HS PTA President Names Committees

A special meeting of the newly organized high school PTA was held at the school Monday night, with guest speakers including Mrs. Ross Doty of Eugene, Lane county president and Mrs. H. T. Gentile of Eugene, county advisor.

The speakers told of the values of high school PTA's. About 21 persons attended.

Mrs. Ivan Abeene, president, announced the following committees for the year: Membership, Mrs. Jess Stokes; program, Mrs. Joe Crepeau; recreation, Mrs. Claude Kime; hospitality, Mrs. Paul Sullivan and publicity, Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr. Others will be named later.

A membership drive will be conducted in the fall and all parents of high school students and teachers are invited to join. A coffee hour for teachers and parents is planned for the first fall meeting.

Knights Columbus End Convention At Astoria 17th

The Knights of Columbus ended a three day convention at Astoria May 17. Attending from Cottage Grove were John Mangan, district deputy of district 4, which includes Cottage Grove, Eugene, Lebanon, Albany, Corvalles and Newport councils; Les Corey, deputy grand Knight of the Cottage Grove council; Arnold Gates, Carl Kebelbeck and Bud Sizemore.

Messrs. Corey and Sizemore were elected representatives of the Cottage Grove council. Representing the ladies from here were Mmes. Les Corey, Bud Sizemore and Arnold Gates. The wives of the Knights in Astoria entertained the visiting ladies during the business sessions with teas, luncheons and style shows.

Highlighting the convention was the pledging of each delegate to his council, his God, his country and community.

Gov. Paul Patterson gave a brief address to them Sunday morning. Other speakers included the Right Rev. Abbott Damian from the Mt. Angel seminary and Judge Lonergan of Portland.

Delegates attending the convention were entertained with a trip to the moth ball fleet, located on Tongue Point, near Astoria.

STATE JR. C. OF C. OFFICERS SPEAK HERE

Two state Junior Chamber of Commerce officers were guest speakers at the dinner meeting of the local chapter last Thursday evening at the D-M cafe here.

They were Al Krieg, past president of the Portland chapter and now national state director and Andy Dakopolous, chairman of the state delegation to national convention. A third visitor was Jack Lively, past president of Springfield and who is running for national director at the Salem state convention this week end. Krieg will be a candidate for state president and Dakopolous for secretary-treasurer.

About eight couples from Cottage Grove expect to attend the convention.

Grove Man Faces 2 Conduct Charges

A Cottage Grove man got himself into double trouble with the law here Monday night after being involved in two conduct charges and escaping custody.

The man, William Bilby, was arrested with Ernie Herman about 8 p.m. at the Grove tavern on a disorderly conduct charge following a fight and both were released on $25 bail.

About 11 p.m. police were called to the Eagles tavern where Bilby was said to have knocked his wife unconscious. He was put in the police car while officers assisted in placing his wife in the ambulance. He escaped and was not found until later at his home. A charge of escaping custody was tacked onto the conduct charges.

Bilby was still in jail Wednesday morning, with bail set at $81. Mrs. Bilby was released from the hospital Monday night after being given outpatient treatment.

RELATIVES ARE CALLED BY MRS. DODGE'S ILLNESS

Relatives here of Mrs. Florence Dodge of Bend were called there this week by her serious illness.

Her son, Wilburn Dodge, captain of the Cottage Grove fire department who was attending a fireman's institute in Portland, hurried to her bedside. Going direct from Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. John Wells, sister-in-law and brother-in-law of the sick woman; Mrs. Wilburn Dodge and the ill woman's mother-in-law who had been visiting in Cottage Grove from Washington. Orin Land, a brother of Mrs. Florence Dodge, left Tuesday but had to turn back because of heavy snow storms on the pass.

Grovers Offered Special Seats For Theater Play

A special block of seats has been reserved for residents of Cottage Grove who wish to attend "Brigadoon," this year's musical comedy presentation at the University of Oregon Theatre. Tickets will be on sale at the Cottage Grove Sentinel through Saturday.

To take care of the anticipated overflow crowds, an extra performance has been scheduled for next Thursday, May 28. A section of seats at this show has been set aside for Cottage Grove residents. Season tickets will not be accepted at the special performance.

Ticket sales for this special performance are being handled by the University of Oregon chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

Set in a Scottish background, "Brigadoon" is the story of two Americans who wander on a village whose inhabitants waken only one day every hundred years. They arrive as preparations are being made for a wedding, and amidst the gaiety, singing and dancing one of them falls in love with the village beauty.

Many popular songs are featured in the play, including "Almost Like Being in Love," "Heather on the Hill" and "There but for You Go I."

Douglas Strobie, McKenzie Bridge, and Dorothy Anderson, Medford, play the romantic leads in the play.

The U. S. Coast Guard records the first marine fog signal in America as a cannon installed at Boston Light in 1719.
