

Lorane Youngsters Join 4-H Club

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Phone 140FM

LORANE—Five 4-H clubs were organized at Lorane school Friday afternoon. A total of 48 children joined the clubs. The two largest will be livestock and wood-working with 13 members in each. Ten girls will learn to knit, seven well sew and five will cook.

Lorane Lively Livestock club will again be led by Mrs. R. G. Conner. Officers elected were Robert Conner, president; Lynn Wegand, vice-president and Jimmy Myers, secretary and treasurer. Other members are Robert and Douglas Burns, Bruce Wyman, Jimmy Bell, Jack Woolery, Ned and Bobby Pasco, Billy Sayles, Judy Conner and Shirley Gillespie.

Projects will include several kinds of livestock and poultry with five rabbits, three pigs, two steers, one dairy heifer and three poultry projects represented.

Mrs. Huber Forpahl will lead a Woodworking I club. This is the first time this project has been tried in Lorane 4-H clubs.

Knitting Leader Needed

Knitting I will be taught by Mrs. Arthur Barker if another leader cannot be found. If anyone can knit and has time to lead the club her assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Lou Dell Doughty will act as president of Knitting I; Johnny Bell Johnson will be vice-president and Hazel Williamson secretary. Other members are Treva Armitage, Leota Cox, Sharon Kotre, Linda Kotz, Connie Purdy, Linda Rowlette and Roberta Wegand.

Cooking I will be led by Mrs. W. J. Leach. The club will meet at her home after school instead of at the school this year as all the girls live nearby.

President will be Jean Lacky; vice-president, Jessie Singhose; secretary, Barbara Lacky; treasurer, Peggy Leach and reporter, Charlotte Jacobs. There are only five girls enrolled in cooking.

In Just So, Sew Sewing club Mrs. Conner will again be leader. Three girls are taking the Just So Girl division and four are in Sew Its Fun. Officers are Patty Jacobson, president; Shirley Gillespie vice-president and Judy Conner secretary-treasurer. Other members are Shelia Alford, Linda Lee Buell, Diane Dey and Barbara Warner.

Christian Endeavor Elects

Lorane Christian Endeavor youth group held election of officers Sunday evening. To serve this year will be Arlin Rothauge as president; Scott Bulderback as vice-president and Roberta Tew secretary-treasurer. The program committee for the year will be the officers. Entertainment committee will be Joan Nease, Margaret Hayes and Stanley Purdy. Jimmy Johnson, Charles Bulderback and Mrs. Stanley Purdy will be on the publicity committee.

Seventeen young people were out Sunday evening. All young people in the community are cordially invited to attend. Christian Endeavor meets at the Christian church at 7 p.m. each Sunday evening. Arlin Rothauge will be leader next Sunday.

Homebuilders class of the Christian church had a party at the church Saturday evening. New officers were elected for the year. Mrs. Larry Wilson will serve as president, Lowell Drullinger as vice-president and Mrs. Richard Hausotter as secretary-treasurer.

The group decided to study directly from the Bible instead of using the material they have been using the past quarter.
