleman demonstrated how to finish a headscarf, then the combined group gave a club yell. Russell Mitchell and Floyd Diess from the Hereford club gave a knot tying demonstration and Jack Woolery and Billy Sayles explained how to make macaroni and cheese.

The combined group sang "Home on the Range" and the program ended with a demonstration on making a pig delouser by Robert Conner and Robert Burns from the Lively Livestock club.

Mrs. R. G. Conner, local leader, announced the following results of the Fair: Just So Girl Sewing I: Connie Wyman and Judy Conner, first; Lou Dell Doughty, second and Trena Armitage and Johnnie Bell Johnson, third. Judy and Connie will each receive a half camp scholarship, one from Lorane PTC and one from Lorane Home Extension unit.

Sew Its Fun, Sewing II: Karen Lobek, first; Linda Coleman, second and Barbara Coder, third. Karen will receive the half summer school scholarship from Lorane School.

Charmingly Yours, Sewing III: Donna Leach, first and Catherine

Tew, second. Donna will receive a half camp scholarship from Lorane PTC.

Lively Livestock club: Judy Conner, first; Robert Conner second and Roberts and Douglas Burns tied for third. Robert Conner will receive the PTC half camp scholarship as Judy already received one.

Busy Skilllets Camp Cookery: John Meadows, first; Jack Woolery, second. John will receive the PTC half camp scholarship.

Lorane Hereford club: Ned Pasco, first; winner of PTC half camp scholarship; Russell Mitchell and Floyd Diess tied for second place.

Mr. Gurton spoke briefly on benefits from 4-H club work and showed a motion picture "Cattle Country" made by the Union Pacific railway.

4-H girls served cookies and punch following the picture.

On Friday evening, May 22, the Junior Pirates of 1953 will entertain the senior class with the annual junior-senior banquet at the Lynnwood cafe in Eugene.

The pirate theme will be carried out in table decorations, menus, placecards and invitations. Richard Payne will welcome the seniors and Jimmy Singhose, president of the senior class, will give the response.

Other guests will be school board members and their wives and teachers and wives.

Baccalaureate Set

Baccalaureate sermon for eighth grade and high school graduates will be at Lorane Church of Christ with the Rev. Robert A. Green speaking on the subject "As Much As In Me Is."

It will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, May 24 and there will be no Christian Endeavor or Adult Study classes that evening.

Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held in Lorane IOOF hall Monday, May 25. A 7 p.m. potluck dinner will be served with parents and scout committee members as guests.

Awards which have been earned will be awarded later in the evening.

On Wednesday, May 27, the Senior class will present its Class Night program in the high school auditorium.

Sunday will be observed as Northwest Christian College day at Lorane Church of Christ and a student from NCC will bring the morning message.

Sunday was cleanup day at the IOOF cemetery and local IOOF members did a good job of getting the cemetery in order for decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell attended the Pacific Northwest Shrine Convention at Ashland. They left Friday morning and returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Purdy and Sandy Purdy attended the Show-de-O at the Eugene Fairgrounds Sunday afternoon.

Todd Tennant attended the riding lesson session which is being given free at the Riding club grounds in Cottage Grove each Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. Anyone may take these lessons whether or not he is a member of the riding club. The only requirement is that he must furnish his horse.

Measles are still taking a toll of people in the community both children and adults.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Leach and family attended the carnival at Curtin and reported a fine time.

Mill Camp Birthday club met for a potluck dinner with Mrs. Frank Miracle Friday. Birthdays of Mrs. Miracle and Mrs. Henry Tatum were celebrated. The afternoon was spent with fancywork by the club members.

NOVA J. AVANTS of Cottage Grove has been assigned to the 4th Infantry division at Fort Lewis, Wash., for basic training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nova Avants and is a member of Company G, 130th Infantry Regiment.

The first experimental aerial reconnaissance of troop movements (from a balloon) was made in May, 1952.
