Wedding Vows Exchanged Aug. 22 At Walker Church

Miss Lucille Stratton of Eugene and Richard L. McCrady of Cottage Grove exchanged wedding vows at an afternoon ceremony August 22 at the Walker Community church, with the Rev. Ren M. Hollister officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Stratton of Red Deer, Alberta, Canada, and the bridegroom is the son of the late Louis McCrady and Mrs. Edna Hoskins of Cave Junction.

The rostrum of the church was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and the altar was similarly decked. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, David E. Stratton of Eugene.

The bride made her gown and also that of her attendant. Hers was of white lace over white taffeta. Her fingertip veil was of nylon net trimmed with lace flowers. She carried a white orchid and stapanotis on her grandfather's Bible.

A cousin of the bride, Mrs. Milo McCall of Springfield, was her matron of honor and only attendant. Her gown was of light green net over Nile green taffeta, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Best man was Milo McCall of Springfield and usher was Jack Stratton, also of Springfield, cousin of the bride.

Reception In Church Yard

The reception was held in the church yard where white tapers and pink gladioli were decorations on the bride's table which was centered with a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Demora Relyea of Eugene, cousin of the bride, cut the cake which was served by Mrs. Paul Knoles of Eugene, another cousin. Miss Lillian Stratton, sister of the bride, of Red Deer, served the punch and also passed the guest book.

The bride's going away outfit for a wedding trip to the Oregon and California coasts was a light blue suit with white and blue accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride has lived for the past two and a half years with her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Relyea, in Eugene. They will make their home in Cottage Grove.
