Joint Birthday Party
Held for Three Matrons

On December 29, a dinner was served at the Cottage Inn at noon, and those whose birthdays occurred that day, met for a get-together as usual. The cake managers had decorated the table suitably for the occasion. Lighted birthday candles and served a repast fit for a king. The queens who met for the dinner were Mary Martin, Lillian Gray Belknap and Elsa Spriggs.

After the dinner, gifts were exchanged. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gray had a large cake for the mother, Mrs. Belknap, which she cut and served to the others. Mrs. Mary Plunkett sent a large corsage of carnations for the oldest member.

This wonderful gesture was started by Viola DeHaven five years ago and since then she has been in Florida and now in Missouri. She sent gifts and cards to all of her former "pals". She had decided five years ago that our birthdays should be celebrated this way, and since then we have had four, five and three at the different meetings. They plan on one each year and adding more whose birthdays occur the 29th of December. It was an occasion never to be forgotten.

MRS. MILLS ENTERTAINS
MPG CLUB MEMBERS 5TH

Members of the MPG club were guests Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. K. K. Mills who entertained at a luncheon and social afternoon.

Her color scheme was carried out in shades of lavender and gold, using a gold cloth on the luncheon table which was centered with a silver bowl of lavender carnations, two lavender and one white orchid. Her crocheted nut cups were also lavender color and her glassware had stems of violet hue.

The club will meet again January 19 with Mrs. Roy Short.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akerblade spent the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bauder and children, Hal, Kristie and Linda, at Vancouver, Wash.

Kennell-Edin

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD CARTER, who before her marriage was Miss Eloise Crosby. The wedding was an event of Christmas night at the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ. They will live in Boise, Idaho, where both are attending Boise Bible College and he is a student minister.

Couple Repeats Memorized Vows,
Bride Wears Mother's Wedding Ring

Miss Eloise Crosby and Richard Carter repeated their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony Christmas night when they were united in marriage at the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ at 7 o'clock. Mr. F. Sherwood Smith, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Mr. Hubert Prather, minister of the Church of Christ of Drain, who performed the consecration ceremony and prayer for the bride and bridegroom which was a testimony of their lives for the work of the Lord. Tall baskets of bronze mums and yellow Shasta daisies and candles with 24 candles formed the setting for the exchange of vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Crosby of Cottage Grove and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter of Drain.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown of ivory slipper satin was fashioned with round neck yoke, long fitted sleeves, a fitted bodice with buttons down the back, a peplum at waist line with smaller corresponding ones around neck yoke and a full gathered skirt that ended in a train. Her fingertip circular veil of double illusion was edged with lace and held in place with a headpiece of frilled tulle with pearl trim. She carried a purple throat orchid on a white ribbon. For sentimental purposes the bride wore her mother's wedding ring that had been slipped onto her mother's wedding finger 30 years ago by her father.

Following the wedding ceremony, by request of the bridegroom, the bride sang to him "Because."

Sister Attends Bride
Mrs. Roy Hansen of Glide, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a floor-length gown of gold taffeta, carried a nosegay of Chief Komo carnations and wore a matching headpiece. Flower girl was little Fay Ann Hansen, niece of the bride and daughter of the matron of honor. Her gown was identical to that of her mother's and she carried a white basket of rose petals.

Miss Neila Richardson of Cottage Grove and Miss Beverly Addleman of Eugene, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids, the former in Nile green taffeta carrying a nosegay of deep rose carnations and Miss Addleman in Christmas green and carrying a nosegay of light pink carnations. Their gowns were styled like the matron of honor's. All attendants wore single strands of pearls, corresponding to that of the bride which was a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was attired in a bronze broadcloth taffeta dress with winter white hat and gloves and corsage of Komo carnations, while Mrs. Carter chose a dark blue satin dress with frosty white hat and gloves. Her corsage was the same as Mrs. Crosby's.

Dewey Obenchain of Boise, Idaho, was best man, and ushering were Milton Levings of Cottage Grove and Edward Klov of Eugene.

Roy Aubrey Soloist

Melodies of wedding music, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "I Love Thee Truly," and "Always," were played preceding the ceremony by Mrs. Sherwood Smith, who also accompanied the soloist, Roy Aubrey, who sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The reception was held in the fellowship room of the church with Mrs. Veda Bell, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Hubert Prather, cutting the cake; Mrs. Robert Beach and Miss Neila Johnson pouring coffee; Miss Joyce Thun and Miss Ann Hill poured punch while Carol Burt and Garnet Beach were in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Milton Levings passed the guest book. Approximately 200 relatives and friends attended the wedding and reception. A large wedding bell was hanging over the bride's table which was laid with a white linen cloth, centered by a tiered cake decorated with pink and white rosebuds. Background was of lattice with fir boughs, holly, mistletoe, and red satin bows. Mrs. G. E. Finnerty and Marvin Shaw were in charge of decorations. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. James Hemenway, Mrs. J. A. Heath, Mrs. Jess Hill and Mrs. Harry Patten.

Mrs. Belknap Feted
On 83rd Birthday

On Tuesday evening, December 29, a dinner was served by the Ronald Gray family in honor of the 83rd birthday of Mrs. Lillian Gray Belknap, mother of Mrs. Gray.

It was a delicious dinner and all decorated for the occasion. Many beautiful gifts were at the table for Mrs. Belknap. Some from here, and some from other places, one gift being a bottle of perfume from France.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray served a birthday cake with eight candles on one side and three on the other for the 83 years.

Many friends, who could not be here, either called by phone or wrote and sent gifts. Mrs. Belknap was very pleased by all.

Portland Man Speaks
To Local Garden Clubs

Bernie Grass of Portland, representative of the California Spray Chemical Corporation, was guest speaker to members of the Plain Dirt Garden club and Cottage Grove Home Garden club at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Grass told in detail what to do for flowers and shrubs according to their needs and recommended his products for their various requirements. He showed interesting colored talking slides of many beautiful flowers including camellias, azaleas, begonias, fuchsias, etc. This was followed by a question and answer period.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Norman Richards and Mrs. Harry Arp.
